Weekly Words from The Rock

Father's Day

To all of our fathers, I want to wish a blessed Father's Day. Last month, I shared a few thoughts about my mother and now it is time to do the same with my father. My father raised us on a farm a mere one and a half miles from his father. We raised hogs, corn, soybeans and wheat. We grew wheat for its grain but mostly as bedding for the hogs. My dad was a hard worker. He was meticulous – proud of his equipment and proud of his fields. Not being the biggest farmer in the area, it was amazing what he was able to do. We had a roof over our heads, food on the table, and clothes on our back. He was able to send all four children through college.

Some of my greatest memories of my father were spent hunting and fishing. We have stories from falling out of duck boats to being stopped by a game warden believing we were transporting drugs. Now as he has reached the age of 84, the roles are reversed. I am now the one who takes him to the hunting grounds or lakes in search of a walleye, perch or bullhead.

My father is a man of great faith. His example of prayer and believing in the power of the Mass is something each child has cherished. Too, I was fortunate to have a father who supported me in my priestly vocation. As family, it was a treat when we jumped into the car and headed to A&W Root Beer. We would order a root beer and ice cream cone. My mother and father were always worried about us spilling our cone so they would constantly yell, "Hurry up! Hurry Up! Eat your cone!"

Those were the days!

From the Book of Blessings, I would like to offer a blessing for our fathers today.

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughter, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

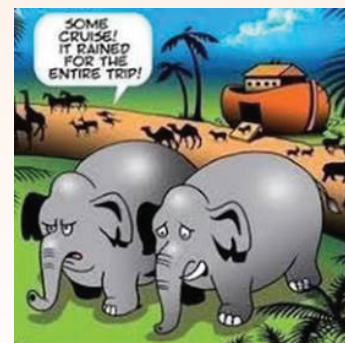

Pop Quiz On February 20, 1997, The Catholic Spirit came up with a religious competency test. This test encompasses all articles of the Catholic faith. Here is the question I posed for you last week and I now provide the answer.

Answers to the matching of the correct definition with the appropriate word:

- Murder: C A. The deliberate termination of one's own life.
- Abortion: B. B. The deliberate destruction of an unborn child.
- Suicide: A. C. The killing of a human being.
- Euthanasia: D. D. The active and deliberate termination of the life of another who is old, handicapped or very ill.

And just like that, after weeks on this competency test, we have come to its end. I hope it challenged you and provided some new nuggets regarding the faith.

Holy Humor.. Ever had one of these days!

Divine Word Missionaries
Our Worldwide Mission

Weekend of July 13th/14th

Divine Word Missionaries will visit us the weekend of July 13th/14th and a second collection will be taken for the Divine Word Missionaries.

They are an international religious community of missionary priests and Brothers serving in over 80 countries around the world. More than 6,000 missionaries serve in remote mission communities, where they celebrate the sacraments and spread the word of God.

Their missionaries meet the challenges of poverty, hunger, illness and natural disasters with hearts full of love and compassion as well as tangible solutions so that people in need have food shelter, and medical care. Divine Word Missionaries foster vibrant Catholic communities of faith and service around the world while empowering people to live a life of quality and dignity. Your prayers and support give us strength to continue this work. For more information, check out their website at www.svdmissions.org.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone who participated in the first Open Sing of the summer this weekend. We hope that you'll consider joining us for other Open Sings, or on a more permanent basis in the fall!

This weekend, we find ourselves back in Ordinary Time, although the liturgical color for both this weekend and next weekend is white. It makes it a bit confusing! One may consider the Most Holy Trinity and the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ to almost be two "bonus" weeks of Easter, since we are really celebrating the fruits of that glorious season.

This wheel depicts the entire Liturgical Year that began with the First Sunday of Advent. Some of you may have taken your personal copy at the "New Liturgical Year" last December.

However, this large version is available in my office if anyone would like to take a look when I'm around!

As you can see, this weekend and next weekend are both highlighted in green, which represents Ordinary Time. However, the priests' vestements and other liturgical elements these weekends will still be white!

Be on the lookout beginning the weekend of July 29th/30th for the return of our usual Ordinary Time color!

Being Aware: What We Need to Know About the 'Assisted Dying' Movement.

Monday, June 17th 7:00 pm at RCTC Heintz Center Commons, 1926 Collegeview Rd E., Rochester
Tuesday, June 18th, 7:00 pm at the Church of St. Michael, 451 5th Street SW, Pine Island.

Are assisted dying laws leading society down a dangerous path? For the past three years, Kevin Dunn has travelled to four countries to capture powerful testimonials from those most affected by 'assisted dying' laws: the elderly, those with disabilities or mental illness. His talk underscores the need for each of us to become a 'prophet of hope' in the lives of those around us.

Are you ready to become a prophet of hope? Join us for a presentation at either location.

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org

On this Sunday we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity and Father's Day. It is the perfect time to dedicate ourselves to family prayer time. Prayer is essential for our families. You may be thinking that prayer is difficult, boring, frustrating or challenging. It can also be peaceful, soul-renewing, breath-taking, or energizing. If little children are involved, it can be silly, funny, and wiggly. If adults are participating, it can be wonderful! It doesn't matter if you are a family of one soul or an army of prayer warriors. It is important is that your family takes time every day to pray together. As you teach your children, you can pray in the morning over your cereal or taking a shower; you can pray during the day when you are grateful or stressed out; you can pray before, during, and after suppertime; you can pray as you watch your children play sports or as you go for a walk; you can pray at the end of the day with your guardian angel as you lay your head on your pillow. The bottom line is that you need to pray. If you're still reading, then you know what I'm talking about with daily prayer. You know yourself better than anyone else but God. Choose a time and place that allows you to be open to listening to God. To get started, read daily scripture from USCCB.org where you can find the daily readings. Remember that we called to gather and worship together at Mass every weekend. Going to Mass is one huge prayer that we do as the Body of Christ. Begin your week with Mass and keep praying all week. To get you started, I've found a prayer from St. Teresa of Calcutta. God bless all of our families!

Prayer for Our Family

Heavenly Father, you have given us the model of life in the holy family of Nazareth. Help us, O Loving Father, to make our family another Nazareth where love, peace, and joy reign. May it be deeply contemplative, intensely Eucharistic, revived with joy.

Help us to stay together in joy and sorrow in family prayer. Teach us to see Jesus in the members of our families, especially in their distressing disguise. May the Eucharistic heart of Jesus make our hearts humble like his and help us to carry out our family duties in a holy way.

May we love one another as God loves each one of us, more and more each day, and forgive each other's faults as you forgive our sins. Help us, O Loving Father, to take whatever you give and give whatever you take with a big smile. Immaculate Heart of Mary, cause of our joy, pray for us. St. Joseph, pray for us. Holy Guardian Angels, be always with us, guide and protect us. Amen.

A Prayer on Father's Day

Heavenly Father, shower your blessings upon all fathers.

Grant them wisdom to guide their children along right paths.

Grant them the strength to forgive when their children stray from those paths.

Grant them perseverance as they provide for the needs of their families.

May your love shelter them in times of need, and expand their capacity for forgiveness, kindness, and compassion. You, who are father of us all, hold all fathers in your warm and generous heart.

Amen.
