LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

As we celebrate today's feast, we are reminded that God creates and fashions each one of us with intent and purpose. We are not random accidents. We are special creations and wonderfully made. Each of us brings a unique twist to the one shot at life that we are given.

As people of faith and children of God, we are asked to use our specialness to announce God's kingdom. Each of us reveals a unique part of God's face. Each day presents opportunities to communicate our faith to others and to reveal God's mercy. We have the means to point the way to Christ. How can we show Jesus to others today?

Questions

Last weekend, I posed some questions from the life of Father Schuster. Here are the answers.

Question: During the course of a year, the pastor is the celebrant at many funerals. In celebrating a funeral, what is the one symbol which is not used?

- Paschal/Easter Candle
- Incense
- Oils
- Pall
- Aspergillum (Used in sprinkling Holy Water)

Answer: Oils. Oils are used in baptism, confirmation, holy orders and anointing of the sick. Oils are not used during a funeral.

Question: When was Father Schuster appointed pastor of Resurrection?

- July 1, 2015
- July 1, 2016
- July 1, 2017
- None of the above.

Answer: July 1, 2016. It is amazing how quickly time flies.

Question: From where Father Schuster sits during Mass, he notices many unique things within a particular church. If you were seated in a pew during Mass at Resurrection and looked around, what one object is not found within its walls?

- Ambry

Institute of Lay Formation 2018-2019

Institute of Lay Formation in the Diocese of Winona-Rochester arises out of the vision of the Second Vatican Council that every lay believer is called to be "at the same time a witness and a living instrument of the mission of the Church" (Lumen Gentium, No. 33). The Institute offers its students a process of education and formation on the Church's teaching, tradition, and ministry. It is designed to challenge and support lay women and men in actively living out their vocation both within the Church and in the world.

The Institute has three components:

1. CREDO ~ Together in Faith A catechetical/theological formation component;
2. CARITAS ~ Together in Service A lay leadership/discipleship formation component;
3. EMMAUS ~ Together in Christ A continuing education/formation component.

The Institute of Lay Ministry's formation process consists of four major components:

1. Intellectual Formation The study of and reflection on the major aspects of the Catholic Faith (e.g., Scripture, church history, liturgy and the sacraments, etc.).
2. Human Formation The exploration and development of the human qualities and personal maturity needed for faith-filled and healthy living.
3. Spiritual Formation Discernment, reflection, and prayer experiences relating to Christian discipleship and ministry.
4. Pastoral Formation The development of skills relating to lay leadership (e.g., collaboration, communication skills, etc.), including a practicum experience.

Tuition and Expenses The tuition for the Institute is $325.00. Tuition covers all program-related expenses -- instructional expenses (e.g., books and course materials), prayer and worship materials, food, etc. Annual tuition expenses can be paid for in multiple payments over the course of the formation year, if desired. Students assume the cost of their travel-related expenses. Sponsoring parishes/institutions are encouraged to assist their students in covering Institute expenses, if this is possible. Tuition assistance is also available from the diocese, and may be applied for at the beginning of each formation year. The Office of Lay Formation works to ensure that financial constraints do not preclude anyone from participating in the Institute.

Each Session Schedule consists of 8 Saturday sessions from 9:00-3:00 pm during the months of September through April and a weekend retreat at the conclusion of each year.

Parish/Institution Sponsorship Lay ministry is carried out within the context and with the support of a faith community. In light of this, applicants to the Institute are asked to seek the formal support and sponsorship of a parish/church institution. The sponsoring parish/institution is asked to arrange for the pastor/director to meet with the prospective student to discuss his/her participation in the Institute before submitting an application, provide formal approval from the pastor/director, in support of the prospective student's application, provide direction and supervision for the student during his/her practicum project, which takes place during the third year in the Institute, assist in the payment of the student's tuition and/or other expenses related to his/her participation in the Institute (if this is possible).

For more information, please go to the Diocese website address: www.dow.org/offices/lay-formation/institute-of-lay-formation or pick up information that is in the kiosk in our Gathering Space. If you have any questions, stop in the office or give us a call at 507-288-5528.

Thank you to our Community Food Response Volunteers.

Thank you to past and present volunteers to Community Food Response over the years and helping graciously when called.

I will continue to volunteer when I can, but health issues now call me to step down as liaison for Resurrection.

Please be as welcoming to Eileen Warrington when she takes over for me in September 2018. Thank you, Jan Helgren

Musical Musings from Joy

Music and Choral Director, choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

Thank you to EVERYONE who came up to sing with us for this weekend's Open Sing. We were thrilled to have you, and are sincerely hoping you'll consider joining us full-time next fall.

In a couple of weeks, I will be making the trek to Baltimore, Maryland for the National Association of Pastoral Musicians' (NPM) annual convention. There, I will partake in workshops and other activities relating to the work I do here at Resurrection.

This year, I want to focus my time at the convention on ways I can help our Music Ministry continue to grow and flourish. I will aim to do this by workshop attendance, purchasing of music, discovering new resources, networking, etc.

I need your help! I want to make my attendance at NPM this summer all about YOU! Over the next couple of weeks, I would greatly appreciate it if you could send on any thoughts or ideas to me regarding music and liturgy. What do you want to see here at Resurrection? I will do my best to use all of the national resources at my disposal to make this happen for us!

In the meantime, if you have any other questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me!

Hymnal Scavenger Hunt How'd you do with last week's Hymnal Scavenger Hunt? It was Wherever You Go, found in the red hymnal at #860. Here's this week's clue:

This weekend we celebrate John the Baptist. During Advent, we also celebrate him. This song talks about the river he baptized in.

Hint: This song may be found in both hymnals.
