Weekly Words from The Rock

Last week, I provided ten statements focusing on quotes from Jesus Christ. In providing various quotes, I left a word/words missing. Your work was to figure out which word/words were missing. To help, I provided the Scripture passage where the quote is found. Let us see how you did focusing on the Bread of Life discourse (John 6).

1. John 6:53: Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you _____ the flesh of the Son of Man and _____ his blood, you do not have life within you. Answer: eat, drink
2. John 6:54: Whoever _____ my flesh and _____ my blood has eternal life, and I will _____ him on the last day. Answer: eats, drinks, raise
3. John 6:55: For my flesh is _____ food, and my blood is _____ drink. Answer: true, true
4. John 6:56: Whoever _____ my flesh and _____ my blood _____ in me and I in him." Answer: eats, drinks, remains
5. John 6:60: Then many of his disciples who were listening said, "This saying is _____; who can accept it?" Answer: hard
6. John 6:63: The words I (Jesus) have spoken to you are _____ and _____. Answer: spirit, life
7. John 6:64: But there are some of you who do not _____. Answer: believe
8. John 6:66: As a result of this, many of his disciples _____ to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him. Answer: returned
9. John 6:67: Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to _____?" Answer: leave
10. John 6:68-69: Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of _____. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the _____ of God." Answer: eternal life, Holy One

Stations of the Cross

Just a little history on my thoughts of the current Stations of the Cross in the church proper (not the Adoration chapel). The first time I saw the stations I could not determine which was the first station. With time, I guessed it to be by the Adoration chapel. Even so, I wasn't certain. A cross with two scales? Is this to depict Jesus being condemned to death? For me, as in the case of the first station, many of the stations are difficult to comprehend. Take the twelfth and thirteenth station. The twelfth station is the crucifixion. The current set of stations is represented by a simple cross. It shows no body of Jesus. The thirteenth station is the body of Jesus being taken down from the cross. We currently have the thirteenth station depicted by a piece of the cross removed and laid at the base of the cross. The body of Jesus is not present.

In light of this, I have had visitors to our parish wonder about the stations. As well as I explain, they seem confused.

What I would like to do is purchase a new set of Stations of the Cross with images of each scene leaving no confusion as to what each station depicts. This would leave the location of the first station evidently clear. They could remain where they are presently found or, depending upon size, placed in another location (such as the back wall of the church).

Issues, such as this, are sensitive and I want to respect people's thoughts and feelings. I want to respect anyone who may have donated the current set of Stations of the Cross which adorn our walls. What I would like to do is provide people the opportunity for feedback over the course of the next month. With such feedback, a decision can be made as to how to proceed. You can email your thoughts to me at frschuster@rescathroch.org.

Finally, the current set of stations, if they are replaced, would be respected in a way consistent with their dignity.

Thanks for any input.

God's blessings! Father Peter Schuster, Pastor

Musical Musings from Joy

Music & Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

For the next several weeks, I am going to share with you an article from the National Association of Pastoral Musicians titled, "Many Churches, One Church."

"Back in the fourth century, St. Augustine of Hippo wrote to a friend who had a question about local church customs. Augustine passed along some advice he had learned from St. Ambrose, bishop of Milan. Explaining for Augustine and his mother the differences between ritual practices in Milan and Rome, Ambrose observed that he could not teach them 'anything but what he himself practiced, because if he knew any better rule, he would observe it himself.' Ambrose said: 'When I visit Rome, I fast on Saturday; when I am here, I do not fast. On the same principle, observe the custom prevailing in whatever church you come to, if you would avoid either giving or receiving offense' (Augustine, Letter 54).

No one would ever accuse Ambrose or Augustine of attacking Church unity or of not showing proper respect for the Church of Rome and its liturgical practices, but this story does point out how 'diversity in unity' has been part of Church practice for a long, long time."1

Contrary to popular belief, the individual churches of the greater Church did not start expressing their individuality solely with Vatican II. Next week, the article will explore a couple of ways that this diversity struggles to show itself in a unified Church.

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x108

Grades 1-5: We will not have classes on President's Day, February 17th. Signs of Catholic Life Learning Centers are February 24th. No classes on Monday, March 2nd when the First Communion children have learning centers.

SIGNS of Catholic Life: On Monday, February 24th children and families will be participating in learning centers. In preparation of Lent, families will have this unique experience for children and adults to learn about some of the things that make us Catholic. If you ever wanted to know about holy water, holy oils, candles, Lenten practices, relics, icons, adoration, sacramentals, kneeling, and genuflecting, you are invited to join us and discover why we do the things we do. Centers will open 4:00-7:00pm in Fr. Zenk Hall.

First Communion: Parents and children will have First Communion Learning Centers on Monday, March 2nd anytime 4:00-7:00pm in Fr. Zenk Hall. This week, families will be working on chapter 4 in their Eucharist workbook. If you have not given me a photo to use on our chalice display, please e-mail me a photo of your child or bring one to office. Thank you!

Virtues in Practice: Prudence is our February virtue and it means making good decisions in specific circumstances. Children in grades 3-5 are learning about St. John Neumann. John felt called to be a priest, but there were too many priests in his native Bohemia. He decided to go to America, where the people had a great need for more priests. He was ordained shortly after he arrived and began serving the people in rural areas of New York and New Jersey. He joined the Redemptorist Order in 1840 and was ordained bishop of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1852. St. John Neumann, pray for us.

News from Sheila, Birth-KG; Grades 6-12, Children and Youth Ministry, RCIA dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528, x 101

Sunday School News: No Sunday School Sunday, February 15th.

Open Door (grades 6-10 Faith Formation): There is no class on Wednesday, February 26th for Ash Wednesday.

Our Sunday School and Faith Formation families braved "Snowstorm 2020" on Sunday, February 9th by participating in Operation Hometown Gratitude. 101 boxes were assembled and prepared for shipment to our deployed military men and women. Thank you to Karen Reopelle, Resurrections's coordinator, Gary Komaniecki, adult advisor with the Rochester Public School and the 77 parishioners for volunteering your time!
