Chapter 11 Bankruptcy – Diocese of Winona-Rochester

Here are some questions and answers regarding the filing for Chapter 11 Bankruptcy of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester.

Question: Will any parishes or schools close due to bankruptcy?

Answer: No. The parishes and parish schools within the diocese are separate legal corporations and are not filing for bankruptcy.

Question: Will our parish face future legal action for past abuse?

Answer: A channeling injunction will be included in the bankruptcy filing which protects all parishes against future claims related to past child sexual abuse by clergy. Any claim or lawsuit filed against a parish as part of the bankruptcy will be resolved in the agreement.

Question: How will survivors be compensated?

Answer: Survivors will be compensated through a combination of insurance, diocesan savings, the sale of diocesan assets and other sources. The amount of compensation for survivors is unknown at this time.

Question: What will the diocese look like after the bankruptcy process?

Answer: There is no way to predict what the reorganization resulting from the bankruptcy process will look like, and it would be inappropriate and non-productive to speculate. However, it is important to remember that our diocese operates within our budget and that may lessen the final impact. Because of the diocesan fiscal management policies, we should not compare ourselves to the paths followed by other dioceses who have filed for bankruptcy.

Question: When will this bankruptcy process be completed?

Answer: We do not know when this process will be completed.

Question: What if a parishioner has a question about their donation to the Catholic Foundation of Southern Minnesota?

Answer: Please contact Monica Herman, Executive Director of the Catholic Foundation of Southern Minnesota, at mherman@catholicfsmn.org or call 507-858-1276.

Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast Proceeds to benefit RCS Tuition Assistance Sunday, February 17th following Sunday Masses

All are invited to attend the Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast to raise funds for The Graham and Meredith Rooke Memorial Scholarship.

The Graham and Meredith Rooke Scholarship supports Rochester Catholic Schools families in grades K-8 who demonstrate a financial need because of an unexpected change in a family's life circumstances.

The scholarship was established in 1998 following the tragic car accident that claimed the lives of two students. Despite their short lives, their impact on those who knew them was remarkable.

Food for Friends Update: Quilts/blankets – these will be distributed on February 14, Valentines Day and it is also I Love to Read month. We will have enough for each child to receive a blanket of love and warmth. A message will be pinned to each blanket letting the children know that they were made by Church of the Resurrection parishioners. All of the blankets will be displayed for the February 14th, 8:30 am Mass, to be blessed for those receiving them. We will continue to accept blankets for this ministry for future needs. 1 ½ yards of the tie fleece blankets make great service projects. Still want to use up your stash of fabric – make a quilt! Thank you for the food shelf donations for Franklin this past month. With last week's cold weather and the children being home for four days, we were able to supplement their food bags with pasta, pasta sauce, peanut butter/jelly, or macaroni and cheese. The children were very grateful. This month's food shelf collection will be soup and crackers.

Ian Callanan in Concert

I am delighted to announce that on Saturday, March 9th, at 2pm, we will be hosting Ian Callanan in concert here at Resurrection.

Ian Callanan is one of Ireland's leading composers of liturgical music. For more than 10 years, Ian has travelled throughout Europe and the United States as a concert performer, workshop speaker, and retreat leader. Ian is well known for his ability to get people excited about being music ministers.

Come join Ian in a concert setting where he will bring you on a musical journey of song and prayer.

This event is free and open to the public. A free will offering will be taken up and fellowship will follow the concert.

I may be a little biased, but Ian is a friend of mine from my time in Ireland and I can guarantee he will provide us with an unforgettable afternoon. Feel free to look him up on YouTube for a taste of what is to come:

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Children's Ministry, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101
Today, Sunday School students heard the gospel about Peter and his friends, James and John, who had been fishing all night without any luck. Jesus told them to sail out again and cast their nets one more time. They caught so many fish their nets were ready to burst. Peter and his friends were so filled with wonder that they fell to their knees. Jesus then said "Do not be afraid; come and follow me." Let us pray: Lord Jesus you called Peter and his friends to follow you, and you have also called each of us. Help us to trust in you, as Peter did, and make our faith grow stronger every day. St. John Bosco, pray for us. Amen.

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108
Grades 1-5: Faith formation classes will meet on Monday, February 11th at 4:30 and 6:00pm. The 3rd graders will be receiving the sacrament of reconciliation during their class times.
Totus Tuus at Resurrection: This summer we will have the Totus Tuus Team from the diocese at Resurrection during the week of July 8-12, 9:00am-2:30pm M-F for children entering 1st-6th grades.
First Communion: If you did not attend the Parent Meeting, I need to meet with you to explain the requirements for your child to receive their First Communion. I also will need a small photo of your child and for you to let me know which Mass time your family would like to choose for First Communion. Please contact me as soon as possible. Thank you!

Virtues in Practice: Our February virtue is cheerfulness, looking on the bright side, and one of our saints is St. John Bosco. As a child, John Bosco gathered other boys his age on Sundays after Mass to tell them Bible stories and do magic tricks, or walk on a tightrope, or juggle for them. When he grew older, John Bosco founded the Salesian Order of priests to help homeless boys have a safe home and learn a trade. He asked the boys to say 3 Hail Marys each night so that the Blessed Mother would keep them away from sin. The boys loved to listen to him and he would organize games for them and make sure they had time to play. He encouraged the boys to be like Jesus in everything they did, whether they were working, praying, studying, or playing. St. John Bosco, pray for us. Amen.

News from Ryan, Grades 6-12, Youth Ministry, youth@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 104

Faith Sharing Leaders: We are looking for parishioners who are willing and able to volunteer their time to be faith sharing leaders for our 9th grade class.
