Weekly Words from The Rock

Pastoral Answer

Question: Jesus says in Matthew 12:40 that he will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. But in fact, he was only two nights in the tomb. Can you shed some light on this passage?

Answer: The answer lies in several factors. The first is that in the ancient world where modern clocks and calendars were not the daily fare, references to time were understood more generally and less specifically.

Even today, if I say, "I was in the city for three days," I do not thereby mean exactly 72 hours. I mean that I was there for a good part of three days. I may have arrived at some point on a Friday, been there on Saturday and left at some point Sunday. So, it is not exactly three days, but "three days" captures the gist of it. The ancients spoke like this, perhaps more frequently, but we do as well.

As to the question of "three nights," it is important to recall that, for the Jewish people of Jesus' time, a day began at sundown, whereas we more often reckon sunrise as the start of the day. Thus, for the ancients, "Friday" began on what we call "Thursday" at sundown. We still maintain this notion with Church feasts and Sundays. Thus, in liturgy, "Sunday" actually begins Saturday after 4 p.m. Solemn feasts of the Church also have vigil Masses that are able to be celebrated the evening before.

This provides something of a background for the fact that in the ancient Jewish way of speaking "three days and three nights" is just another way of saying what we modern people mean when we say, "three days." Thus, although Jesus was placed in the tomb sometime after 3 p.m. on Friday, that Fri-"day" had actually begun with a night. Satur-"day" had begun with its night on the sundown of Friday. Sun-"day" had begun with its night on the sundown of Saturday. So, it is possible to reckon three nights along with the three days.

But all this insistence on exactitude bespeaks a certain modern impatience that is inappropriate. The modern, Western mind controls by measuring.

Precision is a bit of preoccupation with us, but one that misses the fact that people don't always speak with exactitude or mean things precisely. "Three days and three nights" is simply a mode of speech, a way of speaking of a period of about three days, not 72 hours exactly.

Pop Quiz

On February 20, 1997, The Catholic Spirit came up with a religious competency test. This test encompasses all articles of the Catholic faith. Here are the questions I posed for you last week and I now provide the answers.

Question 1: What is an outline of our faith, almost complete in the year 325 A.D., of what we as Catholics believe? (Hint: We recite it after the homily on almost every Sunday).

Answer: Creed/Nicene Creed

Question 2: What Sunday begins the new church year on the church calendar of Sundays?

Answer: First Sunday of Advent

Here are the questions for the coming week.

Question 1: What is the most important Sunday of the church year? In fact every Sunday is a mini-celebration of this highest of church feasts.

Question 2: The day the Holy Spirit comes down upon the apostles and becomes the special healer and strengthener of Christ's church is called ____.

Good luck with the questions. I'll provide the answers next week along with the next series of questions.

The speaker for the evening is Susan Windley-Daoust, our diocese's Director of Missionary Discipleship. She was working on a doctorate in Theology at a major university when she woke up one day with complete hearing loss in one ear and a diagnosis that the other ear was likely to fail soon. She could not read herself out of this trial. Guess who showed up? The Holy Spirit. Come listen to her story of the healing of her body and soul that she never expected.

Ministers to Sung Worship: The Choir

Here is our final segment on "The Choir":

"Whether singing with the rest of the assembly, in alternation, or alone, the choir's role is always understood in relation to the full, conscious, and active participation of the faithful. When it is not singing its own special repertoire, the choir joins the song of the whole assembly, supporting the congregation and adding beauty and variety to the singing by harmonies and descants. To perform their liturgical task, choirs need plenty of rehearsal, for it is only when the music is well prepared that the choir can really support the singing of the whole assembly. Thorough preparation is also needed if choral singing is to express the mystery of God through beauty and if it is to foster the dignity of the celebration. The participation of the assembly receives an enormous boost if a parish has a good liturgical choir, but the role of the choir is always ministerial, serving the action of the liturgy and fostering the participation of those who have gathered."<sup>1</sup>

Do you attend a Mass that has a regular choir at it? How do you find it enhances – or does not enhance – your experience at Mass?

If there wasn't a rehearsal requirement, would you be more likely to join the choir? What do you think about NPM's idea that, "Choirs need plenty of rehearsal," and "Thorough preparation is...needed"? Can you tell the difference when we have a full choir versus just a cantor?

I would be eager to hear your thoughts on this as I begin preparations for the fall. (Yes, in March. I like to plan ahead!) While our ultimate goal is for a fully conscious and actively participating assembly, the choir is clearly a significant factor in that.

I hope you've enjoyed this article over the last several weeks! As always, let me know your thoughts on anything you read in it.

An Invitation to Serve Resurrection's Conference Needs Your Help

Are you looking for ways to experience God? Members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul invite you to share in their ministry of experiencing God in serving people living in poverty. We see Christ in the poor because Jesus told us "whatever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters you do for me."

You may be asking, just what do the members of SVdP do for the poor? We are a unique ministry because we meet with our friends in need at their homes and determine how we can help them. We have helped a single mom with car repairs so that she can get her children to school and she can get to her job. We have helped many families stay in their homes with a rent payment when they have run into hard times.

At Masses, the weekend of March 30/31 we will share the spirituality and works of our St. Vincent de Paul Conference. Members of our Conference will be available in the Gathering Space to talk to you after all Masses. In addition, an informational meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 2 at 7:00PM in Room C at church. We invite you to come and learn more about our rewarding ministry.

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Children's Ministry, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101

The season of Lent began on Ash Wednesday. We remember the forty days which Jesus spent fasting and praying in the desert. We are called to turn away from our selfishness and to grow closer to God's love.

Let us pray: Lord Jesus, you never gave up, even when you found it most difficult. During the six weeks of Lent, help us to be strong and to keep our promises as a sign of our love for you. St. Teresa of Avila pray for us. Amen.

Check out a beautiful Lenten video and song that can lead us into deeper contemplation of what Jesus experienced in the desert. You can google: Lent Cartoon and click on videos. I like the one by Dan Lee and showed this to our Sunday School students. An image and link below is in my shout-out to assist you.

Grades 1-5: We have Faith Formation classes on Monday, March 11th at 4:30 and 6:00pm. The 2nd graders will have the opportunity to receive the sacrament of reconciliation during their regular class time. Parents can look for a new schedule for the end of the year events that will be sent home with each child.

Totus Tuus at Resurrection: For children entering 1st-6th grades this summer, Totus Tuus will be the week of July 8-12, 9:00am-2:30pm M-F. Registration forms are in the Gathering Space and on our website.

First Communion: Parents are practicing the steps to receive communion with their children. Another way to prepare our hearts to receive the Eucharist is to bring the gifts forward during Mass. Ask one of the ushers if your family can fill this ministry at the Mass you are attending.

Virtues in Practice: Temperance is our March virtue and we are looking at the life of St. Teresa of Avila. Once when St. Teresa was helping a convent, the first thing she did was get the sisters more food to eat. They did not have enough to be healthy and couldn't focus on praying. Temperance means doing things in moderation. When the sisters were temperate, they were happier and holier than before! Having enough food meant that they were able to be healthy and serve Jesus with greater strength. When they started giving more time to prayer, their time for play became even more fun. St. Teresa would lead the sisters in joyful times together, and even played guitar and taught them Spanish dances. St. Teresa of Avila, pray for us. Amen.

All youth of the parish entering or leaving High School are welcome to join with their peers to attend the conference which will feature music, prayer and speakers including Jason Evert! Registration is $190. Email Ryan Van Dyke for a registration form that can be returned in the church donation basket or put into the mail slot by the office door.

March 17th The Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast, with the help of Catholic United Financial, will be for the benefit of the Faith Formation Scholarship fund. Proceeds and donations from the breakfast will go towards helping students attend events such as Camp Summit and Steubenville.
