Lenten Pastoral Answers

Question: Lent prepares us for the suffering and death of Jesus due to our sins. With that, do the souls in heaven know our sins, or is that knowledge reserved to God alone?

Answer: We are in the realm of speculative theology when it comes to questions like this. However, it does not seem to pertain to God's justice that he would reveal our sins to others (even the saints in heaven), especially our more hidden sins. We are not to reveal to others the sins of people we might know, except in certain rare situations. Only those who really need to know for a just reason should be informed. So in justice, it seems unlikely that God would reveal the details of our sins, even to the saints in heaven, since they do not need to know such things.

Some will refer to Hebrews 12:1, which refers to the saints in heaven as a "great cloud of witnesses." But the context there is that they are witnesses to us of their life and the power of faith to transform, not that they are watching us like spectators.

There is another text that says, "For there is nothing hidden that will not become visible, and nothing secret that will not be known and come to light" (Luke 8:17). But here, the context is not our hidden deeds but the truth of the Gospel that comes out of the darkness to dawn on the minds of believers.

There are other verses that seek to console us in our oppression. For example, "Therefore do not be afraid of them. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known" (Matthew 10:26). But here, the context is that unrepented sins will one day be revealed, not that a camera is running and the saints in heaven are seeing it as it happens now. Saints know our expressed needs and intercede for us (Revelation 5:8; 8:3-4) but that does not mean detailed knowledge of our immediate actions.

If there is a detailed revealing of sins committed, that would seem to wait for the Last Judgment. St. Paul says, "do not make any judgment before the appointed time, until the Lord comes, for he will bring to light what is hidden in darkness (1 Corinthians 4:5). How detailed this revelation will be is not certain, but the distinction between the just and unjust will be clear. The Lord implies that significant detail will be revealed at the last judgement: "Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light" (Luke 12:3).

Pop Quiz

On February 20, 1997, The Catholic Spirit came up with a religious competency test. This test encompasses all articles of the Catholic faith. Here are the questions I posed for you last week and I now provide the answers.

Question 1: What should be each and everyone's ultimate goal throughout their life?

Answer: Get to Heaven

Question 2: What do we call the day Christ died?

Answer: Good Friday

Question 3: What do we call the day when Christ celebrated the Last Supper with his disciples?

Answer: Holy Thursday

Question 4: What do we call the day when Christ rose from the dead?

Answer: Easter Sunday

Here is the question for the coming week.

Question: When we say the church is apostolic (in the Creed we state the church is one, holy, catholic and apostolic), we affirm:

- A. That Christ founded the church on the apostles
- B. The apostles received from Christ the authority to continue Christ's mission
- C. The apostles passed on to their successors the authority to continue Christ's mission
- D. All of the above

Good luck with the question. I'll provide the answer next week along with the next series of questions.

God's blessings! Father Schuster, Pastor

Lenten Almsgiving 2019 Week Food for Friends

The Food for Friends food program partners with Channel One to provide weekend food assistance for Ben Franklin students in need. Resurrection also collects a food item on a monthly basis to help with food shelf at Franklin. The key needs for the Food for Friends are:

Monetary Donations: your financial contributions would help us to purchase needed items such as tennis shoes, winter boots, winter coats, snow pants, groceries and necessities when the needs rise. Through past donations, we have not needed to ask anyone to purchase winter wear, boots or tennis shoes personally. Your contributions during Almsgiving carry us through the year.

Food Pantry Items: we will continue to collect a designated food item each month. Month of April we will be collecting Peanut Butter and Jelly in plastic jars; no glass jars please.

Quilts/Blankets: We would like to continue to accept quilts and/or 2 yard in length fleece blankets. We have ministries that will gladly accept donations; Family Promise, Dorothy Day House, Food for Friends. No timeline. Just keep these ministries in your prayers for those in need. The fleece tie blankets would make a great group community service project.

New or gently used children winter coats, snow pants, winter boots and warm outdoor gloves, Personal hygiene products – shampoo, conditioner, tooth brushes, toothpaste, hand soap, wash clothes, brush or comb, etc., boys and girls sweat pants, socks, underwear – all sizes.

School Supplies and backpacks: The plan is to once again fill backpacks with school supplies in August. This project has made a huge impact on the students getting off to a great start to a new school year. Please pray for the success of this project.

Cookie Saturday/Donut Sunday following all weekend Masses. Stop in Zenk Hall for fellowship.

Stations of the Cross/Soup Supper Friday, April 12th will be hosted by members of the Parish Council.

Stations begin in the church at 6:00 pm; followed by soup supper in the North Hall. All are welcome.

Musings from Joy

Music and Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

This week we will explore Part III of our NPM article, “Come and See...and Hear...and Sing.” Remember from last week, it considered the “invitation” to participation:

“We offer that invitation especially through song, for, as the General Instruction of the Roman Missal reminds us, ‘singing is the sign of the heart’s joy...Thus St. Augustine says rightly, ‘Singing is for one who loves.’ There is also the ancient proverb: ‘One who sings well prays twice’” (GIRM, 39). Whatever music we use and songs we sing should express our deep commitment to the faith we share and to our belief in God’s presence when we gather to worship. We have a whole treasury of music to use in crafting the song of our worship in ways that will allow us to express our faith, share it with others, and give glory to God. The foundation stone on which all music for worship is built is chant, of course. Chanting a text elevates it from ordinary speech, calls attention to what is being said in the text, and highlights things we might otherwise have missed. Chant is a part of all societies and comes in many forms (one form in the United States includes certain kinds of rap). The Church has taken the chanting that existed in Israel and the Hellenic world at the time of the first Christians and built it up over the centuries, refining it and elaborating it even while keeping the simple, basic chants alive. That’s why there is a body of ‘plainchant’ that we can use in dialogues at Mass and that the priest or deacon uses to chant some of the prayer texts, and there is another body of chant that belongs to choirs. On these basic foundation stones each generation and each culture has added its own layer of musical gifts. Some gifts have endured, others have passed away when they were no longer useful, and some are being added right now.”

Indeed, the incredible treasury of plainchant is the Church’s #1 choice for music in its liturgies. What do you think of chant music? Have you ever listened to “Gregorian chant”? What about the music in Masses at Resurrection that is chanted? (Certain priestly dialogues, some Responsorial Psalms, and even the Gospel Acclamation verses?) Do you find you are listening more intently when chant is used? Moreover, what is a musical style that you have witnessed in your own life that you wish would find its way in – or out – of our liturgies? Plenty to consider this week!

Next week we will take a look at the conclusion of this article and wrap up the discussion on young people, participation, and music.

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Children's Ministry, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101
FUSION MOVIE NIGHT: Friday, April 26th. 6:00pm. All families are welcome.
Sunday School resumed today. Children listened to the story about Jesus forgiving a woman. Jewish laws were very strict and everyone was expected to obey them. Those who did not were punished. Jesus showed mercy to a woman without disobeying the law. Let us pray, Merciful Jesus, help us to be understanding and forgiving and to remember that we all make mistakes sometimes. Mother Mary, pray for us. Amen.

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108
Grades 1-5: It's time to celebrate our faith formation year! We'll have a PIZZA PARTY on Monday, April 8th during both the 4:30 and 6:00pm class times. Each child is asked to bring $3 and a beverage with them on Monday night. We have had a wonderful year of faith formation on Monday evenings. Thank you to all the parents and grandparents that walked with the children on their journey.
Thank you to our brilliant catechists who served our children and families in grades 1-5: Michel Benz, Kristin Cerda, Van Dang, Margaret Frank, Lynn Ladin, Chris Miksanek, Heidi Miksanek, Karen Reopelle, Theresa Root, Jean Roth, Caroline Ryno, Emily Spaulding, and Stephanie Viker.

Totus Tuus at Resurrection: For children entering 1st-6th grades this summer, Totus Tuus will be the week of July 8-12, 9:00am-2:30pm Monday-Friday. Registration forms are in the Gathering Space and on our website.

First Communion: We will have two practices for First Communion children and one parent/adult. The first practice is on Monday, April 15th at 6:30pm in the Church. The second practice is a dress rehearsal/photo session on Monday, April 29th at 6:30pm in the Church.

Virtues in Practice: Our virtue for April is obedience and we look to Our Lady as our model. Even as a little girl, the Blessed Virgin Mary prayed a lot and loved God. She knew that when she obeyed her parents, this was pleasing to God. When God sent His angel to ask Mary to be the Mother of Jesus, her heart was open to say "yes." During her whole life, Mary always wanted to do what God wanted. Even when Jesus suffered on the cross, Mary said "yes," to God's will. Now she is the Queen of Heaven and Mother of all of us. Our Lady, pray for us! Amen.

News from Ryan, Grades 6-12, Youth Ministry, youth@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 104
Steubenville Youth Conference Registration for Steubenville has begun! All youth of the parish entering or leaving High School are welcome to join with their peers to attend the conference which will feature music, prayer and speakers including Jason Evert! Registration is $190. Email Ryan Van Dyke for a registration form that can be returned in the church donation basket or put into the mail slot by the office door. Please see Ryan if your family is interested in a scholarship.

On Saturday, April 13th from 5:30-9:00 pm, Resurrection parish will be hosting UNITE Mass. All youth of the parish are invited to join with youth from around Rochester for a night of faith and fellowship. The night will start with Praise, followed by worship music, a pizza dinner, a speaker, adoration and Mass. This month's speaker will be Neal Abbott with a talk titled "Hope is Dope." We look forward to seeing everyone and joining with what promises to be a fun and faith filled night!
