An ever-growing Eucharistic community boldly serving others through God's love

Each week during the Lenten Season, we will unfold each letter from the word "Prayer." This week is the letter "P." The "P" is to remind us to Practice Patience during the coming week. How can we become more patient? Some suggestions would be to let someone go before you in the grocery line; while driving this week, pray for the drivers that you may encounter during rush hour traffic. Anna Nation provided us with this week's artwork symbolizing the letter "P."

Lead Us from Temptation

Creator God, you formed us in your image and breathed your life into us, filling us with your spirit; Yet we turn our backs to you and respond to the temptations of wisdom beyond our grasp and the possibilities of power and gain.

Be merciful to us, O Lord, for we have sinned with open eyes and selfish hearts.

Be merciful, O Lord, for we know not what we do. May your mercy fall on us, O Lord, as we seek to do your will, for you live and reign united as Father, Son, and Spirit, for ever and ever. Amen.

Weekly Words from The Rock

The Eucharist is the most beautiful gift that Jesus Christ has given. In the Eucharist, he has given himself. In his book, The Sacraments We Celebrate: A Catholic Guide to the Seven Mysteries of Faith, Msgr. Peter Vaghi dedicates two chapters to the Eucharist. On pages 55-56, he writes, "So rich and inexhaustible is this mystery, this sacrament, that the Catechism (Catechism of the Catholic Church) spells out the different names that have been used to describe it (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church 1329-1332):

Eucharist: Because it is an action of thanksgiving to God.

Eucharistein: Because Eucharist means "to give thanks" in Greek.

The Lord's Supper: Because of its connection with the supper that the Lord took with his disciples on the eve of his Passion, when he instituted this sacrament.

The Breaking of Bread: Because by this action the disciples first recognized Jesus after the Resurrection (Luke 24:13-35).

Eucharistic Assembly: Because the Eucharist is celebrated amidst the assembly of the faithful, the visible expression of the Church.

The Memorial of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass:

Because it makes present the one sacrifice of Christ.

Divine Liturgy: Because the Church's whole liturgy finds its center and most intense expression in the celebration of this sacrament.

The Most Blessed Sacrament: Because it is the Sacrament of sacraments.

Holy Communion: Because by this sacrament we unite ourselves to Christ, who makes us sharers in his Body and Blood to form one single body.

Holy Mass: The liturgy concludes with the sending forth of the faithful to fulfill their mission in the world. The word Mass comes from the Latin word for sent, missio.

I believe Msgr. Vaghi would be in agreement. No single word or phrase would adequately define everything the Eucharist gives. It is mystery. It is the beauty of Jesus Christ.

Holy Humor

Adam had a conversation with the Lord one day after he was finished naming all the animals. He had noticed that every animal had a mate except for him. So Adam asked God if he could make him a mate also. Therefore, God told Adam, "I will make for you a creature that will be the most beautiful thing to look at. She will always be in agreement with you, she will bring coffee to you every morning, prepare all your meals, and will bless you in many other ways."

Being a little skeptical, Adam asked the Lord, "How much will this cost me?"

God replied, "An arm and a leg."

Then Adam asked, "What can I get for a rib?"

Answer for the Week

Question: How do we know Jesus is alive?

Answer: The New Testament was written by men who saw Jesus after he had risen from the dead and the number of accounts of Jesus appearing after his death to a person or groups of people even surprises me. I'll share them with you.

Mary Magdalene John 20:11-18

Two other Mary's Matt 28:8-10

Peter, the same day Luke 24:34

Two disciples on

Emmaus Road Luke 24:13-31

Acts 1:3-12

Paul, near Damascus Acts 9:3-6

Stephen, when he was killed

Acts 7:55

Paul, in the Temple Acts 22:17-19

John, on island of Patmos Rev 1:10-19

One of the ways we claim Jesus Christ rose from the dead is first-hand accounts. Please remember that those who wrote were willing to be beaten, jailed and die for Jesus. So I leave you with the question: Would you be willing to undergo such persecution if what you professed was all a hoax?

Question for the Week

I hear it asked all the time. What are you? Most often, this implies, where do you fall on the horoscope scale? Being born on May 28, I am a Gemini. Trust me, I am not a horoscope buff however in light of the question for the week I looked up my horoscope for February 10, 2017. It reads, "You and your friends may have been planning a party for some time. Now you realize it's entirely up to you to actually make things happen, Gemini. It seems that if you're going to get anywhere, you need to take charge and delegate responsibility. You like to be in this position. Your great creative mind could give you a load of ideas for a party that no one will forget."

Question: What is the Church's stance on horoscopes?

The answer will be provided next week.

God's blessings to you!

Father Schuster

Mardi Gras 2017

Thank you to all of our parishioners and friends that came to celebrate Mardi Gras with us this year. We especially want to thank Rochelle Arvizo and Lisa Kowalewski for stepping up to be co-chairs this year. The time and effort they put in to make this event happen is very much appreciated by all of us at Resurrection. We were blessed to have such wonderful people that came forward to help, including Tom Mahon, Tom Kowalewski, the Faith Sharing Leaders, Confirmation students, Phil Am group and the volunteers that were there to help set up, work the stations and tear down and clean up the Zenk Hall.

Liturgy Notes from Joann

RCIA – Rite of Sending and Rite of Election

During the season of Lent, those of us who are already baptized into the life of Christ, spend this time practicing the good habits of praying, fasting and giving alms. We do this to remind ourselves of what it means to be disciples of Christ and to prepare ourselves at Easter to renew the promises that we made at baptism, or that were made for us.

For Kayeng Vue, Steven Ly and Garrett Chalstrom, our catechumens - this season of Lent is a time of final preparation for their baptism at the Easter Vigil. It was the grace of GOD that brought each one of them to this community to inquire about baptism and this grace continues to be with them as they learn about the story of salvation history – the story of GOD’S great love for us. This story has changed their lives. They are more open to the presence of GOD in their lives and they are eager to be called children of GOD - to walk as brothers of Christ. They have found strength in GOD’S grace and support in our community’s prayer and example.

Today, at the 8:30 AM Mass, this community celebrates the Rite of Sending – a rite in which we testify that Kayeng, Steven and Garrett are indeed ready for the final weeks of preparation to receive the Sacraments of Initiation - Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil. From this community, we send them with our prayers and the promise of our continued support to Bishop Quinn - the Bishop of the Diocese of Winona.

Bishop Quinn receives these men and other catechumens from across the diocese at a special liturgy called the Rite of Election which takes place on Sunday, March 5 at 3:00 PM at Queen of Angels in Austin. In this rite the bishop affirms that these catechumens have been chosen by GOD and are called to the Sacraments of Initiation. As a sign of commitment to GOD and the new life they will receive at baptism, the catechumens write their names in a special book called the Book of the Elect. To be elected means to be chosen by GOD. In this final time of preparation – we refer to Kayeng, Steven and Garrett no longer as catechumens – but as The Elect.

All the baptized are GOD’S chosen people. In each of our lives, Christ continues his mission of bringing peace and light into the world. We do this in very simple ways - by living as Christ in our families and in all our daily interactions. The Elect (Kayeng, Steven and Garrett) are chosen not simply for the Sacraments of Initiation – but for mission, Christ’s mission. Please take a bookmark/prayer card from the Gathering Space and spend this time of Lent praying for our Elect. We also have two candidates who seek full communion with the Catholic Church - Ranae Pals and Melissa McColloch. Let us support all of them with our prayers and model for them what it means to be a disciple of Christ.

Psalm Refrain for March 12 – 2nd Sunday of Lent (Psalm 33:22)

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Sunday School dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x101

As we enter this Lenten season, let us ponder more deeply the guidance from Father Schuster as we contemplate the word PRAYER. We can break this word down and think about each letter and what that letter represents. Let us start with the letter P and the word patience. I am a wife, a mother of 3 children, a daughter, a sister, an in-law, a coworker and a friend. All these “hats” can sometimes collide in such a way that the first virtue to fall (for me) is patience. As Christians we are called to love the other, our neighbor, our enemy. When we give our full attention to the other, at times, this can lead to a break down in patience, especially when our prayer lives are not vibrant. Without a very centered prayer life, the bumps and bruises of living our daily lives are felt more acutely and can then lead to a loss of energy (for me that means a loss of patience). Thankfully, the Catholic church provides us with essential tools to help us successfully navigate trials. When we recall the tools of our faith and put them into practice, the results are stellar! Try this the next time you feel your patience faltering: pray a Hail Mary; Jesus, I trust you. Then, share with me (and your family) the results. I look forward to your story. Mother Mary, Pray for us. Amen!

Grades 1-5: The 2nd graders will be having First Communion learning centers with their parents in place of their classes on Monday, March 6th. Grades 1, 3, 4, and 5 will have regular faith formation classes. We will talk about patience and what we learned from the Lent/Easter centers.

Virtues in Practice: Respect is our virtue for March. It means recognizing the dignity of all people. The first and second graders will learn about respect from Saint Jeanne Jugan. She was born into a poor family and worked in the kitchen of a wealthy woman. Jeanne and two other women lived together and helped the poor, even giving up their own beds on some nights. This charity grew into the work of the Little Sisters of the Poor, who now care for poor elderly people all around the world. St. Jeanne, pray for us! Next week, we will talk about the third, fourth, and fifth graders and Saint Damien of Molokai.

First Communion: First Communion Learning Centers are on Monday, March 6th, open 4:00-7:00pm. Please bring your completed workbooks with you to the learning centers.

Thoughts for Lent: As we approach Confirmation, let's use this Lent as a special preparation time.

Patience is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. It's so easy to become impatient with our family and friends and when things don't happen as quickly as we want them to. Take some time this week to practice patience: do a puzzle or game that takes a few days to complete, turn off your electronics for a set time everyday and focus on the “here and now,” take a deep breath and count to ten when you are annoyed by someone, and, most importantly, take time for prayer and ask God to help you be patient. “I...urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love.”(Eph 4:1-2)
