Weekly Words from The Rock

Editorial

Harvey Mackay wrote a column titled "Favorite morals offer tips for life" in the Post Bulletin on July 17, 2017. Mr. Mackay begins, "Readers of this column are remarkable when it comes to telling me what they like most about my weekly musings. Of course, I'm honored when they tell me they have posted my words on the company bulletin board. But without question, the most frequent feedback I get is the column-ending morals. Occasionally, I compile a list of my favorite morals from the past couple of years. Be my guest to share them." Here are a few of Mr. Mackey's musings.

Whatever you're selling, you're selling yourself first.

Don't presume what you assume is correct.

If you live by a great value system, your life will have great value.

Accountability is the ability to accept responsibility.

You are only as happy as you decide to be.

To be a standout, you must stand for only the best.

Some of the best lessons we ever learned, we learned from our mistakes and failures.

A sense of humor is almost as important as our other five senses.

Be respectful or be regretful.

Don't let excess stress get in the way of extreme success.

Statistics

In the October 15-21, 2017 edition of Our Sunday Visitor (page 8), there were striking figures presented on pornography use. Here are the statistics.

40 million U.S. adults regularly visit porn websites, and 10 percent of adults admit to having an internet sexual addiction.

Every day 2.5 billion emails containing porn are sent or received.

47 percent of U.S. families reported that pornography is a problem in their home.

Pornography use increases the rate of marital infidelity by more than 300 percent.

In the United States alone, the annual financial cost of pornography to business productivity is estimated at $16.9 billion.

Pornography consumption levels suggest the industry is making more money than all professional sports combined.

The danger and threat to families and individuals is real. As Catholics, we need to remind each other of the importance of being chaste; that would include bishops, priests, deacons, consecrated, married, single, young adults, youth and children. Who we are and what God intended for us is sacred and our human sexuality needs to be treated and taught as such. May we pray for a healing of the pornography epidemic.

Holy Humor

Moses' first and last day as a lifeguard.

God's blessings!

Father Peter Schuster

Second Collection today for Church in Latin America. Many people in Latin America and Caribbean do not have access to church programs and ministries because of rural terrain and a lack of ministers. Your generosity makes it possible for them to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous to the second collection. To learn more, visit their website at www.uscl.org/latin-america.

A heartfelt thank you from Family Promise Ministry for your generous donations to the Giving Tree 2017. We received $309 in cash donations, along with a wonderfully long list of 439 household items. (This list can be found on the kiosk.) The families in the program are truly touched by your kindness and generosity. When families move into their permanent housing, it is life-changing for them and your donations provide many necessary items they otherwise would not have. Family Promise provides assistance to homeless and low income families to become independent. We provide evening and overnight hosting, meals, and support childcare and other various needs for the families in the program. We partner with Pax Christi and Holy Spirit Parishes, and host families 4-5 times per year. If interested to learn more about Family Promise, please contact Luann Borst at 507-259-9317 or llaa4@icloud.com. Again, Thank you for your generosity and continued support of Family promise.
God Bless, Luann.

2017 Giving Tree Elder Care Ministry total of $1,440 in cash donations. Your donations make it possible for us to offer correspondence, prayerful gifts and educational and social gatherings for older parishioners. Elder Care Ministry is a pastoral ministry that serves to keep older adult parishioners at Resurrection connected with their Catholic faith and parish. If you have any questions, please contact Mary Meine at 507-398-2392.

This month we celebrated National Migration Week and Immigration Sunday. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Minnesota Catholic Conference and Catholic Charities are working to promote human migration policies towards refugees and immigrants that reflect our Catholic values. In the Gathering Space, you will find postcards to be sent to Congress in support of the Dream Act. The Dream Act is intended to protect immigrant youth who entered the United States as children and know America as their only home without fear of deportation at any moment or separation from their families. If you wish to support the Dream Act, take a postcard for each two Senators and eight representative representing Minnesota, for a total of 10 postcards. The addresses of our senators and representative are provided which you can take with you.

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts. Shine through the darkness. Christ, be our light. Shine in your church gathered today!

These are the words to a familiar song that we sing at Mass called "Christ, Be our Light". Candles give off light. The light of one candle dispels the darkness. We use candles at Mass and at prayer as a reminder of Christ's presence...light in the darkness. During these winter months of Ordinary Time, we are beginning to experience the light of day lasting longer into the evening hours. Just as we celebrate the growing light in nature, we also celebrate the growing light of Christ in our lives! On February 2nd, this Friday, the church celebrates a great feast of light – the Presentation of the Lord – also known as Candlemas.

On this day, the scripture readings tell the story of Jesus being presented in the temple by Mary and Joseph. In doing this, the parents of the child Jesus are fulfilling Jewish law, but they are also bringing Jesus to meet believing people who were awaiting the fulfillment of GOD'S promise – Simeon and Anna. Led by the Spirit, Simeon and Anna came to the temple that day and recognized this child as the Light of the World.

As we gather on this feast day, we too recognize Christ as the Light of the World and we pray that the light of Christ will fill the hearts of all believers...and so we begin the Mass by lighting candles and remembering that Christ is our Light. All who gather for Mass on this day will be given a candle, or they can bring a candle from home. As the candles are lit, we sing the mantra "Christ our Light, Light of the World." Then Father blesses the candles with this prayer:

"Sanctify with your blessing these candles, which we are eager to carry in praise of your name, so that treading the path of virtue, we may reach that light which never fails."

May GOD, who created light, pour into our hearts the brilliance of perpetual light – that we ourselves may be a light that shines in the darkness.

Here comes the Son, here comes the Son, and I say - it's all right!

Psalm Refrain for February 4 – 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Psalm 147:3)

Praise the Lord, who heals the broken hearted.

Musical Musings from Joy

Music and Choral Director, choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

Last week's Open Sing was a huge success. Thank you to EVERYBODY who participated, especially those who dove in last minute! It is not easy to get up there "on the spot" in front of your community like that. I admire the courage, as well as the talent, represented up there. We had a variety of ages represented, including children, teens, and adults.

I thought it might be fun to break down the numbers:

8pm Mass Expected - 11 Ministers Total - 14 Ministers (27% increase)	10am Mass Expected - 6 Ministers Total - 10 Ministers (67% increase)
8:30am Mass Expected - 10 Ministers Total - 15 Ministers (50% increase)	11:30am Mass Expected - 2 Ministers Total - 10 Ministers (400% increase)

While all of the numbers are impressive, as you can see, 11:30am Mass had an overwhelming number of people who were interested in participating in the Music Ministry last Sunday. My wheels are already turning to figure out how I can create a more "permanent" ensemble for this liturgy in the future! Stay tuned for another Open Sing, which will occur sometime in the summer months.

THIS WEEK - INFORMAL Q & A This weekend, we invite you to come up to the choir area after all Masses and chat with our current Music Ministers. Please bring any questions you may have regarding membership, the time commitment, musical knowledge, or anything else weighing on your mind! Our Music Ministers are happy to answer any of your questions.

Take a look at the kiosk in the Gathering Space for a highlight on each of the choirs. Really, there is something for everybody! Registration forms are available there, as well. (You can also register online!)

In the meantime, if you have any questions, comments, or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am happy to assuage all fears, offer plenty of encouragement, and provide you with a welcoming environment to musically offer praise to Our Lord, Jesus Christ in the Mass.

Hymnal Scavenger Hunt How'd you do with last week's Hymnal Scavenger Hunt? It was River of Glory, which can be found in your green hymnal at #517. Here's this week's clue:

This song asks the Holy Spirit to breathe His power over all of us. It is based on Psalm 104.

Hint: This song may be found in your red hymnal!

The children are learning what it means to see everything as a gift and to be thankful from Saint Julie Billiart of France. When we receive gifts from others, we respond by saying, "Thank You!" To have the virtue of gratitude means to always have a "thank you" in your heart, especially to God, Who has given us the gift of life. Saint Julie Billiart, help us to show our gratitude to God and others. St. Julie Billiart, pray for us! Amen.
