Weekly Words from The Rock

Quiz Question

Last week, I provided a brief description of ten saints and the names of the ten saints. What I asked you to do was match the description with the saint. Your choices were: Peter, Elizabeth, John the Baptist, Joseph, Anne, John the Apostle, Patrick, Paul, John Vianney, and Veronica.

Here are the answers.

- I am the apostle to the Gentiles whose letters you read in the Bible.
Answer: Paul
- I am the foster father of Jesus and the patron saint of a happy death.
Answer: Joseph
- I am the cousin of Jesus who baptized many people and the Lord.
Answer: John the Baptist
- I am the woman who offered my veil to wipe Jesus' face when he was carrying his cross.
Answer: Veronica
- I am the apostle chosen by Christ to be head of the Church.
Answer: Peter
- I am the missionary who made Ireland famous for its piety and learning.
Answer: Patrick
- I am the beloved apostle and the writer of the fourth gospel.
Answer: John the Apostle

- I am the cousin of the Blessed Virgin Mary and whose child was John the Baptist.
Answer: Elizabeth
- I am the mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
Answer: Anne
- I am the simple parish priest who was tormented by the devil because my great sanctity brought my people closer to God.

Answer: John Vianney

For the week ahead, I am going to provide you with ten statements on the 12 apostles. Your work is to determine whether the statement is true or false.

Statement 1: Jesus appointed Peter head of the Apostles making him the first pope.

Statement 2: Peter and Andrew were brothers.

Statement 3: Matthew was a tax collector.

Statement 4: John wrote one of the four gospels.

Statement 5: Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus Christ.

Statement 6: Matthias took the place of Judas Iscariot as the 12th apostle.

Statement 7: John was the only apostle not martyred.

Statement 8: Peter and Andrew were fisherman.

Statement 9: Peter died by being crucified upside down.

Statement 10: Thomas doubted that Jesus had risen from the dead.

Good luck. I'll provide the answer next week.

Biblical Terminology We continue our work of defining words and names from the pages of the Bible. My source for this is Harper's Bible Dictionary, Harper & Row Publishers, Copyright 1985.

Calvary – the site of Jesus' crucifixion. Three Gospels record both the Semitic name of this site, "Golgotha," and a translation, "Place of the Skull" (Matthew 27:33; Mark 15:22; John 19:17). Luke 23:33 records only a shorter and more accurate translation, "Skull." The name "Calvary" derives from the Latin translation of this word (calvaria). It is likely that the site was so named because of its habitual use for executions. Less likely is an explanation rooted in the physical appearance of the place. Apart from the name very little is confidently known about Calvary. John 19:20 and Jewish and Roman execution customs indicate that it was located outside Jerusalem's city walls. Roman crucifixion customs and the reference to passers-by (Matthew 27:39) also suggest it was near a thoroughfare, while the fact that the cross was visible from afar (Matthew 27:55) could indicate an elevated location. Nevertheless its precise location remains in dispute.

Liturgy Notes from

Joann, Director of Liturgy & RCIA, dirliturgyrcia@rescathroch.org.

Liturgical Ministry – Lectors and Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

A few weeks ago Father Schuster invited everyone to fill out a Connections Form with your current information (who you are, where you live, how we can reach you) along with your interest in volunteering for different ministries and activities within the parish community. We are starting to put your information into our data base, so if you haven't yet filled out a form, please do so. I also want to take this opportunity as the Director of Liturgy and RCIA to extend my invitation to you to consider how you might serve this community as a Liturgical Minister. Here are some opportunities you might consider:

Lectors proclaim the scriptures readings – sharing the stories of our ancestors in faith and reading the letters written by the apostles to the early Church. These are the story of salvation, the story of GOD'S great love for us. The early church passed on these stories by word of mouth, and as the lectors stand at the ambo – they are continuing this tradition. A lector prepares for their ministry by reading the scriptures. I often suggest that if it is your turn to read on Sunday – read the readings the Sunday before – for the first time. Carry the reading with you (in your thoughts and in your heart) into the week. Make it your own. If it resonates with you, rejoice in that. If you struggle with what is says, pray about it. Every lector here at Resurrection receives a workbook to help in their preparation. The workbook contains the readings for all Sundays and Holy Days, gives the context for the reading and a pronunciation guide.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion help to distribute the Body and Blood of Christ to the faithful. What an intimate moment, to stand in front of another person, to look them in the eye holding the consecrated host or the communion cup and proclaim "The Body of Christ" or "The Blood of Christ." What we proclaim, is what we believe, is what we become. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion can also be called on to visit the homebound – those brothers and sisters of our faith community who cannot join us at Mass. When we go to them, we share with them the scripture readings that were proclaimed at Mass, we pray the prayers of the faithful with them, and after praying the Our Father – share Holy Communion with them. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion must be Confirmed Catholics.

If either of these opportunities interest you, or any of the other Liturgical Ministries, please fill out a Connections Form and give me a call.

Musical Musings from Joy

Music and Choral Director, choirdirector@rescathroch.org

What did everyone think about the history of evening Mass last week? What about your thoughts on Holy Week? What Mass do you usually attend? What if an evening Mass wasn't an option for you? Or, what if the Easter Vigil wasn't?

If you've never gone to a Vigil Mass, I encourage you to try it when your schedule permits. There is something really beautiful about the darkness surrounding us outside while the light of Christ shines in the Church.

Here's this week's thought: Of the many reforms in the Second Vatican Council, the ones concerning call for active participation are most often highlighted. In the pinnacle liturgical document, Sacrosanctum Concilium, Article 14 states: "Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy."<sup>1</sup> It was a concept that did not require much argument in order to be included. As seen particularly in the reforms of the 1950s, "that 'active participation' was not the subject of extensive debate is due to the fact that, by the time of the Council, it had already had a long history in the liturgical movement and had been regularly employed in papal documents."<sup>2</sup> The topic of debate and conversation, however, became concerned with the new term: "fully conscious." By adding this phrase, the writers of Sacrosanctum Concilium concisely summarized all the preceding scholarship on the subject. Yet, while active participation remained, how it was to be implemented was open to interpretation.

As we move into more "familiar" territory, (Vatican II), I pose you this question: What is YOUR interpretation of "fully conscious, and active participation"? How do you fully, consciously, and actively participate in the Mass? What makes you feel like you can, or cannot, participate in this way? I can't wait to hear your thoughts pour forth!

1. Second Vatican Council, Sacrosanctum Concilium [Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy], Vatican Website, December 4, 1963, sec. 14, accessed October 11, 2016. Hymnal Scavenger Hunt. How'd you do with last week's Hymnal Scavenger Hunt? It was Litany of the Saints, which can be found in your green hymnal at #503 and in your red hymnal at #788. Here's this week's clue:

This patriotic hymn reminds us of the beauty of our nation on this Veterans Day weekend.

Hint: This song may be found in both hymnals!

News from Sheila, Sunday School, Children's Ministry dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101

All who serve are the greatest!
Thank you to the start of a great
Sunday School and Nursery.

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108

Grades 1-5: On Monday, November 13th, all families with children in grades 1-5 are invited to participate in the "Hail Mary, Full of Grace" Learning Centers. We will not have regular classes that night. All homeschool, Catholic school, and public school families from Resurrection are invited. All those who seek to know more about Mary are also welcome. Getting to know Mary is the best way to know her son, Jesus. Come to the learning centers and find out about her parents, St. Joachim and St. Anne, and her husband, St. Joseph, and her son, Jesus. We will discover new ways to honor and remember Mary on her feast days and look at the countless title or names that she is called around the world. There will be one area devoted to the Marian apparitions or sighting of Mary in Lourdes, Fatima, and Mexico. We will be able to learn about Pope Francis' devotion to Our Lady, Undoer of Knots and get to tie some knots ourselves. These "Hail Mary, Full of Grace" Learning Centers will be open 4:00-7:00pm in Fr. Zenk Hall.

Parishioners of Resurrection, Rosary donations: Thank you to all our rosary donors! Our children will love being able to choose a rosary that passes on our faith. This is a wonderful way to connect our rich traditions to the next generation of Catholics. We will continue to collect any donated rosaries to use in the Monday classes.

Virtues in Practice: During November, our virtue to practice is stewardship. The 1st and 2nd graders will be learning about the life of St. Elizabeth of Hungary. She was the daughter of a king and married a prince who became king. She had many treasures. But during her life, she spent her money to feed the poor people in her kingdom. She even had a hospital built near her castle. St. Elizabeth had four children and they were able to see a church dedicated to their own mother with stained glass windows about her life. She shared the treasure that God gave her to bless others. Thank you for teaching us about true stewardship. St. Elizabeth, pray for us!

News from Rosemary, Grades 6-12, Youth Ministry, dre6to10ym@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 104

First Year Confirmation (9th grade): Mark your calendar—parent and candidate learning centers are Wednesday, Nov. 29th. They will be available from 3:00 pm—8:00 pm in room D/E. These centers are designed for conversion, so each candidate should attend with a parent. This replaces the Wednesday class for 9th grade students.

Second Year Confirmation (10th grade): Faith Sharing sessions for this month are Nov. 12 (6:30 pm) and Nov. 19 (11:00 am). Confirmation name forms are due at this meeting. The forms are available on the Confirmation page of our web site. An updated calendar is also on the web site with the Confirmation dates.

FYRE Youth Night meets on Sundays at 4:30-6:00pm in the Fr. Zenk Hall. All students in middle school or high school are welcome to join us for fun, discussion, and snacks. Our Blessed Mother, Mary appears only a few times in the Bible, but when we look carefully we can get a better understanding of why she is so important to us. Join us as we continue to look at her journey with her Son.

Mark your calendar: Our first Spark Parish Service Night is Wednesday, November 29th at 6:00pm. "Service Begins at Home" Mother Theresa was once asked by a man, "What can I do to change the world?" She said, "Go home and love your family." The love of service is grown and nurtured within our own homes and parishes. We will meet in the Fr. Zenk Hall and then help prepare our Church for the Advent season.
