"The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe."

And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father."

As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him.

Jn 6:63c-64a, 65-66

Weekly Words from The Rock

As I mentioned last week, over the next weeks, I want to look into the Ten Commandments. There is much more to the commandments than meets the eye. My work comes from Father Peter Klein's Catholic Source Book, Copyright 2000, pages 82-89. However, before we begin, last week I provided a matching exercise on the Ten Commandments. In the left column is the number of the commandment. In the right column is the wording of each of commandment. I asked you to see if you could match each of the commandments correctly. Here are the correct answers:

H First Commandment

F Second Commandment

I Third Commandment

B Fourth Commandment

G Fifth Commandment

E Sixth Commandment

A Seventh Commandment

C Eighth Commandment

J Ninth Commandment

D Tenth Commandment

A. Thou shall not steal

B. Honor your father and your mother

C. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor

D. Thou shall not covet thy neighbor's goods

E. Thou shall not commit adultery

F. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain

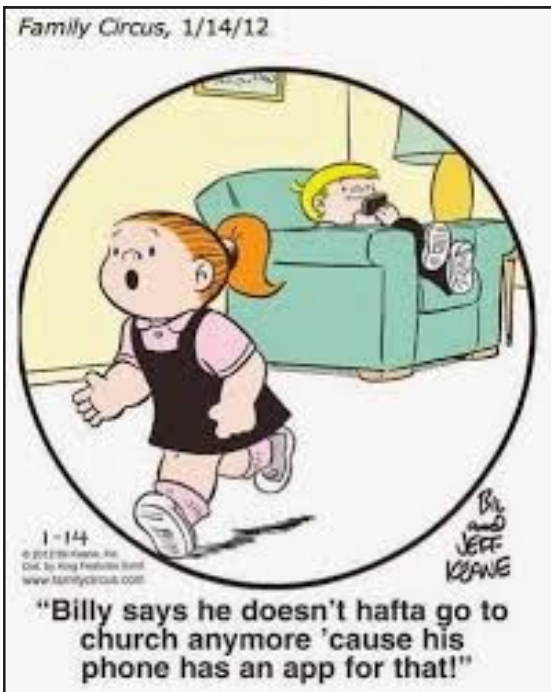

G. Thou shall not kill

H. I am the Lord your God, you shall not have strange gods before me.

I. Remember to keep holy the Lord's day

J. Thou shall not covet thy neighbor's wife

God's blessings! Father Schuster

The Backpack project for the Food for Friends students at Ben Franklin was very successful! Thank you to those who filled backpacks, purchased supplies, etc. There are about 80 completely filled backpacks which were donations by our parish. Running Start is another program that provides backpacks to each school. However, the backpacks are not totally filled. Through your donations of extra supplies, we can add to these backpacks to complete the supplies for grade levels. Once again, this ministry has been blessed! The school is very grateful for your donations. The students will get off to a great start.

Praise God for the power of prayer and the desire for community. On Monday August 20th, a community holy hour was hosted at Pax Christi Church at 7pm to pray in light of the sexual abuse crisis. Over 115 people came. It was absolutely fantastic and a wonderful time of reflection and prayer. Yet, what is most inspiring is this: the holy hour wasn't organized by the priests (though they definitely helped promote it and obviously put it on). It wasn't organized by the area youth/YA ministers (though they also definitely promoted it). This wasn't organized by any particular parish office or organization (though they, again, promoted it). It happened because Catherine Whitcomb, a young nurse in town and Pax parishioner, decided on Thursday that, in light of the news from Pennsylvania, we needed to pray, and we needed to do so as a community. And rather than waiting to see if someone else did it, she called the priests, contacted the parish, and got the thing set up. And 115 people decided they also thought that prayer was needed. You may ask, what is the point to this? What hope do we have as the Body of Christ in this crisis? If you need something from your Church, you don't have to wait for someone else to do it for you. Go out and get it. Don't be afraid to step forward. Make it happen, because odds are what you need is exactly what a lot of people also need.

New Song Sunday

For this week's New Song Sunday, I would like to introduce you to Marty Haugen's Where Your Treasure Is. This gem can be found in your red hymnals at #647. Sunday School Program. Children must be 3 years old by August 1st and be toilet trained. Class times are Sunday, 8:30 am and 10:00 am. The Children's Ministry program strives to help your child encounter Jesus through the tools of the Catholic faith. This is accomplished by blessing with Holy Water at the start of class; learning Catholic prayers, including the Sign of the Cross; teacher-led children's worship bulletin activity; learning about Saints, Virtues, and Church Holy Days, praise and worship songs with movement and completing activities and crafts in a small group setting. More information, including the Registration forms are in the Gathering Space.

Nursery Program is for children birth to 3 years old. The Nursery is opened on Sundays from 10:00 am until 11:00 am. This is not a drop in center. You must register your child(ren) in order for us to have the staff available to care for the children.

Volunteers Needed for Nursery and Sunday School. If you have a child in either Nursery or Sunday School, the $50 fee is waived. All volunteers over the age of 18 must be Virtus Trained. For anyone interested in volunteering in any ministry at Resurrection and have not taken the Virtus Class, we will have a class here on Wednesday, September 12th at 6:00 pm. You can register on our website, rescathroch.org; on the front page, scroll down to the Virtus icon and click to register.
