Prayer to Our Lady of Fatima

Most Holy Virgin, who hast deigned to come to Fatima, to reveal the treasures of graces hidden in the recitation of the Rosary, inspire our hearts with a sincere love of this devotion that meditating on the Mysteries of our Redemption recalled therein, we may obtain the conversion of sinners and the favors we ask you now, for the greater glory of God, for your own honor, and for the good of souls. Amen.

Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima, pray for us!

Biblical Terminology

We continue our work of defining words and names from the pages of the Bible. My source for this is Harper's Bible Dictionary, Harper & Row Publishers, Copyright 1985.

Apostasy – rebellion or abandonment of faith. It refers in the Old Testament to Israel's unfaithfulness to God (Jeremiah 2:19; 5:6) and in the New Testament to the abandonment of Christian faith (Hebrews 6:6).

Apostle – the English translation of a Greek word meaning "one who is sent out." An apostle is a personal messenger or envoy, commissioned to transmit the message or otherwise carry out the instructions of the commissioning agent. In the New Testament gospels, the term is commonly associated with the special inner circle of Jesus' disciples, chosen and commissioned by him to accompany him during his ministry, to receive his teachings and observe his actions, and to follow his instructions. Thus, they are uniquely qualified both to authenticate his message and to carry on his work through the ministry of the church. Apostolic lists appear in Matthew 10:2-4; Mark 3:16-19; Luke 6:13-16; and Acts 1:13.

Apple – a tree-grown fruit with wide geographic distribution. Although traditionally considered the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil in the Garden of Eden, the apple is never mentioned by name (Genesis 2:9,17; Genesis 3:6).

Archers – warriors armed with bows and arrows. Archers played an important role in ancient New Eastern warfare since they could strike accurately from a distance while being protected by a full-length shield. Although individual archers and even target practice are mentioned in the Bible (e.g., 1 Samuel 20:35-36), no organized Israelite archery corps is ever described. Perhaps Israel lacked the materials needed to produce composite bows and therefore never established a large archery corps. Alternately, the Bible may never have mentioned an Israelite archery corps, even though it existed. Small groups of Israelite archers are portrayed in the Assyrian reliefs of the siege of Lachish, where several Israelite archers try unsuccessfully to stave off the Assyrian army, which incorporated a large organized corps of archers.

Holy Humor

God's blessings! Father Schuster

How often have we experienced a thought shared or a request made from an unexpected source that opened our eyes to a bigger vision, gave us courage to take a different direction, or empowered us to try a new solution that enriched our life? In today's Gospel, Jesus is moved to broaden his healing ministry to include the Gentiles. Jesus could see with new clarity and his mission became all inclusive. God continues to call us to pay fuller attention. Do not be afraid to share your wisdom with others, it might be the inspiration they need to overcome a hurdle or experience God's healing presence.

Thoughts from Cheryl

I would like to offer an example of a small but significant nugget of wisdom that has had an impact on Resurrection staff members. At our diocesan Ministry Days we discussed what witnessing for the Gospel looks like. We realized quite quickly that we needed to become more proactive in praying for those who share their needs with us. A number of staff members have described how the simple act of listening to a person's story and asking them if they could pray with them right then and there has had a profound impact. A simple action, yet substantial results. This is something that we could all practice.

Faith Formation Registration Night is coming soon, Monday, August 21. This includes registration for: Nursery, Sunday School, Faith Formation classes for grades 1-12, sacramental preparation for First Reconciliation, First Communion, Confirmation, Baptism, Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, Young Adult and Adult offerings. Everyone is invited to attend. This event will connect you with directors who can answer your questions and concerns and see what the parish offers for all ages. There is a gift for all who attend.

Five years ago, the Faith Formation Committee envisioned comprehensive Faith Formation that provided education for all ages under a director's guidance. This year we have completed the circle by reorganizing the Faith Formation director's job responsibilities to include Adult Faith Formation. Georges Montillet will be the Director of Young Adult Ministry and Adult Faith Formation. Rosemary Byrne will be the Director of Faith Formation for grades 6-12 and Youth Ministry. Stacey Dorsey will be the Director of Faith Formation for grades 1-5 and Family Ministry. Sheila Pelowski will be the Director of Children's Ministry.

We feel that each of these directors has important skills and talents in their areas of expertise that will help our Faith Formation to flourish and grow in the years to come. These directors need your involvement as participants and/or volunteer leaders, such as: catechists, faith sharing leaders, classroom assistants, small group facilitators, etc. We hope that whether you are a youth, a parent of youth, an "empty nester," a grandparent, a single adult, or a young adult with a desire to invest time in your faith you will take part.

Enjoy God's embrace.

Ephesians Scripture Study September, 14th - November, 2nd. It's that time again for Resurrection's Fall Scripture Study! This year it is St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians; an 8-part study featuring Jeff Cavins. It reveals many remarkable gifts that we are given in the Church—the nature of the Church as a body, a household, a mystery, a communion, a bride, and as an army. Many people have preconceived notions about studying the Bible— notions which deter them from participating in group sessions, notions which tell them it isn't necessary or I know everything I have to know. Those notions could be mistaken. Find out, be bold and register. Sessions are held mornings (9:15-11am) or evenings (7-8:30pm) on Thursdays. Registration forms are available in the Gathering Space or can be printed from the church website. Fee is $19. Deadline September 11th.

Food for Friends: It's time to start thinking "Back to School" for our Food for Friends children. The shopping ads are out and there are lots of school supplies needed! For a 2nd year our ministry will be helping with filling backpacks with school supplies. There are backpacks to pick up at the church in a black tub near the office. Inside each backpack is a school supply list for each grade level at Ben Franklin. Pick a grade of your choice, shop, and return the filled backpack to church. There is also a tag with the word "Grade" on it. Please write the grade level that you have purchased for on this tag. If you cannot complete a full grade level supply list, purchasing supplies of your choice will be greatly appreciated. Copies of the school supplies are by the Food for Friends display.

Second collection next weekend for Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Home mission dioceses are those dioceses in the United States and its territories and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services to Catholics without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass and the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and lay people. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses are considered home missions. For more information about the Catholic Home Missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Liturgy Notes from Joann

Solemnities, Feasts and Memorials

Last week, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, this week we celebrate the Memorial of Pope St. Pius X (Monday), the Memorial of the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Tuesday) and the Feast of St. Bartholomew, the Apostle (Thursday). So what is the difference between a Solemnity, Feast and Memorial?

A Solemnity is a day of greatest importance on the Liturgical Calendar. In the ranking of special days a Solemnity is more important than a Feast, which is more important than a Memorial.

Solemnities are the most important days, so important that we begin the celebration the night before with Evening Prayer or a Vigil Mass. On a Solemnity we sing/recite the Gloria and the Creed, we hear three readings at Mass, and the Presidential Prayers (Collect, Prayer over the Offering, Preface, Prayer after Communion) are unique to the day. Christmas and Easter are the greatest of Solemnities and their celebrations are extended over eight days (the Octave of Christmas and the Octave of Easter).

Feasts are the second most important days and are celebrated in the course of the day (no vigils). On a Feast Day we sing/recite the Gloria, we do not recite the Creed, we hear two readings at Mass and the Presidential Prayers are unique to the day. (Note: If the feast falls on a Sunday, the Creed IS recited and we hear three readings).

Memorials are the third most important days and are usually in honor of saints. We do not recite the Gloria or the Creed on these days and we hear two readings at Mass. The COLLECT (Opening Prayer) at the Mass is unique to the day and will always invoke the name of the saint.

Every liturgical celebration - whether it is a Solemnity, Feast, Memorial or a day in ordered time - is a doorway into the paschal mystery, an opportunity to be with Christ, the Son of God. Listen to him!

Psalm Refrain for August 27 – 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time (Psalm 138:8)

Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

HOST FAMILIES NEEDED for F-1 students from South Korea attending Lourdes Catholic High School. Please open your hearts and home to one of these great teenagers who are eager to experience the American way of life. TaeRin is a 16-year-old Sophomore who likes art, music and sports (especially basketball and taekwondo). She particularly enjoys doing crafts. "Jun" is a 17-year-old returning for his Junior year. He's outgoing and sociable, enjoying music, photography, automobiles and sports. The students speak English, pay full school tuition, are covered by medical insurance, and bring their own spending money. A host family provides a caring environment and receives a generous monthly stipend, along with a 24/7 support system. For more information, please contact Catalina Ferreira at 507-438-7627, caferre@msn.com; or Sue Franck, 800-622-3553, ext. 603, sfranck@nacelopendoor.org.
