Weekly Words from The Rock

In the work, International Children's Bible Field Guide: Answering Kids' Questions from Genesis to Revelation (Copyright 1989, Thomas Nelson Publishers), Lawrence Richards from pages 149-151 looks at the 12 disciples. The following is taken from his work.

Who were Jesus' disciples? Sometimes in the Bible disciple just means a follower of Jesus. This was someone who believed in him (John 8:31). But Jesus also chose twelve men to be his special disciples. The twelve disciples traveled with Jesus everywhere he went. They watched his miracles, listened to his teaching and asked him questions. Then Jesus sent them out to teach and preach.

Who were the 12 disciples? (The following is taken from a first person account of each of the disciples).

- A. Simon Peter – I was a tough fisherman when Jesus called me to follow him. It was hard for me to be a disciple. I kept on saying the wrong thing. But Jesus stayed with me. I was the first disciple to preach the Gospel after Jesus was raised from death. I was the first to do a miracle, preach to the Gentiles and raise the dead. I am mentioned more in the Gospels and Acts than any other disciple. You can read about me in Luke 5:1-11; Matthew 16:13-26; Matthew 26:31-35, 69-75; John 21:15-19; Acts 1:15-26.
- B. James the Greater – Until we meet Jesus, my brother and I ran a fishing business for our dad, Zebedee. Then we left everything to travel everywhere with Jesus. John and I were both rather hot-tempered. In fact, Jesus called us his “Sons of Thunder.” You can see why when you read that once we wanted to call down fire on some villagers. They wouldn’t let us stay overnight. John, Peter, and I were closest to Jesus. We three were there when Jesus cried in Gethsemane. And when Jesus was changed on a mountain we were
- C. John – Like my brother James, I was hot-tempered. But I changed. In fact, I’m the “disciple Jesus loved.” The New Testament letters that I wrote are about love. When Jesus was killed on a cross, he asked me to take care of his mother. I lived many years after Jesus returned to heaven, and I saw Jesus’ church spread across the Mediterranean world. One of the Roman emperors sent me to a lonely island. This is where I wrote Revelation, the last book of the Bible. You can read about my days with Jesus and the Twelve in Matthew 4:21; Matthew 17:1; Mark 1:19,29; Mark 5:37; Mark 9:2,38; Mark 10:35,41; Revelation 1:1,4,9.
- D. Philip – I suppose my greatest work is my eagerness to introduce people to Jesus. I told my friend Nathanael about Jesus. When some Greek travelers wanted to meet Jesus, I was the one who tried to arrange it. I am mentioned in John 1:43-49; John 6:5,7; John 12:21-22; John 14:8-9; Acts 1:13.
- E. Nathanael (Bartholomew) – I’m the Nathanael that Philip told about Jesus. My other name is Bartholomew. Jesus told me he saw me under a fig tree. I knew then Jesus was the Son of God. Jesus seemed surprised that I believed in him so quickly. He promised that I would see many wonderful things as I followed him. You can read about me in John 1:45-49; John 21:2; Acts 1:13.
- F. Matthew (Levi) – Sometimes I am called “Levi” in the Bible. In my own day I was called all sorts of names. You see, I collected taxes. I usually collected extra for myself. All of us did it. So most folks hated us tax collectors. They looked on us as great sinners. But Jesus came up to my tax office one day and told me to follow him. And I did. You can read about me and the feast I held for Jesus. I am in the Gospel I wrote and in other Gospels, too. Just find and read Matthew 9:9; Matthew 10:3; Mark 2:14; Mark 3:18; Luke 5:27,29; Luke 6:15; Acts 1:13.
- G. James the Lesser, Thaddaeus (Judas), Simon the Zealot. We three aren’t very well known. James is usually mixed up with the other James in the New Testament. By the way, he’s called “the lesser” because he’s younger than the better known James. It’s not because he is smaller. As for me, Thaddaeus, my other name was Judas. I just had to keep on saying “not Iscariot” so folks wouldn’t confuse me with the traitor who betrayed Jesus. Simon is called “the Zealot” because he wanted to turn against the Romans who ruled our country. We’re not well known, as I said. But we followed Jesus faithfully. And after he was raised from death we went out to preach the Gospel. You can read about us in Matthew 27:56; Mark 15:40; Mark 16:1; Luke 24:10; John 14:22.
- H. Judas Iscariot – Yes, I’m the one. I betrayed Jesus for money. Money was always important to me. I was the treasurer for our group of disciples. I kept our money-and I took some for myself. People have tried to make excuses for what I did. I don’t want excuses. I sold Jesus out because that’s the kind of person I am. Even being around Jesus for years didn’t change me. That was because I didn’t want to change. You can read about me in Matthew 26:14,25,47; Luke 22:3,47,48; John 6:71; Acts 1:16,18,25.

Question for the Week

From the list above we have the following disciples:

1. Simon Peter
2. James the Greater
3. John
4. Philip
5. Nathanael (Bartholomew)
6. Matthew (Levi)
7. James the Lesser
8. Thaddaeus (Judas)
9. Simon the Zealot
10. Judas Iscariot

I left out two of the twelve disciples. Do you know who they are?
 Extra Credit: Who took the place of Judas Iscariot as the twelfth disciple?
 God’s blessings to you!
 Father Schuster

At our first 50th Anniversary celebration planning meeting, we encouraged Resurrection Charter Members to share their early experiences of parish life. What a joy it was last week to get a letter from Rosie Elwood sharing some of her fondest memories. Rosie has been involved in many different parish ministries throughout the years. She is still actively involved as a money counter, baking goodies for parish events (Mark absolutely loves her famous sweet pickles), and helping out with the rummage sale. You will find her and Bob devoting an hour each week in Eucharistic Adoration and offering a warm handshake and big smiles while greeting at Sunday Mass. Thank you Rosie for this reflection.

Thoughts from Cheryl

"The Church of the Resurrection had a humble beginning. We attended Mass in an old airport building, sitting on folding chairs and kneeling on the floor. We also had something very special and that was a kind and good pastor and a congregation of very wonderful close-knit people.

Father Zenk decided we should meet in neighborhood groups and that worked really well. Ours was the "Brookside" group and we were a lively bunch! We helped out at the Knights of Columbus bingo on Monday nights, baking bars and cookies and selling bingo cards and that was lots of fun! We also helped with the rodeo—lots of hard work there, but also lots of fun!

Our parish has grown in numbers over the years with the addition of many young families. They've brought lots of enthusiasm and joy to us all. We've also lost many of our dear friends, so let's honor them all by making this 50th Anniversary event the best party ever!!"

This letter is a perfect opportunity to remind all parishioners that we welcome your stories of belonging to Resurrection and what it has meant for you. You do not have to be a charter member, we are interested in what you find meaningful, what helps you grow spiritually, and what brings value to your daily lives.

We appreciate all of you who have signed up to help with planning the Anniversary Celebration. The Pastoral Council will be meeting on Monday, February 20 to determine our next steps. Stay tuned for further information, but be sure to mark Sunday, June 11 on your calendar and make plans to join us for our anniversary celebration.

Liturgy Notes from Joann

The Mystery of Sacred Objects

I grew up in a family of nine children. Every day, mom would call us to the dinner table and we would have wonderful meals together. Whether it was a pan or two of lasagna, a hot dish, a kettle of soup or fish on Fridays – we would sit down together at the dining room table, each in his/her assigned seat and share a meal. We used plastic glasses, plastic plates, plastic-handled table ware and paper napkins. That all changed when the holidays came around. On Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter we would set the table with the good china and use the silverware that mom and dad received for a wedding gift. We even got to drink out of glasses and used cloth napkins!

Sacred events and celebrations call for the use of sacred objects. When we gather together for Mass, we use sacred objects that express to us that this is no ordinary meal! From vestments and vessels to furniture and flowers – when we gather to celebrate the Eucharist the sacred objects remind us that the word we hear and the food we receive are not ordinary words and common food – but the Word of GOD and the Body and Blood of Christ.

The special attention that we give to the objects that we use can also be found in the writing of our Jewish ancestors. Take for instance this passage from Exodus which describes how the Arc of the Covenant was to be built as well as details concerning the construction of a table, the temple veil, lampstand and vestments:

“According to all that I show you regarding the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of its furnishings, so you are to make it...You shall also make a table of acacia wood...You shall make a lampstand of pure beaten gold. The tabernacle itself you shall make out of ten sheets woven of fine linen twined and of violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, with cherubim embroidered on them. You shall make a veil woven of violet, purple, and scarlet yarn...These are the vestments they shall make: a breast piece, an ephod, a robe, a brocade tunic, a turban, and a sash.” (Exodus 25:9-10, 23, 31: 26:1; 28:4)

Why all the fuss? When we remember that worship is our praise and honor to GOD who loves us unconditionally – then we want to pay attention to the details. This does not mean that everything that we use in worship has to be ornate and expensive – it does mean that objects need to be appropriate for the praise and honor of GOD. An object becomes sacred when we set it aside or dedicate it for the worship of GOD. This building is just a building – but because we dedicate it to the worship of GOD, it becomes a sacred space. A simple napkin, when used for the sole purpose of wiping the precious Blood, becomes a sacred object known as a purificator. More about this and other sacred objects that we use, next week...

Psalm Refrain for February 12 –
6th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Psalm 119:1)
Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord.

Grades 1-5: Faith formation classes meet on Monday, February 6th at 4:30 and 6:00pm.

Virtues in Practice: For the month of February, we will be learning about the virtue of prudence. It is a word that many of us do not use frequently. For the younger children, we will define it as “thinking about what is best to do”; and for the upper elementary children, “making good decisions in specific circumstance.” Prudence helps us to decide what is best to do in a certain situation. It is one of the four cardinal virtues because other virtues depend on prudence: if you do something that is good, but you do it in the wrong way, or at the wrong time or place, it is not an act of virtue. Parents can begin to help their children understand and practice prudence by using the word in everyday conversations as teaching opportunities arise. We also have help from the saints! Two saints that we can look to for practicing the virtue of prudence are St. Junipero Serra and St. John Neumann. Pray for us!

First Communion: First Communion Learning Centers for parents and children are on Monday, March 6th in Fr. Zenk Hall. Come anytime between 4:00-7:00pm.
