Quiz Question

Last week, I provided a question on the sacrament of Confirmation.

Question: There are many symbols used to symbolize the sacrament of Confirmation. Which of the following is not one of the symbols?

- a. Oil of the Saints
- b. Sacred chrism
- c. Bishop's staff/mitre
- d. Dove
- e. Renewal of Baptismal Promises

Answer: A. Oil of the Saints. The Oil of the Saints is solely used in baptism.

We are going to use the same format although try it with the season of Lent.

Question: Which of the following are symbols of Lent?

- a. Fish
- b. Money bag and incense
- c. Praying Hands
- d. Violet Color
- e. Cross

Good luck. I'll provide the answer next week.

Biblical Terminology

We continue our work of defining words and names from the pages of the Bible. My source for this is Harper's Bible Dictionary, Harper & Row Publishers, Copyright 1985.

Blasphemy – a term derived from a Greek word meaning to injure the reputation of another. In the Bible it means showing contempt or a lack of reverence for God (Leviticus 24:16; Mark 2:7) or something sacred (Matthew 26:65). Blasphemy would include claiming for oneself divine attributes by word or deed (Mark 14:64; John 10:33).

Blindness – sightlessness. It is God who has the power to make people blind (Exodus 4:11) as well as to restore sight (Psalm 146:8). In Genesis 19:11 the angels of God who visited Lot struck the evil men of Sodom with blindness. Through Elisha's prayer God struck the Syrian army with blindness (2 Kings 6:18). In Isaiah 42:7 God commissions his servant "to open the eyes that are blind." Blindness was one of the blemishes disqualifying descendants of Aaron from performing sacrifice to God (Leviticus 21:16-24). Likewise, it was forbidden to offer blind animals in sacrifice (Leviticus 22:22; Deuteronomy 15:21; Malachi 1:8). The blind were to be protected in accord with God's covenantal instructions: no stumbling block was to be placed in their way (Leviticus 19:14); and anyone who misled a blind person was cursed (Deuteronomy 21:18). Isaac, Eli and Ahijah suffered the blindness of old age. One of the expectations of the eschatological age was the opening of the eyes of the blind by God. In the New Testament Jesus' healing of blindness was one of the "deeds of the Christ" illustrating and bringing about the Kingdom of God. There are several examples in which the blind had their sight restored by Jesus: the faith of two blind men enabled them to be healed by Jesus; he healed a blind and dumb demoniac; by healing the blind in the Temple Jesus restored them to the worshiping community. The concept of blindness was particularly appropriate for metaphorical use; it often characterized spiritual "blindness" or lack of insight into revelation.

Blood – a term understood in biblical writings not only as that which is essential to life but also as the seat of life's power. Though sometimes used simply to designate mortal life (usually in conjunction with the flesh), it is often connected with God, the life-giver. Injunctions existed against consuming blood. Blood plays an important role in the theology of the Old Testament, the institution of sacrificial atonement, and the work of the priests. Applied to the altar, blood becomes a powerful expiatory agent as sin offering, especially on the annual Day of Atonement. The priest, who is himself set apart by blood consecration, alone is qualified to apply the blood. The Passover celebration remembers the blood on the doorposts of Hebrew houses in Egypt and the deliverance accomplished by the God of the Covenant. The New Testament writings vary in the degree of development of the image of blood, but where the image appears it focuses on the shed blood of Jesus and his atoning character. Interpreted in terms of his obedient surrender of his life to God, it becomes the foundation of God's new covenant of grace. The people of faith celebrate this grace at the Lord's Supper; the cup of blessing is the new covenant of grace.

RESURRECTION VISION STATEMENT

An Ever-growing Eucharistic Community Boldly Serving Others Through God's Love.

Volunteer Appreciation Weekend

This weekend, the Church of the Resurrection celebrates Volunteer Appreciation Weekend. In honor of Laity Sunday, we will celebrate the generosity and service of our magnificent volunteers – past, present, and future.

It is through the generous stewardship of our time and talent that we do boldly serve others through God's love, especially through our many ministries and volunteers. To every volunteer, we give fervent thanks and praise for your witness to God's love through your service.

During the Mass, Father Schuster extends a blessing to all our volunteers past, present and future. This blessing extends to even those not present with us today. Our parish family prays for the peace and joy of our volunteers wherever they may be.

We invite all past, present, and future volunteers to continue praying for our parish as we celebrate the life and service of our community.

Connection Form 2018. We would like to invite all of you to ministry in our parish. Along with the Connections form, as you leave today, you will be given a ministry booklet. Look through it and prayerfully discern how you could serve the parish.

When you have completed the Connections form, feel free to either mail it to the parish, place it in the collection basket, or drop it off at the Parish Office. Again, thanks to all of our current volunteers and any new volunteers.

With your help, the mission of Jesus Christ continues until he comes in glory. God's blessings to all of you.

Knights of Columbus breakfast next weekend following Sunday Masses. Free will offering to benefit the Lay Carmelite Community.

Join the Knights—take a day to become a Knight next Sunday, October 22nd. Mike Tri will be in the Gathering Space with information on the Knights of Columbus. All men, 18 years or older, are invited to learn more about becoming a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Cantor workshop Saturday, October 21st from 10:00 am until Noon in the Church. Contact Joy at 288 5528 if you have any questions.

Baby Bottle Campaign Please return by November 15th.

Food for Friends For October, we will focus on cereal and peanut butter and jelly. We cannot accept glass, nor can we accept expired foods. If you have something to donate other than cereal, peanut butter, or jelly, feel free to drop it off at the church in the black tub near the office.

Resurrection Staff Retreat Day, is Wednesday, October 18th. The office will be closed, but we will have morning Mass.

Fusion Events are a family ministry held weekly on Fridays from 6:00pm - 7:30pm in Fr. Zenk Hall addressing topics such as relationships, parenting and growing in faith as a family. All those coming with family members including single parents, engaged couples and grandparents bringing grandchildren in whose upbringing they share responsibility are also welcome. Volunteers to help with setup and/or babysitting are greatly appreciated. Bible studies for individual growth in faith will begin in November.

We are all aware of the recent string of natural disasters - hurricanes in Texas, Florida, and the Caribbean, and a massive earthquake in Mexico. While we have recently had special collections for specific hurricanes, organizing a special collection each time a natural disaster occurs is simply not feasible.

However, aid is still desperately needed in the areas affected by these natural disasters, and our brothers and sisters are relying on our assistance to help them rebuild their lives and livelihood.

The Office of National Collections of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has set up funds for these disasters to receive any contributions individuals wish to make. To assist the USCCB in its relief efforts, parish members willing to contribute should make checks payable to Resurrection and place in the collection basket or drop off at the office. We will collect the funds and forward the amount to the Diocese. Please be sure to indicate what the donation is for in the memo line of the check. The Diocese will aggregate all parish assistance and forward one check to the USCCB.

Parish members can also access the website of the Diocese of Winona to make online gifts at www.dow.org

Miracle of the Sun

Last weekend, Father Shawn mentioned the Miracle of the Sun at Mass and encouraged us to look up the information on the internet. Here is what I found...

The Miracle of the Sun is a miraculous event witnessed by as many as 100,000 people on 13 October 1917 in the Cova da Iria fields near Fátima, Portugal. Those in attendance had assembled to observe what the Portuguese secular newspapers had been ridiculing for months as the absurd claim of three shepherd children that a miracle was going to occur at high-noon in the Cova da Iria on 13 October 1917.

According to many witness statements, after a downfall of rain, the dark clouds broke and the sun appeared as an opaque, spinning disc in the sky. It was said to be significantly less bright than normal, and cast multicolored lights across the landscape, the shadows on the landscape, the people, and the surrounding clouds. The sun was then reported to have careened towards the earth in a zigzag pattern, frightening some of those present who thought it meant the end of the world. Some witnesses reported that their previously wet clothes became "suddenly and completely dry." Estimates of the number of witnesses range from 30,000-40,000 by Avelino de Almeida, (writing for the Portuguese newspaper O Século), to 100,000 estimated by Dr. Joseph Garrett, (professor of natural sciences at the University of Coimbra), both of whom were present that day.

The event was attributed by believers to Our Lady of Fátima, an apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary to three young shepherd children in 1917, as having been predicted by the three children on 13 July, 19 August, and 13 September 1917. The children reported that the Lady had promised them that she would on 13 October reveal her identity to them and provide a miracle "so that all may believe." According to these reports, the event lasted approximately ten minutes. The three children also reported seeing a panorama of visions, including those of Jesus, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of Saint Joseph blessing the people.

choirdirector@rescathroch.org

I hope last week's thought sparked a lot of conversations! Especially for those that have memories of postconciliar liturgies, did anything jog your memory? If I asked you to tell me a prayer or two in Latin, could you do it? What about music? Was there any? For those of us who don't have memories of this, what were your thoughts? Could you handle a Mass where you couldn't readily sing along?

There has been a surge of popularity in recent years in Latin Mass, particularly among millennials. If anyone is interested in more information, I encourage you to check out the Rochester Latin Mass Society: <http://www.rochesterlatinmasssociety.org/>.

Here's this week's thought: *Despite popular belief, the term "active participation" did not originate in Vatican II's Sacrosanctum Concilium. Its first official use is found in Pope Pius X's Motu Proprio on sacred music, the Italian-language Tra le sollecitudini, promulgated on the Feast of St. Cecelia in 1903: "We deem it necessary to provide before anything else for the sanctity and dignity of the temple, in which the faithful assemble for no other object than that of acquiring this spirit from its foremost and indispensable font, which is the active participation in the most holy mysteries and in the public and solemn prayer of the Church."*¹

It should be noted that Tra le sollecitudini's understanding of active participation is entirely musical. For Pius X, active participation was to be achieved by means of Gregorian chant, which he calls for the revival of throughout the Motu Proprio. He explicitly encourages the Church "to restore the use of the Gregorian Chant by the people."² His appeal can be traced to the work of Dom Guéranger and the monks of Solesmes on the restoration of Gregorian chant in the late nineteenth century. With this revival of the Gregorian tradition, the call for the reintroduction of chant also served as a means of saving Latin in the liturgy.

Therefore, the Church has been officially called to musical active participation for over one hundred years. Was Gregorian chant ever taught to any of you in schools? What do you think about chant in the 21st Century? Is this body of music something that still has a place in the modern Church? How about adaptations to it? (English-language translations, etc.) I'll be interested to hear your thoughts this week!

Hymnal Scavenger Hunt How'd you do with last week's Hymnal Scavenger Hunt? It was Holy is His Name, which can be found in your green hymnal at #487. Here's this week's clue:

This is arguably one of the most popular entrance hymns. In it, we are encouraged to build a house of prayer for everyone.

Hint: This song was written by Marty Haugen. Come to me during the week if you think you have it figured out. The answer will appear in next week's bulletin!

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Birth to KG, Children's Ministry dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101

Nursery and Sunday School Families: On the first day of Sunday School and Nursery you may have noticed a display with the following Children's Ministry Logo. If not, no worries, the display will continue to have a Sunday presence with a monthly theme. October's theme is Daily Examen. Flip to page 67 in the book 77 Ways to Pray with Your Kids here it explains that "the Examen invites us to reflect on how God has been present in our day, how we have responded to that presence, and how we might grow in holiness." Books are still available so please make sure to pick up your free copy! I find that the more tools available to grow in faith, the better. A hand-out of the 5 steps to pray the Examen is also available at the display. Want to go deeper? Check out Formed.org, click on LISTEN, scroll down to Discerning Hearts. There are 16 episodes, roughly 25 minutes, titled "Discernment of Spirits" that can help you navigate through the spiritual ups and downs of living a Christ-centered life. St. Hyacinth, lead us to a more reverent way of loving Jesus by practicing a Daily Examen. St. Hyacinth, Pray for us! Amen.

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108

Grades 1-5: Families can practice learning your Catholic prayers. Children in grades 2-5 will have faith formation classes on Monday, October 16th. First graders will participate in learning centers with one of their parents/guardians. "God's Family" Learning Centers for 1st graders will be set up in Fr. Zenk Hall and take about an hour to complete. Families can come anytime 4:00-7:00pm.

Virtues in Practice: October's virtue is reverence, which means showing deep respect for God. Last week, we learned about St. Hyacinth and his deep reverence for Jesus and Mary. Families can have a discussion about how blessed we are to go into God's house (church) and how blessed we are to welcome Jesus inside of us in the Eucharist. Teach your children how we show reverence by entering slowly, making the Sign of the Cross with holy water, quietly entering the sanctuary, genuflecting before entering the pew, kneeling and praying silently in your heart to Jesus. Children learn best by seeing the adults in their lives modeling the virtue of reverence. St. Hyacinth, you taught us that God will help us when we are acting out of reverence. Help us to show deep respect for all times, places, and people dedicated to God. St. Hyacinth, pray for us!

News from Rosemary, Grades 6-12, Youth Ministry, dre6to10ym@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 104

There are no Wednesday classes this week, Oct. 18th, due to MEA's. Classes will resume on October 25th.

Second year Confirmation (10th grade): You should be researching which saint's name you want to choose as your Confirmation. Your choice needs to be handed in at the November faith sharing sessions. Take your time and find one with whom you can feel a connection. I have some books in my office, if you'd like to borrow them, and Catholic Online (www.catholic.org) has a good database of saints.

First year Confirmation (9th grade): Mark your calendar for Nov. 5th! The Ritual of Welcome will be celebrated at the 11:30am Mass followed by "The Journey of Confirmation" in the Fr. Zenk Hall from 12:30-2:30pm. Each candidate should attend with at least one parent (both are welcome) and it will start with brunch.

FYRE Youth Night: There is no meeting tonight, Oct. 15th due to the Unite program on Saturday. Our next meeting is Sunday, Oct. 22nd at 4:30pm. We are still trying to organize the events for the school year, so please think about activities you'd like to consider!
