

March 18th, 2018, Fifth Sunday in Lent Third Scrutiny

*During these final days of Lent, listen carefully for the voice of Christ, who says, "Come out!"
Jesus is calling each of us from the darkness of the grave.
Allow his Spirit to fill you and renew you.*

An ever-growing Eucharistic community boldly serving others through God's love

Boldly Confess

God of power and might, by crushing death on the Cross, your Son, Jesus, revealed your majesty and restored us to life. We humbly ask that you protect us from sin and death and keep us from turning away from you.

Break open the tomb of our hearts and fill it once again with your Spirit. Show mercy to those in exile because of sin and enlighten their journey to your warm embrace.

Send your Holy Spirit to strengthen our faith and rouse us to share the Good News so others might know that "with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption." And on that final day, may we be granted eternal life.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Weekly Words from The Rock

Random Thoughts from Fr. Schuster

What I want to do in this column is to offer some random thoughts. There is no ebb and flow; the key word is random.

This coming Monday is the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral in Winona. It was one year ago that we hosted the Chrism Mass at Resurrection. It was a moment I will never forget. To see so many people come together to host the event is heartwarming. Every priest who hosts the event wonders, "How many people will come?" Last year the church was full with overflow into the Gathering Space. To all who helped, thanks for the wonderful memories. If you have the opportunity to attend this year, it is on Monday, March 26 at 7:00 pm.

At our February staff meeting, the topic of preaching came up. What is it like to preach? First, it is a tremendous responsibility. Having people look you square in the eye and expecting something from you.

Second, even preachers look back and say about a homily, "I wish it would have been better. I owe the people something more." Yet, it is to such homilies that people say, "Thanks Father, I needed to hear that." Go figure.

And third, I don't expect people to remember every word I say. I don't expect people to be engaged in every word I say. My hope is that I can leave you with one word or thought.

If I were to sit down with a group of youth, the questions I would like to ask are, what does the future look like to you? What are we doing to help you on your journey through life? What are we not doing to help you on your journey through life? What can you bring that I cannot bring? What would your generation like to teach us?

I am forty nine years old. What does that mean? It depends upon how you look at life. The glass is either half full or half empty. You can either say, "Half of my life is already over," or, "I still have half of my life to live."

God has a way of humbling you. When I was a teenager, I refused to get out of the pew with my family to have my feet washed. Now, I am washing the feet of others.

Faith is a lot like life. It has its ups and downs but in the end it is really about the spin you put on it.

To some, I am young. To others, I am old.

It is getting to that time of Lent where things are getting a bit more trying.

The enthusiasm at the beginning is being tested.

Always remember. Actions first, words second.

Is it normal that when you wake up in the morning the first thing you ask is, "what day is it?" Follow that by the second question, "what do I have to do today?"

Many elderly find themselves questioning their value and worth. I tell them there is one thing you have, the time to do that many do not. You have time to pray.

If you could read your life story before it ever began, would you?

To lose once in a while is good for the soul. After all, what is life if we always win?

Why do we remember so many Christmas songs yet would struggle to sing five Easter songs? Perhaps the answer is, because we understand birth. We all have been born. But resurrection? That is a mystery.

Growing up on a farm, what is the difference between living in a city versus living in the country?

Answer: In the country, at night, when all is still, I am amazed at how far sound travels. It is nothing to hear a car two miles away.

Growing up on a farm, what is the difference between city folk and country folk? Nothing really. People are people. All are trying to put a roof over their head, food on the table, and clothes on their backs. Mix them together in the same church and you soon realize that country folk and city folk are after the same thing – the hope of heaven.

A priest's closet is pretty simple – black shirts, black slacks, black socks and black shoes. How can you mess that up? Actually, there is one way. Forget your white roman collar.

Everyone says that time goes fast and for the most part it does. There is one exception, eternity. Time is irrelevant because nothing is finite. Imagine a life where watches and smartphones are unnecessary. That gives you a view of heaven.

Someone once described heaven as follows: I can walk along with one person only to come across another person. When I leave the first to walk with the second, there is no sense of loss or remorse. All we experience is goodness and love.

Fasting and Abstaining Procedures for Lent

The norms regarding fasting and abstaining are as follows;

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

For members of the Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

God's blessings!

LENTEN ALMSGIVING 2018

We encourage your involvement. Support may be given at any time during the six weeks at the Lenten Almsgiving Display in the Gathering Space.

Week Five Resurrection Teen Scholarship Fund

There are some wonderful programs available for the youth of our parish such as Camp Summit (middle school), Steubenville

Rochester (high school), Music Ministry Alive, Youth in Theology and Ministry (YTM), and the parish mission trip. Unfortunately, they often come with a hefty fee. Our goal is to ensure that no youth should be denied the opportunity to participate due to the cost.

The key needs of the Scholarship Fund are:

Monetary donations: Please make check payable to: Resurrection and record "Scholarships" on the memo.

Adult Chaperones: needed to help with events.

Ministry Contact: Rosemary Byrne at 507-288-5528 or rosemaryb@rescathroch.org

Resurrection's Annual Rummage Sale is being planned for May 2018. Please keep our sale in mind as you are doing your spring cleaning. More details to follow. We will not accept appliances, exercise equipment, computers, printers. Any questions, contact Kathy Meadows at 507-529-7689.

KC Breakfast following Sunday Masses. Stop in for some eggs, pancakes, the best sausages, coffee, juice, water. Support our Knights and donate for a great cause.

Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday Mass times:
(Saturday) 8:00 pm, (Sunday) 8:15 am; 10 am; 11:45 am

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Saturday, March 24th 6:45-7:45 pm

Tuesday, March 27th 5:00—6:00 pm

No reconciliation on Saturday, March 31st

Looking ahead—we will be hosting a packing party for Operation Hometown Gratitude on Sunday afternoon, May 6. The following are some items we can start collecting or working on: recent magazines and gently used books; letters to the soldiers from pre-school, grade school, jr. high, high school students (Makes a great class project). More information will follow after Easter. Questions? Contact Karen Reopelle, 289-8388.

Stations of the Cross, Friday, March 23rd, 6:00 pm.

Following is a hearty meal of soup and bread. Experience an evening of prayer and fellowship. Free will offering.

Thank you for considering a donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Your gift supports ministries and services that carry forth Bishop Quinn's mission and vision, including adult and youth catechesis, support for clergy, sacramental marriage, life at all stages, robust Catholic schools, televised Mass and much more.

Liturgy Notes from Joann,

Director of Liturgy & RCIA, dirliturgyrcia@rescathroch.org.

What to do with NEW palms!

On Palm Sunday - March 25 this year - the liturgy begins in the gathering space. We raise our voices and sing HOSANNAH as we gather around the baptismal font, holding our palm branches. We are joined there by the priest and servers who greet us and we begin the Mass with the Collect prayer, the blessing of the palms and the reading of the Gospel account of Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem. Then the joyful procession begins. We follow the cross and recall how the people of Jerusalem joyfully welcomed Jesus into the city.

So what do we do with those blessed palms after Palm Sunday? The simplest and easiest thing to do is to take the palm and place it behind a crucifix, icon or religious picture in your home. By displaying the palm branch in this way, we are reminded of Palm Sunday, the passion of Christ and the great love story of GOD.

Some people take the fresh blessed palms and braid/weave them into religious symbols of our faith. These braided/woven palms are then displayed on the crucifix, icon or religious picture. When I was preparing to burn the palms from a previous year's Palm Sunday - I found these wonderful braided/woven palms:

Are you one of the talented people in the parish who knows how to braid/weave palms? Are you someone who would you like to learn how to make one of these religious symbols? Whether you are a pro or a novice, I welcome you to a workshop this Wednesday, March 21 at 6:00 PM in Room C. Together we will learn how to bend and twist new palms to make crosses, fish, roses, wheat and grapes. All are welcome!

Psalm Refrain for March 25 - Palm Sunday (Psalm 22:2)

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Musical Musings from Joy

Music and Choral Director,
choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

Last week, we began our discussion of the music of the Liturgy of the Eucharist by discussing the Preparation of the Gifts. This week, we will begin looking at the music of the Eucharistic Prayer by looking at some of what is called the Ordinary of the Mass.

The Ordinary of the Roman Mass is comprised of those parts which do not change from Sunday-to-Sunday. (The opposite being the Proper of the Mass, which are the parts that do change.) In the Eucharistic prayer, the musical parts of the Ordinary include the Sanctus, Memorial Acclamation, and the Great Amen.

The Sanctus, better known in English as the Holy, Holy, Holy, is a “great cosmic acclamation of praise.”¹ Of every possible sung part in the Mass, the Sanctus is what first and foremost belongs to the people. Everyone is called to sing this acclamation altogether.

The Memorial Acclamation takes on three different forms: “We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again”; “When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again;” and “Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection, you have set us free.” No matter which acclamation is used, the faithful are invited to “participate in keeping the memory of Christ’s Paschal Mystery.”²

The Great Amen is preceded by the presider’s Doxology and is meant to “give assent to the entire [Eucharistic] prayer.”³ Though we find ourselves saying “Amen” (tr. “so be it”) many times during the Mass, the Great Amen should be just that – greater than all of the others, as we are affirming this truth.

The GIRM encourages all of these acclamations, particularly on Sundays and solemnities, to be sung. Therefore, here at Resurrection, these parts are not typically sung for a Daily Mass unless it happens to be a feast or solemnity. However, on Sundays, one will always here these parts being sung.

Currently, we are singing these parts from the Mass of Charity and Love by Steven C. Warner. At Easter, we will change to the Mass of Renewal by Curtis Stephan.

Next week, we will take a look at the music of the Communion Rite.

Child Sexual Abuse Policy Information

The Diocese of Winona will provide a prompt, appropriate and compassionate response to reporters of sexual abuse of a child by any diocesan agent (employees, volunteers, vendors, religious or clergy).

Anyone wishing to make a report of an allegation of sexual abuse should call the Victim Assistance Coordinator at 507-454-2270, Extension 255. A caller will be asked to provide his or her name and telephone number. Individuals are also encouraged to take their reports directly to civil authorities. The Diocese of Winona is committed to protecting children, young people and other vulnerable people in our schools, parishes and ministries. The diocesan policy is available on the diocesan web site at www.dow.org under the Safe Environment Program.

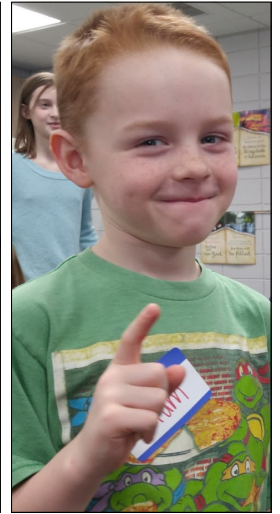

If you have any questions about the Diocese of Winona’s implementation of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, please contact Mary Hamann, at 507-858-1244, or mhamann@dow.org

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Sunday School, Children's Ministry
dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101

Every week in Sunday School we sing the "Let it Shine-This Little Light of Mine" song found on Listenerkids Youtube channel. I encourage you to "Google" it with your child. Singing (or watching) this at home helps build up your domestic church. In this picture you see Hannah, Morgan, and Liam sharing their light of Jesus. They know that coming to church each Sunday is a very special day to learn about God, to ask forgiveness as a community, and to have Jesus build us up with His strength and love so we can go out share His light with others. Psalm 16:11 reads Lord, your light will show me the path that leads to everlasting life, and as you walk beside me on my journey, I will be filled with happiness which will last forever.

St. John Vianney increase in us the virtue of mercy. Pray for us! Amen

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108

Grades 1-5: We have Faith Formation classes on Monday, March 19th at 4:30 and 6:00pm.

Stations of the Cross for Children and Families: On Monday, March 26 at 5:30pm, all children and families will be praying the Stations of the Cross. We will use a version of the Stations of the Cross that is made for children. Please join us in the main church.

First Communion: If you still need to turn in a photo of your child for our chalice display, please get it to me this week. Thank you! Remember to keep practicing the steps to receiving communion with your child and to take the My Mass booklet to Mass with them so they can read and follow along with all the parts of the Mass.

Totus Tuus Summer Faith Program: The Totus Tuus Team will be at Resurrection during the week of June 18-22. Registration forms are in the Gathering Space and on our website under Faith Formation grades 1-5 summer activities. Come and learn new things about our Catholic Faith in a fun, upbeat atmosphere. This year we'll be learning about the Apostle's Creed and The Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary. Bring a friend!!

Virtues in Practice: The virtue for March is mercy and Saint Faustina is our role model in caring for those who suffer. St. Faustina grew up in a big family in Poland and joined the sisters of Our Lady of Mercy when she was a young woman. She was always mindful of how others suffered and wanted to help them. She offered many sacrifices, sufferings, and prayers for souls who needed God's mercy. Many times she did not know the souls for whom she was suffering. On February 22, 1931, Our Lord appeared to St. Faustina in a vision and instructed her to paint Him as He appeared to her and include the motto, "Jesus, I trust in you." He wanted her to proclaim the message of His mercy-Divine Mercy-to the whole world, which she faithfully did until her death. Take some time this week to go into our chapel to see the St. Faustina display and to be with Jesus.

News from Rosemary, Grades 6-12, Youth Ministry, dre6to10ym@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 104

Stations for Teens: Wed., March 21, 7:00pm. All Confirmation candidates (9th and 10th grades) and all students in Wednesday classes should attend. The Stations will be led by 10th grade Confirmation candidates. This replaces the regular Wednesday class.

No Wednesday class March 28th and April 4th due to Holy Week and Spring break. Classes resume April 11th.

Youth Scholarship Fund is the almsgiving for this week of Lent. I have already had several requests for scholarships for Camp Summit and Steubenville Rochester. No student should miss these wonderful opportunities because of the hefty price to attend. We have been able to send many of our youth to these programs and they have been life-changing for many of them. Please be generous and consider investing in the youth of our parish.

Application forms for Camp Summit and Steubenville Rochester are at the display in the Gathering Space. Please register now!
