Weekly Words from The Rock

Safe Haven Sunday

Parishes throughout the Diocese of Winona-Rochester have been asked this weekend to speak on the topic of pornography. To say that pornography is pervasive is an understatement.

Here are some statistics from the packet of information I received.

Studies indicate that:

- 93% of boys and 62% of girls were exposed to pornography before the age of 18.
- 71% of teens have done something to hide what they do online from their parents. This includes cleaning browser history, minimizing a browser when in view, deleting inappropriate videos, lying about behavior, using a phone instead of a computer to browse, blocking parents with social media privacy settings, using private browsing, disabling parental controls, or having email or social media accounts unknown to parents.
- 57% of young people seek out porn once a month.
- 75% said their parents had never discussed Internet pornography with them.
- One in 10 American males view porn daily.
- 68% of men and 18% of women said they used pornography at least once every week. Another 17% of men and another 30% of women said they used pornography 1-2 times per month.
- 56% of divorce involves one party having "an obsessive interest in pornographic websites."

What I find personally frightful is how innocently one can be exposed to pornography. Type in a word with one letter misspelled and pornography is present. It is rampant and open discussions need to take place between parents and children and spouses. Pornography is destroying the very fabric of family, marriages and social interaction within our society.

Along with opening the lines of communication, what can we do spiritually? The packet provides five suggestions.

1. I want every person in this parish to learn how to pray the rosary to invoke Mary in this battle. She brought us her Son who crushed the Serpent's head. Her intercession is powerful. Pray the rosary in your home with your family, individually or as family when you are on the road.

2. Reverent worship is a weapon in the battle and so, in addition to faithful attention at Mass, I ask each of you to sign up for a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration, or to share an hour with your family or friend. Come receive a blessing in the Lord's real presence, and train your eyes to look up to the Holy One in our midst.
3. Men, I encourage you to invoke Saint Joseph in this battle and to ask his intercession. See in him a great companion and example of what it means to be a man of faith, strength and purity in the family.
4. Don't forget the value of reading and praying with Sacred Scripture, taking on practices of fasting and using devotionals like Holy Water and religious medals.
5. Make a regular confession and take the necessary steps to find an accountability partner.
6. Finally, take up the Novena of Mary, Undoer of Knots.

Our battle spiritually is with the evil one. It is the devil who is using pornography to cause division within households and our places of worship. One of the great tools the devil uses is secrecy. Spouses, when you were married, what was the one thing you desired of each other? Keep the lines of communication open because secrets kill. Thus, talk, communicate, and take up the conversation of pornography with your children.

Finally, let us keep each other in prayer.

Pop Quiz

On February 20, 1997, The Catholic Spirit came up with a religious competency test. This test encompasses all articles of the Catholic faith. Here are the questions I posed for you last week and I now provide the answers.

Question 1: The word confirmation means?

Answer: Strengthen/Confirm our Baptism

Question 2: What is the church's term for Jesus' taking on of human flesh? In John's Gospel, "And the word became flesh."

Answer: Incarnation

Here are the questions for the coming week.

Question 1: What is an outline of our faith, almost complete in the year 325 A.D., of what we as Catholics believe? (Hint: We recite it after the homily on almost every Sunday).

Question 2: What Sunday begins the new church year on the church calendar of Sundays?

Good luck with the questions. I'll provide the answers next week along with the next series of questions.

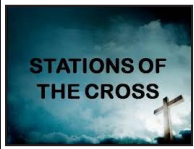

God's blessings! Father Peter Schuster, Pastor

Ministers to Sung Worship: The Choir

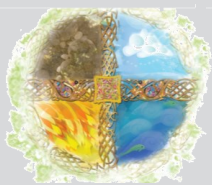

Here is our next segment on "The Choir":

*"The primary ministerial role of the choir is to sing various parts of the Mass in dialogue or in alternation with the rest of the assembly. Some parts of the Mass, like the Kyrie and the Agnus Dei, have the back-and-forth form of a litany, so they work well as this kind of dialogue. Other parts have a call-and-response form, in which the choir intones a line that is repeated by the congregation. The Gospel acclamation works a bit like this. Other parts of the Mass may be sung in various ways—sometimes by the choir alone, sometimes by the whole assembly, sometimes in alternation between the choir (or a cantor) and everyone else. Two long texts may be sung this way: The Gloria may be sung by everyone together, or by the congregation alternately with the choir, or even by the choir alone; and the profession of faith may be sung by all together or alternately between the congregation and the choir. The three major processional chants of the liturgy—the entrance, offertory, and Communion chants—may be sung alternately between the choir and the congregation or even by the choir alone, and the first two (entrance and offertory) may be sung by all together. The place for the choir in the building reflects its ritual function: The official texts say that the choir should be located where it is clearly part of the whole assembly but also where it can best do its assigned tasks."*¹

Were you aware of the choir's role as it is laid out by the Church? What parts do you find yourself singing or not singing at Mass? Why?

If you have any thoughts on these, feel free to email me! Next week, the article will highlight the choir's various musical responsibilities during Mass.

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Children's Ministry, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101

Just as we can recognize an apple tree by the fruit which grows on it, so, too, can people recognize us as Christians by the way we act and the things we say. How can we make sure our lives are filled with God's love and goodness? Jesus comes to each one of us in a very special way when we receive the holy Eucharist. Just as a tree needs to be nourished to produce good fruit, so we need the bread of life to nourish us. Let us pray, Lord Jesus, may people see the fruits of your love and goodness of our hearts in the way we treat other people. St. Theresa of Avila help us to grow in the virtue of temperance, to help us enjoy things in a proper and balanced manner. St. Theresa of Avila, pray for us. Amen.

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108

Grades 1-5: We will not have Faith Formation classes on Monday, March 4th for the children in grades 1, 3, 4, and 5 due to the amount of space required for the First Communion learning centers. Remember to bring the family to Ash Wednesday Mass at 7:00pm to kick-off the Lenten season.

Totus Tuus at Resurrection: For children entering 1st-6th grades this summer, Totus Tuus will be the week of July 8-12, 9:00am-2:30pm M-F. Registration forms are in the Gathering Space and on our website.

First Communion: Parent/child Learning Centers for children preparing for their First Communion is on Monday, March 4th. Centers will be open 4:00-7:00pm in Fr. Zenk Hall and will take about an hour to complete.

Please bring your child's completed workbook and a small photo of your child if you haven't turned one in yet.

Virtues in Practice: For the month of March, we will practice the virtue of temperance, which means having a healthy amount of something good. We can look to the life of St. Teresa of Avila to show us temperance. St. Teresa sometimes had trouble with self-control, especially with the amount of time she spent reading and talking to friends. As she grew closer to God, she learned to give the right amount of time to Him and to others. When she joined the Carmelite nuns, they had forgotten their rules about how much time they should be in silence so that they could talk to God. She helped them to take time for silence and prayer and to take time to play and have fun together. St. Teresa of Avila, pray for us. Amen.
