LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Are we content and satisfied with the bare minimum and essentials of our faith, or do we desire excellence and proficiency? The Ten Commandments represent the minimum and, if we are honest with ourselves, are pretty easy to keep. The fullness of the Gospel, however, is another story. Truly living as Jesus taught often comes with great self-sacrifice, self-emptying, and possibly leaving the things of this world behind. Are we ready to pursue this kind of life? God wants us to live and love abundantly not superficially. Love asks that we extend ourselves beyond the status quo and the bare minimum and venture into that which is risky, countercultural, and even radical. What we possess can no longer be important. When Jesus laid this out before the rich young man, he went away sad because he had much. When Jesus lays it out before us, how do we react?

Weekly Words from The Rock

The Four Last Things

In the December 17-23, 2017 edition of Our Sunday Visitor (pages 9-12), we learn about the Four Last Things – death, heaven, hell and purgatory. Last week we looked at what the article said pertaining to death. Let us begin today by looking at purgatory and judgment.

On Purgatory – Purgatory is not one of the four last things because, as a preparation for heaven, it is not eternal. Souls who are in purgatory are being purified by God’s mercy so that at the proper time they will be with God in heaven.

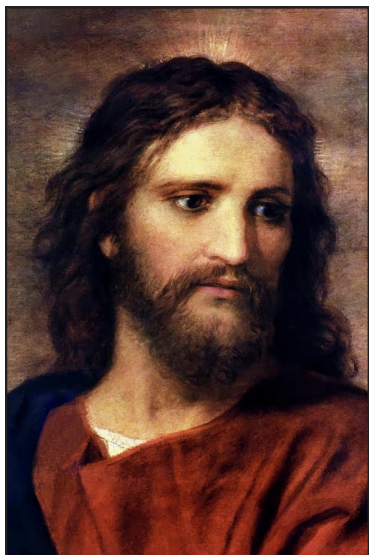

On Judgment – The Church’s teaching on death can have both a comforting and sobering effect. It is comforting to know that life continues, but the fact that one’s time on this earth is limited should bring some weightiness to one’s decisions. But if death fails to do this, then the Church’s teaching on judgment hopefully will (note that the Church uses “man” in the universal sense, meaning “man and woman”): “Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of death, in a particular judgment that refers to his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven – through a purification or immediately, - or immediate and everlasting damnation” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, Paragraph 1022). There will also be a universal (or last) judgment of the entire universe at the end of time.

The basic meaning of the Church’s teaching about judgment is that the choices one makes have value – they can be good or bad. Also, God determines the value of one’s choices and metes out the appropriate reward or punishment. The teaching tends to evoke two dominant feelings in people: fear and satisfaction.

Fear, of course, is not a bad feeling to have if one is living a sinful life; it might even prompt one toward conversion. Fear, in the sense of awe, is appropriate too, for God is able to judge everyone and every act in perfect justice and mercy. Only God knows the depths of each person’s heart; only he knows the advantages and disadvantages a person had; only he knows the full circumstances of every person’s life and every situation. God knows the full truth and will judge accordingly. The only bad kind of fear to have is one that is distrustful of God’s judgment, for how could God mistreat the very people he created and saved out of love?

Satisfaction is the other common feeling many people have regarding God’s judgment, which is good if by “satisfaction” one means a sense of contentment concerning God’s ultimate victory over all evil. A person who is content with God’s judgment is able to work diligently for justice on earth without vindictiveness or impatience, knowing that every good effort made at telling the truth, building solidarity, or righting wrongs cooperates with God’s victory. A “satisfaction” that hungers for revenge is not a good thing, for it reveals a distrust in God’s perfect judgment, which will have the final word (see Romans 12:17-21).

God’s blessings! Father Peter Schuster, Pastor

CEO—Catholic Evangelization Outreach

A new ministry at Resurrection and we want you to be a part of it. CEO Rochester is real people sharing real stories. Changing our world, one witness story at a time.

Join us. Friday, October 26th at 7:00 pm in the church to hear Sheila Pelowski’s story of seeking peace for a restless heart.

Sheila believed “the power of change came from oneself, beliefs that are relative, and the mindset of, ‘if it feels good, it must be good’.” These dangerous beliefs and practices led to a mystical battle for her soul. The reality of angels and demons became apparent which lead to Sheila’s surrender, repentance, and a rediscovery of the truth: Jesus is the source of all strength, our redeemer, and ultimate savior.

There is no charge, no pre-registration and all are welcome. Childcare will be provided. Light refreshments will follow the presentation in the Zenk Hall. Mark your calendar, Friday, October 26th 7:00 pm in the church. See you at the event.

Music and Choral Director & Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

Music Ministry Registration for the 2018-2019 year is officially closed. Thank you to all of our new and returning members! If you missed the deadline and are still interested in participating in Music Ministry, please contact me ASAP. We will put another call out in the New Year for members in all choirs!

For all Eucharistic Ministers who did not attend one of the four training sessions, please be in touch with myself or Erica Stiller as soon as possible so we can arrange an alternate time with you! If you do not do this before the November schedule goes live, you will not find yourself scheduled until you have completed training.

Multiple Ministries We have been going over the guidelines for partaking in multiple liturgical ministries during a single weekend Mass with several groups of the ministers. If you serve in more than one liturgical ministry, this is especially important for you:

1. The norm (the exceptions being laid out below) should be that someone focus on one ministry per Mass.
2. In cases where we are short of ministers, a person can assist in another ministry.
3. It should not be the norm that someone be involved in more than two ministries per Mass.
4. Should it be that someone is scheduled for two ministries in a Mass, this should only be done once per month.

We will do our best to avoid having you scheduled for multiple ministries, but no person or computer is infallible! Use this as a guideline for yourself. Indeed, we are so grateful for the time, talent, and treasure given by each of our parishioners in a variety of capacities.

If you haven't joined a liturgical ministry yet, please consider doing so! I am happy to train anyone as a Eucharistic minister, server, greeter, lector, or usher at any time.

New Song Sunday For this week's New Song Sunday, I'd like to share with you Lead, Kindly Light, by Steven C. Warner. This piece, popularized by the Notre Dame Folk Choir, is a beautiful setting of John Henry Newman's famed poem. Listen to this one for yourself to experience the all-too-relatable text.

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Children's Ministry, dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101

Today children learned what we must do in order to share everlasting life in the kingdom of God. We ask St. Albert the Great to intercede, to go to Jesus with our prayers. We pray, Lord, you see and remember every act of kindness and generosity and store them in your heart. Help me to store up my treasure in heaven, so that I can share everlasting life with you at the end of time. On October 16th we celebrate the life of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque who was devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. St. Margaret Mary Alacoque and St. Albert the Great pray for us. Amen!
Important Dates: No Nursery or Sunday School 10/21.

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108

Grades 1-5: Faith Formation classes for grades 2-5 will meet on Monday, October 15th at 4:30 and 6:00pm. The first graders have parent/child learning centers on being part of God's Family. The learning centers take about an hour to complete and are available 4:00-7:00pm.

First Reconciliation: Parents and children are learning to pray the Act of Contrition, one line at a time, along with the Hail Mary and Our Father prayers. Keep practicing the virtue of forgiveness within your families and holding each other in your prayers.

Virtues in Practice: Our October virtue is studiousness and St. Albert the Great shows us that it means to seek knowledge to grow closer to the Truth. St. Albert was the first person to really observe what was happening in nature, write down what he saw, and explain why it happened. Read from the bible, Daniel 3:74-78. How do these created things "praise the Lord?" How can we show that our true hope is in God when we study science, math, and history? St. Albert the Great, help us to study and learn like you. St. Albert, pray for us. Amen.

News from Ryan, Grades 6-12, Youth Ministry, youth@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 104

If you are interested in taking part in Youth Adoration as a musician, email me at youth@rescathroch.org with your contact information and what instruments you play. We'd love to have you!
