

Church of the Resurrection

An ever-growing Eucharistic community boldly serving others through God's love

1600 11th Avenue SE • Rochester, MN 55904 • www.rescathroch.org • 507-288-5528

Almighty God,

Bless our nation and make it true to the ideals of freedom and justice and brotherhood for all who make it great. Guard us from war, from fire and wind, from compromise, fear, confusion.

Be close to our president and our statesmen; give them vision and courage, as they ponder decisions affecting peace and the future of the world.

Make me more deeply aware of my heritage; realizing not only my rights but also my duties and responsibilities as a citizen.

Make this great land and all its people know clearly Your will, that they may fulfill the destiny ordained for us in the salvation of the nations, and the restoring of all things in Christ.

Amen

Questions

Last weekend, I posed some questions from the life of Father Schuster. Here are the answers.

Question: In Father Schuster's pickup, which of the items is not found?

- A. Oil stock for the anointing of the sick
- B. Rosary
- C. Spare Roman Collar (the white thing at the top of a priest's shirt)
- D. CDs of Bishop Fulton Sheen
- E. Holy Bible

Answer: E. Holy Bible. Although, regarding the Holy Bible even that I have with me. While I don't have a book of the Holy Bible in my pickup, it is easy to access Holy Scripture through one's smartphone.

Question: How many miles does Father Schuster have on his 2004 Chevrolet Silverado pickup?

- A. 100,000 miles
- B. 200,000 miles
- C. 250,000 miles
- D. 300,000 miles
- E. 350,000 miles

Answer: C. 300,000 miles. Actually, I am almost to 300,000 miles. I currently have 297,000 miles on my pickup.

Question: If Father Schuster could drive his pickup anywhere, what is the one thing on his bucket list?

- A. Madonna concert
- B. Visit the Holy Father
- C. Attend the Daytona 500
- D. African safari
- E. Travel the world

Answer: C. Attend the Daytona 500. I am not fan of Madonna. While I don't mind travelling, it isn't high on my priority list. If the Holy Father wants to see me, I figure he can travel to Rochester. However, I would travel to Daytona Beach, Florida to watch the Daytona 500. It is the one race I have always wanted to view in person.

Our Sunday Visitor

In the August 27-September 2, 2017 (pages 9-12) edition of Our Sunday Visitor, the pages cover some common questions asked of or by Catholics. Over the next weeks, I would like to look at the questions and an answer which can be given.

Question: Why can't a priest get married?

Answer: A distinction must be made from the outset:

Some Catholic priests can get married and some can't. This distinction is possible because there is nothing in the deposit of faith that prohibits priests from being married.

There is a long-standing practice, though, to require celibacy of Latin (or Roman) rite priests. In the Eastern rites, celibacy is generally not required – although it is required for bishops. Additionally, you will find married Catholic priests who come, for the most part, from one of the following scenarios: former Protestant ministers who have been ordained as priests under provisions approved by Pope St. John Paul II, former Anglican priests who have been received into the Catholic Church and been ordained Catholic priests after the establishment of Anglican ordinariates by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, or Orthodox priests who are received into the Catholic Church.

But, yes, the majority of Roman-rite Catholic priests are celibate, and the Latin Church does not see this as an imposition. Rather, it sees celibacy as a sign that the priest's consecration to the Lord is with an undivided heart, where "they give themselves entirely to God and to men."

"Celibacy is a sign of this new life to the service of which the Church's minister is consecrated; accepted with a joyous heart, celibacy proclaims the reign of God" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 1579). Furthermore, any Catholic priest, if already ordained a priest, cannot subsequently marry. That is because marriage after ordination is not possible ordinarily, without permission from the Holy See. This would also apply in a situation if a wife died and a priest sought to remarry, for instance.

God's blessings! Father Schuster

Music and Choral Director, choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

I was thrilled to have everyone join us last weekend for the Open Sing! I do hope that you'll continue to pray and discern if the Music Ministry is the right fit for you.

Last weekend, I had the honor and the privilege to sing as a member of the choir for the Elevation Mass at the newly-named Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist downtown. It was an amazing experience to work with a fellow choir director at the helm, as well as connect with other liturgical musicians in town.

One thing I realized in doing this was the amount of music that's still out there and totally accessible to us. Whether it's in our hymnal or not, I want to keep all possibilities open in the future.

So, I ask you all – Is there a church song you LOVE that you want to hear at Resurrection?

I know I have lots of favorites from back home in Cleveland, from college at Saint Mary's/Notre Dame, and from Ireland. One of the ones we did at St. John's last weekend, Bread of Life by Bobby Fisher, is certainly one I think that you all would love! (Look it up in your green hymnal at #805.)

I was also pleasantly surprised to hear from so many choir members that last weekend's Preparation Hymn, O God, You Search Me, by Bernadette Farrell was another new one. I grew up with this one and am so excited to have introduced it to you! It is a beautiful hymn setting of Psalm 139. (Did you know that Responsorial Psalm only comes up in the lectionary TWICE? We are so blessed to have heard it!) I plan to continue using that one after getting such a positive response from it.

Therefore, I challenge you all to take a flick through your hymnals and find a couple of pieces you love that we haven't been doing here at Resurrection. I love getting suggestions! Or, if there's a piece you'd like to hear more of, let me know that, too! I will always do my best to include suggestions as often as I can. (After all, the music serves the Mass, not vice versa!)

Thank you in advance!

Hymnal Scavenger Hunt How'd you do with last week's Hymnal Scavenger Hunt? It was On Jordan's Bank, found in the green hymnal at #278 and the red hymnal at #344. Here's this week's clue:

Our hymnals include many patriotic songs. In anticipation of 4th of July this week, this song might be a nice option to celebrate Creation, as well.

Hint: This song may be found in both hymnals.

Totus Tuus Week: On Sunday night, the 7th-12th graders arrived to a warm welcome from the Totus Tuus Team (see the photo of this year's team below). We had a strong group of nine middle school and high school youth that prayed, played, and spent time together learning more about each other and our Catholic faith. The children in grades 1-6 came during the daytime from Monday to Friday. We had rain every day, but lots of sunny attitudes and joyful smiles throughout the week. Friday's skies cleared just in time for water games and activities. This is the grand finale to the Totus Tuus experience! The week goes by too fast and we are always excited to come back next summer. Thank you to Joann Siple and the Carlin family for hosting the men and women at their homes and to all the parents and grandparents who helped during snack breaks and lunch time. Thank you to the families who came to the potluck picnic on Wednesday and for all the families who fully embraced the themes and teachings of Totus Tuus!
