Weekly Words from The Rock

Editorial

January 8th celebrated the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Father Michael Van Sloun wrote an article in The Catholic Spirit (August 24, 2017, page 16) on the spiritual effects of baptism. Here is what he wrote.

Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life and it has powerful and long-lasting effects. It changes the spiritual character of a person forever, and the mark of transformation is so permanent that it is indelible. It can never be erased. What follows is a concise list of nine of the most important effects and benefits of the sacrament of baptism.

The gateway sacrament. Baptism is the first of the sacraments. It is the beginning and the foundation of the Christian life of faith and it provides access to the other sacraments.

Sacramental grace. The grace of baptism is a rebirth in Christ, opens a channel of blessing from God to the believer, grants a share of God's divine life, delivers spiritual energy and power, provides nourishment and enables growth in virtue and holiness.

The gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit comes to a person through baptism. The Holy Spirit is the ongoing indwelling presence of God, which makes the person a temple of the Holy Spirit and assures the constant companionship of God for the entire duration of the journey of life. The Holy Spirit offers inspiration, enlightenment and guidance, as well as the courage, strength and motivation to live according to God's ways.

A child of God. Baptism makes a person an adopted son or daughter of God. Baptism consecrates a person to God. God owns the baptized person, and the person belongs to God. With this realization there is an ever-growing deep longing to know, love, obey and serve God.

Church membership. Baptism grants admission into the body of Christ, the Church, the army of light, a spiritual family in which the other members become one's brothers and sisters in Christ. It establishes a bond of fellowship with the community of believers and full partnership with the communion of saints. The pilgrimage to God is not to be walked alone, but with the help and companionship of other disciples.

Spiritual status. The baptized person is elevated as priest, prophet and king: a person who prays alone and worships with the Church, praying both for one's self and on behalf of others; lives a good and holy life and calls others to greater holiness; and enjoys royal status before God, and who honors God as supreme, submits to God's authority and obeys God's law and will.

Forgiveness. Baptism is a spiritual cleansing. All sins, both original sin and personal sin, are washed away and forgiven, and the soul is purified. The person is in the state of grace. Liberation from sin gives the freedom and fosters the desire to conform one's life to Jesus and his gospel.

Apostolic zeal. Baptism makes a person a laborer in Christ's vineyard and a minister of the Church, one who proclaims the Gospel to others in deed and word; gives strong and bold witness; assists in liturgical roles; teaches and shares the faith; serves one's neighbors, particularly the poor and disadvantaged; is a good steward of time, talent and treasure; seeks, speaks and defends the truth; works for justice and peace; and upholds the common good.

Salvation. Baptism clothes a person with immortality, gives a person a share in the redemption that Christ won on the Cross, and makes salvation, eternal life and everlasting glory with God in heaven possible. It unites a person to the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. St. Paul explained that those who are baptized in Christ are baptized into his death (Romans 6:3), and that, "If we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall be united with him in the resurrection" (Romans 6:5).

As we can see with baptism, there is much more than meets the eye.

Liturgy Notes from Joann,

Director of Liturgy & RCIA, dirliturgyrcia@rescathroch.org.

Ordinary Time

Last week, the Church began the celebration of Ordinary Time. The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is the last celebration of the Christmas Season that leads us into the first week of Ordinary Time. This Sunday, the Church celebrates the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time as we enter into the second week.

Ordinary Time is not really a season in the liturgical year, but the time between liturgical seasons. The Sunday celebrations during these weeks are simpler in solemnity compared to the Christmas and Easter Seasons. The term “ordinary” is not intended to describe the quality of this time – it refers to the fact that the Sundays are “ordinal” or counted. In Ordinary Time the Church counts the weeks between liturgical seasons and orders our days through the lens of the ordinary ways we encounter Christ in daily life.

One resource that I have been reading suggests that Ordinary Time is perseverance in action – challenging us to find holiness within the daily routine. She writes: “Ordinary reflects the ordered sequence of days, reminding us that each day is numbered and each action matters for eternity.” Makes me want to pay attention and persevere!

The color of Ordinary Time is green – a color that signifies hope and new life in Christ. We will continue to use poinsettias to decorate the church during these weeks and remove them as they start to fade. Plants removed from the altar and the gathering space will be placed on a table near the hallway for anyone to take home.

The Gospels during Ordinary Time are taken from one of the synoptic Gospels – Matthew, Mark or Luke. These readings focus on the ministry and teaching of Jesus. This year, they are taken from the Gospel of Mark.

During the Christmas season we celebrated three manifestations of Christ: on Christmas Day in Bethlehem, to the Magi on Epiphany, and in the Jordan on the Baptism of the Lord. Today, we witness another manifestation with John the Baptist recognizing Christ as he walks by. What a fitting way to enter into this “ordinary” time – remembering that GOD is present in the ordinary experiences of our lives. Pay attention and persevere!

Note: Lent this year begins exactly one month from today...

Musical Musings from Joy

Music and Choral Director,
choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

I am going to take a couple weeks hiatus on the history of Mass music in order to highlight Resurrection's Music Ministry. During January, the Music Ministry is making strong recruitment efforts in order to strengthen our ministry and encourage others to get involved.

Why now, may you ask? As we are in that Ordinary Time "lull" after Christmas and before Lent, it is a great time to recruit again – the Easter music hasn't quite been started and the New Year's Resolutions are in full swing. Perhaps this is YOUR time to make a commitment to one of the most dynamic ministries Resurrection has to offer! What are some of the things we'll be doing this month? Each weekend will bring something new!

January 13th/14th – "Here I Am" Music Minister Witness Talks at all Masses

January 20th/21st – "Follow Me" Open Sing at all Masses

January 27th/28th – "Be Free of Anxieties" Informal Q & A after all Masses

THIS WEEK – MUSIC MINISTER WITNESS TALKS. This weekend at each of the Masses, you had the pleasure of hearing from various Music Ministers on the reasons why they find this ministry fulfilling in their own personal and spiritual lives. Their witness to this powerful facet of Mass has rejuvenated me in my position and affirmed that we have something really wonderful going on here!

NEXT WEEK – OPEN SING. Next weekend, you are invited to an "Open Sing" at all of the Masses. In the readings, we will hear Jesus' call for his disciples. Using this theme, we invite you to "follow" us and join us in singing for Mass. There is no experience necessary and absolutely no commitment is expected. I will provide a handy sheet with all of the music and there will be a current Music Minister nearby to help you out. Please gather 15 minutes before Mass starts near the piano and I will give instructions from there. This is ESPECIALLY for those of you who think you "can't" sing. Everyone can sing, you just have to find your song!

Take a look at the kiosk in the Gathering Space for a highlight on each of the choirs. Really, there is something for everybody! Registration forms are available there. (You can also register online!) Next week, I'll include these highlights in the bulletin so you may have them readily available at home. In the meantime, if you have any questions, comments, or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am happy to assuage all fears, offer plenty of encouragement, and provide you with a welcoming environment to musically offer praise to Our Lord, Jesus Christ in the Mass.

Hymnal Scavenger Hunt: How'd you do with last week's Hymnal Scavenger Hunt? It was Angels We Have Heard on High, which can be found in your green hymnal at #308 and red hymnal at #361. Here's this week's clue: This gentle song encourages us to open ourselves to God in many different ways. It is based on Mark 8:22-25. Hint: This song may be found in both hymnals!

Grades 1-5: We do not have Faith Formation classes on Monday, January 15th due to the holiday. On the following Monday, January 22nd, the 4th graders will have parent/child learning centers on the Ten Commandments and grades 1, 2, 3, and 5 have their regular classes at 4:30 and 6:00pm.

First Communion: We will have a Parent Meeting on Monday, January 15th at 6:30pm in Fr. Zenk Hall. Only one parent needs to attend. We have a sign-up for the Mass time that you want your child to receive the sacrament on April 28/29. There will be time to answer any questions about learning centers, practices, photos, and dress for the celebration.

Virtues in Practice: Our January virtue is gratitude and we introduced St. Francis of Assisi last week. St. Francis was filled with joy because he was so thankful. He loved all of creation like family. He called the sun "Brother Sun" and the moon "Sister Moon." Even the animals loved him and listened to him. He told the birds they did a good job praising God with their singing and he ordered a wolf to stop scaring people. Do you know where to find our St. Francis statue with the wolf? Did you know that there is a "sister" statue of St. Francis at Assisi Heights in Rochester? This statue has St. Francis with a lamb. Saint Francis of Assisi, help us to appreciate every creature, every kindness, every blessing as gifts from God. Help our hearts always to sing with gratitude and praise. Amen. Saint Francis of Assisi, pray for us!

Summer Care for children ages 3-12: Rochester Catholic Schools is now offering Summer Care! You do not have to be an RCS student to use this service.
