Weekly Words from The Rock

Question:

Can you provide some good reasons why women cannot be ordained to the priesthood?

Answer: We can suggest four. First, because the Founder of the Catholic Church, Jesus Christ, did not choose women to be priests. He had plenty of worthy women who supported Him during His ministry, including His own Mother, but He chose to ordain only men. This was no putdown to women, since Jesus demonstrated high regard for the women of His time, including the Samaritan woman at the well (John 4:4-30; 39-42) and Mary Magdalene, who had the privilege of being the first person to see Jesus Christ after His Resurrection (John 20:11-18).

Second, Jesus is our Eternal High Priest who chose to come to earth as a man. Since priests are supposed to be icons or representatives of the Lord, who stand in the person of Christ at the altar, it is fitting that only men should be priests. You wouldn't choose a man to represent the Blessed Mother, so why choose a woman to represent Jesus?

Third, Christ is often referred to as the Bridegroom and the Church as His bride. That symbolism would be lost with women priests since the heavenly Bridegroom would be represented by a bride and you would have the confusing situation of two brides instead of a bride and groom.

Fourth, the Church cannot ordain anybody and everybody. Every sacrament must have the right "matter." You don't baptize with Pepsi, you can't change beer into the Blood of Christ. Beer isn't inferior to wine, anymore than women are inferior to men. Man and woman, like beer and wine, are of equal worth, but because Christ chose only men to be priests, only baptized males are the proper matter for Holy Orders, just as only bread and wine are the proper matter for the Holy Eucharist.

In his 1994 apostolic letter Ordinatio Sacerdotalis, Pope John Paul II infallibly proclaimed that "in order that all doubts may be removed in a matter of great importance...I declare that the Church has no authority whatsoever to confer priestly ordination on women and that this judgment is to be definitively held by all the faithful" (n. 4).

Pop Quiz

On February 20, 1997, The Catholic Spirit came up with a religious competency test. This test encompasses all articles of the Catholic faith. Here is the question I posed for you last week and I now provide the answer.

Question: God revealed his law to his people through Moses to whom he gave the:

- A. Eight Beatitudes
- B. Ten Commandments
- C. Seven Sacraments
- D. Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Answer: B. Ten Commandments

Here is the question for the coming week.

Question: The breakdown of our relationship with God is called:

- A. Love
- B. Hope
- C. Sin
- D. Holiness

Good luck with the question. I'll provide the answer next week along with the next series of questions.

God's blessings! Father Schuster

Parish Events

Our next CEO Rochester Event is on Wednesday, June 12th at 7:00pm. Catholic Evangelization Outreach is real people sharing real stories about our faith.

Our witness speaker will be Allyson Harris and she will talk about how she went from an atheist college athlete to a Catholic missionary. Playing college basketball and pursuing a pre-med degree, Allyson Harris moved through college with everything she thought would make her happy and God being nowhere in that picture. In her pursuit of a successful life, happiness, and love, Allyson came to the recognition that it was actually her who was being pursued, by Love Himself. She encountered the Person of Jesus first through a roommate and teammate, then in the beauty of the Church and her tradition, and finally in the Eucharist. In being found, Allyson finally found her life's calling - to belong fully to Him who alone fulfills, and to make Him known to others. Allyson is currently part of Campus Missionary at University of North Dakota and FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students). Light refreshments will follow Allyson's story. Childcare will be provided. No cost, no registration, and all are welcome.

St. Francis School News

School is out for the summer. We want to thank all of the parishioners and parents who continue to support our Catholic Schools through their donations of time, talent and treasure. It truly takes a village to raise up our future church. Thanks for your part in this important work!
