Weekly Words from The Rock

Quiz Time I would like to talk today about one of my favorite prayers and that is the rosary. In praying the rosary, we mediate on the joyful, luminous, sorrowful and glorious mysteries. I have provided the twenty different decades of the rosary (the left column). What you need to do is match the correct mystery (right column) to each decade. I will give you an example. The 1st joyful mystery is E. The Annunciation.

Food for Friends Backpacks of School Supplies

The coming school year begins on August 27. Our Food for Friends children at Ben Franklin can use some help with school supplies. We have a supply of backpacks to be filled with school supplies. Backpacks are available in front of the office in the black tub. Inside a backpack, you will find a school supply list for all grade levels. Choose a grade level of your choice, shop, fill the backpack, and return the backpack to the church no later than the weekend of the August 18-19. A tag will be inside the backpack to label the grade level.

If you wish to take a list and purchase a portion of the supplies, please do so. 5th graders need calculators, and colored pencils, markers, and pencils are heavily needed. However, all items donated will be put to use. Blessings to all!

Resurrection Parish Leadership 2018. The process of leadership discernment for the coming year has begun. The discernment process first begins with the parish. The parish members are invited to call forth those individuals who possess leadership skills. Both by invitation or through an individual's interest in participation on a Leadership Ministry Team, all are welcomed to a Leadership Discernment Meeting on Wednesday, August 16 at 6—8 p.m. Stop by the table in the Gathering Space for more information and to pick up the nomination form. Nominations for all available positions will be accepted through July 22nd.

Second Collection next weekend. The Resurrection St. Vincent de Paul Conference would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to all parishioners for the 5th Sunday collection the last weekend of April.

Approximately $5000 was collected for our Conference. 100% of what you donate goes directly to our friends in need. Daily we see the face of God in our friends that we visit in their homes. Many of our friends are struggling and have been through unspeakable hardships.

Your cash donations allow the St Vincent de Paul Conference at Resurrection to help our friends in need. During the first 8 months of our fiscal year, we have been able to help our friends with approximately $22,000 toward housing, $3400 for heat and utilities, $2700 for transportation expenses and $1000 toward food and gas cards. Without your help, this would not be possible.

If you are interested in becoming a member of this rewarding ministry, please contact Kathy Geisler at 281-5358. The Resurrection Conference of St. Vincent de Paul meets the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month.

Help Wanted at Resurrection. Ushers needed for the 11:30 am Sunday Mass. If interested, please call Erica Stiller at 288-5528. Training is available.

We are in need of a Chair for the Garden Committee. If you love to garden and want to share your talent or hobby, contact the church office at 507-288-5528.

What is grace? Grace is the free and undeserved assistance God offers us so that we might respond to his call to share in his divine life and attain eternal life. God's grace, as divinely offered gift, does not take away or restrict our freedom; rather, it perfects our freedom by helping us overcome the restricting power of sin, the true obstacle to our freedom. (Page 329 of the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults). Grace is our sharing in the salvation and redemption of humankind that was accomplished by the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. When we are in the state or relationship of grace, we, as individuals, have been created again so that the life of Christ continues and evolves in our individual human existence. In a way that only God can bring about, we live Christ's life in our own. God does not make us sharers and participants in the life of Christ whether we want to be or not. God offers us the new life of Christ as a gift that we are invited to accept. "Being Catholic Archbishop Daniel Pilarczyk".

Liturgy is rich with signs, symbols and gestures. We are all very aware of our "Catholic calisthenics" which are a routine part of the Liturgy, namely sitting, standing and kneeling at various times. These postures serve an important purpose and reveal the significance of the action taking place. "Sitting" may be seen as our "learning" mode. We think of the various times at which we sit during the Sacred Liturgy, in particular the Scripture readings from the Old and New Testaments as well as during the homily. "Standing" may be seen as our "preparing" mode. We stand at various times during the Liturgy, most importantly when we are preparing to receive the Lord in His Word through the proclamation of the Gospel and receiving His Body and Blood in Holy Communion. "Kneeling" may be seen as our "adoring" mode and certainly has its proper place in Mass. A gesture reserved to the principal celebrant is the extension of the hands during the various "greetings". As a sign of unity within the priesthood, the principal celebrant and concelebrating priests extend their hands together at different times during the Eucharistic Prayer, during the offering of the Lord's Prayer or for a blessing. These are just a few examples the many important actions and gestures which are part of the Liturgy. Our worship as Catholics is very rich with signs, symbols and gestures, many of which have ancient origins. What do they mean to you? What do they signify and reveal? Make these actions and gestures part of your own personal participation in the Liturgy and offer them with care, devotion and sincerity. They are not just "empty actions" but help reveal to us the great Mystery of God. Living the Liturgy, Fr. David J. Dohogne

Musical Musings from Joy

Music and Choral Director & Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

What an action-packed week I had at the National Association of Pastoral Musicians (NPM) annual convention earlier this month! I came home completely recharged and rejuvenated in the power of the sung Word. Here are some highlights from my week: On the first day, I attended a three-hour Composers' Forum where one of my original Psalm settings was workshopped with many notable liturgical composers and publishers present. (Including Christopher Walker, Paul Inwood, and Tom Kendzia!). I adjudicated nearly one dozen cantors in their Basic Cantor Certifications. They add to four of our cantors here at Resurrection who recently based their own certifications! I went to a very intimate talk given by David Haas, who discussed the launch of his new website, <http://www.davidhaas.us/>, which includes many wonderful resources for musicians and non-musicians alike! One of the best features, in my opinion, is the daily mediation/reflection. He assured us that he does NOT sell our email addresses to third parties, so feel free to sign up and receive some wonderful words from a Minnesotan composer every day!

Marty Haugen gave a great workshop of his new music and talked to us a bit about his own faith journey. Did you know that his first parish music ministry job was supposed to be a six-month temporary position? Look where he is now! Motivational speaker, singer, and composer Vallimar Jansen gave us a really enlightening and powerful talk on music in our everyday lives. My favorite insight from her was the realization that we all start in the womb with music – it's the rhythm of our own heartbeat against our mother's. During a liturgy session, Michael Joncas and Paul Turner gave amazing insight to the Church music documents before, during, and after Vatican II. They also clarified some of the more confusing parts for us, and helped to remind us that the implementation of Vatican II is still happening! Finally, on my last day, John Angotti (composer of our newly-learned song, I Send You Out), offered a wonderful workshop on passing on the faith and our lay ministry efforts to youth. Using his own compositions to ground us, John sent us on the journey of a minister/youth relationship alongside one young man he mentored from a young age. What an inspirational way to end the week! If anyone has any questions or wants to know more about these experiences, feel free to reach out to me!

Hymnal Scavenger Hunt Last week it was O Word of God, found in the green hymnal #645. Here's this week's clue: The Final Commendation is an important part of the Funeral Liturgy. During it, we sing a Song of Farewell. It uses the tune of Danny Boy to deliver the prayer. Hint: This song may be found in the green hymnal.

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Frequently Asked Questions:

What is the difference between a Candidate and a Catechumen?

Candidate: Someone who has been baptized in another Christian Faith. The Catholic Church recognizes the baptism bestowed by most Christian denominations (ex: the baptism was performed with flowing water and the words “Father, Son and Holy Spirit” were used.) Since baptism confers an everlasting mark on the soul, the Church does not “re-baptize”. When entering the Catholic Church at Easter, the candidate makes a “profession of faith” in Catholicism.

Catechumen: Someone who has never been baptized into any Christian faith. They will be baptized at the Easter Vigil.

What is the difference between a Sponsor and a Godparent?

Sponsor: All candidates and catechumens must have a sponsor who:

- Acts as a personal connection between the candidate and community;
- Provides support and encouragement;
- Answers questions the candidate or catechumen might have;
- Is available;
- Listens to and shares personal faith stories;
- Prays with and for the candidate or catechumen;
- Introduces the candidate or catechumen to other members of the community;
- Participates in instructions, gatherings and ceremonial rites wherever possible.

Godparent: Is chosen by the catechumen. It is common that the godparent also serves as sponsor to the catechumen. The godparent:

- Accepts a lifetime commitment to help the neophyte keep his/her baptismal commitment;
- Must be fully initiated themselves, having received baptism, confirmation and Eucharist;
- Must be approved by the pastor;
- Must be reasonably informed on current Church teaching.

Any questions or if you are interested in learning more about RCIA, or interested in becoming a sponsor or godparent, contact Sheila Pelowski at 288-5528 or email sheilap@rescathroch.org.

Rev. Kishore Bansani is very thankful for the second collection we took up last weekend to support the work of evangelization for the mission in the diocese of Warangal. The total was over $6,200. Below are some pictures of the school and students. The two women are from the area without a written language and were recently baptized into the Catholic Church.
