Scripture in the Mass

When it comes to much of our Mass, it is stunning to realize how much of what we say comes from the pages of the Holy Bible. I would like to take a couple of weeks to provide the words from our Mass and the verses where they are found in Sacred Scripture. As I did, I would recommend that you open your Bible and study these verses.

Introductory Rite:

In the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. See Matthew 28:19

Amen. See 1 Chronicles 16:36

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. See 2 Corinthians 13:13

The Lord be with you. See Ruth 2:4

Penitential Rite:

I confess to Almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have sinned through my own fault. See James 5:16

In my thoughts and in my words. See Romans 12:16; James 3:6

In what I have done, and in what I have failed to do. See James 4:17

And I ask Blessed Mary, ever virgin, all the angels and saints, and you my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. See 1 Thessalonians 5:25

May Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. See 1 John 1:9

Amen. See 1 Chronicles 16:36

Lord have mercy. See Tobit 8:4

Christ have mercy. See 1 Timothy 1:2

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to His people on earth. See Luke 2:14

Lord God, heavenly King, Almighty God and Father. See Revelation 19:6

We worship you. See Revelation 22:19

We give you thanks. See Ephesians 5:20

We praise you for your Glory. See Revelation 7:12

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father. See John 1:14

Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us. See John 1:29

You are seated at the right hand of the Father, receive our prayer. See Romans 8:34

For you alone are the Holy One. See Luke 4:34

You alone are the Lord. See Revelation 15:4

You alone are the most high, Jesus Christ. See Luke 1:32

With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. See John 14:26

Amen. See 1 Chronicles 16:36

We will continue our study next week beginning with the Profession of Faith.

Steubenville Rochester is in desperate need of volunteers to help our conference be successful, to truly be Our Lord's hands and feet for our young adults attending the conference. The only requirement is anyone 18 years and older must be Virtus trained. To register as a volunteer, learn more and apply online at www.partnershipforyouth.org/volunteer. Use your unique talents to support our young adults and a variety of conference activities. We're flexible. Volunteer for a partial or full weekend. Any questions regarding this need, email Carrie Simeon at 651-260-7712 or coch4435@gmail.com or Theresa Peters 507-269-6700.

Church of the Resurrection will be welcoming a missionary priest here the weekend of July 13th/14th from Divine World Missionaries. They are a religious community of missionary priests and brothers serving in over 80 countries around the world. They are met with challenges of poverty, hunger, illness and natural disasters with hearts full of love and compassion as well as tangible solutions so that people in need have food, shelter and medical care. They foster vibrant Catholic communities of faith and service while empowering people to live a life of quality and dignity. Your prayers and support gives them strength to continue their work.

Music & Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

For the next several weeks, I will be walking you through a National Association of Pastoral Musicians (NPM) article titled: “How Firm a Foundation: Basic Principles of the Liturgy.”

As I am sure many of the Liturgy Committee members would tell you, although we attend an experience liturgy on at least a weekly basis, we often do not have a solid understanding of what all the liturgy encompasses! My hope is that this article will give us that “firm foundation” to continue growing in positive experiences of liturgy.

“In calling for ‘the reform and promotion of the sacred liturgy,’ in its Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy Sacrosanctum Concilium (SC) more than forty years ago, the Second Vatican Council identified some basic principles that should guide that reform. The bishops drew on the whole history of the liturgy as well as teachings of recent popes—particularly Pope St. Pius X and Pope Pius XII—and research undertaken during the twentieth century liturgical renewal. Here are five of those principles that provide a firm foundation for our rites and our pastoral liturgical practice today...”¹

Those five principles are: 1. The Liturgy Is the Action of Christ; 2. The Liturgy Leads Us to Authentic Gospel Living; 3. Full Participation in the Divine Plan Stems from and Leads to Full Participation in the Liturgy; 4. The Church Is One Body with Many Ministries; and 5. Music Is an Integral Part of the Solemn Liturgy. Next week, we will read through NPM’s thoughts on the first two principles.
