Weekly Words from The Rock

Blessed 50th Anniversary

As our parish celebrates 50 years of proclaiming the gospel, I would like to thank everyone who helped make this day special. So much goes on behind the scenes and I am indebted to all. To those who have gone before us and helped mold Resurrection into the life and parish that she is, we are thankful and joyful. May the next 50 years continue to proclaim the message of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior!

Question for the Week

In February 1993, Karl Keating in the periodical This Rock composed a quiz entitled "The World's Toughest Catholic Quiz." Trust me, it is difficult. Over the course of the next weeks, we will look at certain questions from the quiz. Last week, I provided two questions for you to think about and see if you could come up with the correct answer.

Here are the questions and answers.

Question: Which of the following is a defined Catholic dogma (a dogma is a truth revealed by God to which people must give assent)?

- A. Limbo
- B. Purgatory
- C. Both purgatory and limbo.
- D. Priestly celibacy.
- E. None of the above.

Answer:

- a. Wrong, because limbo is not a defined dogma. It is a theological speculation.

b. Correct, because purgatory is an official dogma of the Church. Even though it is not much talked about today, Catholics still must believe in it. It is not optional.

c. Wrong, because only purgatory is a defined dogma.

d. Wrong, because priestly celibacy is a custom, not a dogma.

e. Wrong, because b. is correct.

Question: The dogma of the Immaculate Conception means

a. Mary conceived Jesus immaculately in her womb without the aid of a human father.

b. Mary conceived Jesus immaculately in her womb and he remained without sin.

c. Mary was conceived immaculately in her mother's womb without the aid of a human father.

d. Mary was conceived immaculately in her mother's womb and was preserved from sin.

e. None of the above.

Answer:

a. Wrong, because this defines not the Immaculate Conception, but the Virgin birth of Jesus.

b. Wrong, even though it is true Jesus remained without sin and was conceived immaculately. The doctrine of the Immaculate Conception concerns Mary's conception, not Jesus'.

c. Wrong, because Mary had a human father. It is believed her mother's name was Anne and her father's name was Joachim.

d. Correct, because the main consequence of the Immaculate Conception is that Mary was able to live a sinless life. (She could have sinned, had she so chosen, but she chose not to).

e. Wrong, because d. is correct.

Here are two more for you to think about in the week ahead.

Question: Contraception is:

a. Permissible only to married couples with the permission of their parish priest and under extenuating circumstances.

b. May never be used by married couples.

c. Permissible if the husband and wife, after honest prayer, conclude it is right for them and do not use it selfishly.

d. Permissible only if pregnancy likely would put the wife's health in danger or if the couple is unable to support a large family.

e. None of the above.

Question: The sacrament of confession

a. Must be received before receiving Communion by anyone guilty of a mortal sin.

b. Is superfluous if you privately and sincerely confess your sins to God.

c. Must be received by all Catholic adults at least once a year. (This is one of the six precepts of the Church).

d. Was done away with by Vatican II, except in cases of the three sins which "cry out to God for vengeance": murder, adultery, and sexism.

E. None of the above.

In working through these questions, please take your time. Remember they are tricky, very tricky. We will see how you did next week.

God's blessings, Fr. Schuster

Baptism

Born to a new life in Christ and joined to our faith community through the Waters of Baptism, we welcome:

Amaya Maria Rowles, child of Donald and Karina

Maya Nero Calvert, child of Karl and Rowena

We have arrived! Today we celebrate our 50th Anniversary as the Church of the Resurrection. One of the many questions that still remains a mystery for me is... who chose our parish name? What a thrilling conversation that must have been. Whoever did the choosing, I would like to thank you. What a significant name. Church of the Resurrection. Without even saying Jesus' name, hearing 'Resurrection' brings an image of Christ immediately to mind. If a seeker asks you about your faith and you mention that you go to the Church of the Resurrection, this name alone can assist you in inviting further conversation. Such a hope-filled name. Easter is our parish feast day and at the end of the octave of Easter we also celebrate in a big way Divine Mercy Sunday. We get to party for eight days, not just one.

We hope that you will come to Fr. Zenk Hall following Sunday's Mass and enjoy a special meal catered by Prescotts. You know it will be delicious and that we will be treated like kings and queens. This is truly meant to be an opportunity to demonstrate our appreciation to all parishioners, both past and present, whose dedication clearly demonstrates that a parish can thrive and boldly serve others for five decades.

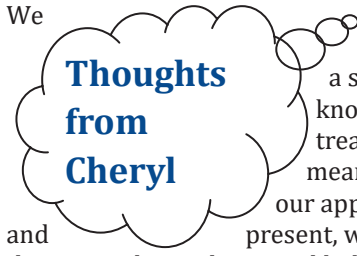

Our theme for this special celebration is taken from Jesus' own words found in Acts 1:8, "You will be my witnesses." On the way to Fr. Zenk Hall, please stop by the kiosk and pick out a color coded stick pin and place your pin on the map where you currently live. It is a reminder that Jesus calls us to live our faith every day and to be a witness to those around us. We are his hands and feet. Our love for others makes a difference and makes Christ known. We would like everyone to participate in this display. We even have colored pins for non-members. You are making a mark on the world, you are the face of Christ. A special note of appreciation to Todd Smith who created the maps that we are using for our display.

We are very grateful for all of the volunteers who have worked hard in organizing the details for the Mass and the Meal. The planning has truly been a grassroots effort, which is the way the Church of the Resurrection works best. It takes many people with willing hearts of service and a love for their fellow parishioners to make it all happen. When multiple thinking minds are focused together, the greatest ideas come forth. This is the holy spirit at work.

I would like to spotlight Karl Ladin, who for many years has created unique ornaments for our holiday bazaar. He agreed to create a special memento for this 50th anniversary. It is not only a beautiful design, but your donation of $10 per ornament will help defray some of the costs of the celebration. We have a limited amount of them available today, but we will have a signup sheet for anyone who would want one that didn't have an opportunity to purchase one today.

I would be remiss if I did not make mention the great work that the Resurrection staff has done to help each of the volunteers and committees involved in the planning to fulfill their goals for the event. They work tirelessly and give more than 100% always. They are remarkable. Together, let us not be afraid to step into the unknown and bring Christ with us to others

Enjoy God's embrace.

Parish News

Looking for a fun way to spend time outside at Resurrection? We are in need of a Garden Committee Chairperson. Nancy O'Neill, who has been our Chair since 2004, will be retiring at the end of this year. She has a great volunteer crew to water, pull weeds and keep the flowers fresh throughout the season! She would love to share her expertise with the new Chair, so if you are interested, please contact Nancy at 507-261-5923 or call the office 507-288 5528. Thank you for your consideration.

KC Rosary, Saturday 7:30 pm. If you are interested in leading the rosary, please call the office 288-5528.

Save the Date: July 20th from 9am-11am Resurrection's Elder Care Ministry will be hosting a Health Fair for our parishioners. We will have different health group representatives here to visit with you in areas of health, safety and services available for senior citizens in Rochester. Free admission. Stay for coffee and refreshments after your visits. Any questions, give Mary Meine a call at 507-281-4695 or Patrice at the office- 288-5528. More information to follow.

With nearly 100 friends visited to date, we would like to share a brief story about a recent home visit. Because of your generosity, we were able to stop an eviction of a mom who had lost her job due to excessive absences, in order to better parent her suicidal child. Not all visits are this heart wrenching, but all involve aid with basic needs and a compassionate ear to listen to the needs of our neighbors who are undergoing hardships and struggles. If you would like to become a minister for St. Vincent de Paul, please contact Kathy Geister at 281-5358. The Resurrection Conference of St. Vincent de Paul meets the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month.

To date, we helped with:

Rent: $13,700

Utilities: $2,500

Gas, food, emergency lodging: $7,500

Helping Hand coupons. We sold 87 coupons last weekend to distribute to those in need. If you didn't get to purchase the vouchers, they are available in the parish office for $10. You can give these Helping Hand coupons to those in need so they can either shop for food, get a meal at our HyVee stores in Rochester or donate them back to St. Vincent De Paul. Thank you for your continued support in helping our neighbors in need.

Liturgy Notes from Joann

Feast of God's Great Love

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity – a celebration of God's great love for us. The mystery of the Trinity – God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit – speaks of God's outreach to humanity from Creation to the Incarnation to the Spirit's ongoing presence among us. God loves us and wants to be with us. No image will ever be adequate to describe God's great love for us – but God will always be near – bowing to us, luring us to union through and with and in Christ. The songs that have been composed for this solemnity help us to understand this mystery. Here is one that speaks to my heart. Which one of the Trinitarian songs touches yours?

To You Who Bow (by Rory Cooney)

To you who bow, to you who bend, to you who do not cling to heaven, but unto earth descend;

you who summon us as servants and call your servants friends:
to you we lift our song, love ever new, O God who bows we sing our song to you.

To you who teach, to you who heal, to you, the leper's restoration, the victim's last appeal;

you whose life is sown and gathered and offered as a meal:
to you we lift our song, love ever new, O God who bows we sing our song to you.

To you who weep, to you who bleed, who dreamed the boundaries of Orion, but will not break the reed;

you who sow the end of empire with tiny, peaceful seed:
to you we lift our song, love ever new, O God who bows we sing our song to you.

To you who starve, to you who thirst, to you condemned to death by malice, abandoned and accursed;

you who promised to the wretched the last will be made first:
to you we lift our song, love ever new, O God who bows we sing our song to you.

To you who rise, to you, our peace, to you who lead the way before us, whose Spirit binds and frees;

at once the Alpha and Omega, whose love shall never cease:
to you we lift our song, love ever new, O God who bows we sing our song to you.

Next Sunday (June 18) we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. The challenge of this celebration is to move our Eucharistic piety beyond prayer and liturgy to a lived, everyday expression of the love that Eucharist is. As part of our celebration next Sunday, we invite you to participate in a CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION. In this procession we take the Blessed Sacrament – Jesus Christ - into the world. We are called to take Christ into the world every time we leave Mass, and on the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), we do this in a very visible way.

The Corpus Christi Procession forms immediately from the 11:30 AM Mass. After Communion, Father places the Blessed Sacrament in the monstrance (a special holder for the Blessed Sacrament) and places the monstrance on the altar. After the announcements he neither dismisses nor blesses us. Instead he incenses the Blessed Sacrament, takes the monstrance and begins the procession. We follow the Blessed Sacrament in procession to four altars set up on the grounds of the church. At each altar we sing, pray and receive a Blessing. The procession ends where it began, at the altar in the Church where we receive the final Blessing. Rain or shine – all are welcome to participate!

Psalm Refrain for June 18

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Psalm 147:12)
Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.
