Questions

Question: Did the apostles leave their wives and families? Since they left their jobs, how did they have any financial support?

Answer: Not all of these things are known to us. However, we ought to shed a simplistic notion that Jesus wandered about with just the Twelve Apostles. Rather, a larger group of disciples also accompanied the apostolic band.

This may have included some of the family members of the apostles. St. Luke describes the apostolic journeys as follows: "Jesus traveled from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. Accompanying him were the Twelve and some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna, the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their resources" (Luke 8:1-3).

Thus we have a kind of entourage, more than a lonely band of 13 men. We do not know how many of the apostles were married at the time. But it is possible that their wives were in the group. As for support, it would seem that some of the wealthier women in the entourage assisted in underwriting the costs. Other costs may have been covered by grateful townsfolk who experienced healing and preaching.

Pop Quiz

On February 20, 1997, The Catholic Spirit came up with a religious competency test. This test encompasses all articles of the Catholic faith. Here is the question I posed for you last week and I now provide the answer.

Answer: C. The Mass

Here is the question for the coming week.

Question: God revealed his law to his people through Moses to whom he gave the:

- A. Eight Beatitudes
- B. Ten Commandments
- C. Seven Sacraments
- D. Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Good luck with the question. I'll provide the answer next week along with the next series of questions.

Musical Musings from Joy

Music & Choral Director
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

A New Commandment... Jesus left us with a difficult concept this week: "Love one another, as I have loved you." Sure, on the surface it may be easy to just say, "I love you" to someone and call it a day. But, the second half of the phrase is what may be harder to adapt to. How could we ever learn to love like Jesus? Jesus IS love. That true, all-powerful agape love that cannot be defined.

Well, we can certainly give it the good ol' college try. There are so many great liturgical music pieces that have explored this topic. Which one resonates with you?

Christians, Let Us Love One Another (PICARDY; Foltz/Nigro); Gift of Finest Wheat (BICENTENNIAL; Westendorf); They'll Know We Are Christians (ST. BRENDAN'S; Scholtes); We Have Been Told (Haas); Where Charity and Love Prevail (CHRISTIAN LOVE; Ubi Caritas)

So, which one is it? What do the other parts of the texts/lyrics tell us about love? How do these songs inspire you to love more like Jesus? As always, I would love to know your thoughts!

Here's a link to another "love" song, this weekend's Communion Hymn, I Will Be the Vine, by Liam Lawton:

If you are interested in giving the Music Ministry a free "try," mark your calendars for the weekend of June 15/16, when we will be having our first "OPEN SING" of the summer season. No rehearsal required – simply come on up to the choir and join us in singing at Mass!

Our next CEO Rochester Event is on Wednesday, June 12th at 7:00pm. Catholic Evangelization Outreach is real people sharing real stories about our faith. Our witness speaker will be Allyson Harris and she will talk about how she went from an atheist college athlete to a Catholic missionary. Playing college basketball and pursuing a pre-med degree, Allyson Harris moved through college with everything she thought would make her happy and God being nowhere in that picture. In her pursuit of a successful life, happiness, and love, Allyson came to the recognition that it was actually her who was being pursued, by Love Himself. She encountered the Person of Jesus first through a roommate and teammate, then in the beauty of the Church and her tradition, and finally in the Eucharist. In being found, Allyson finally found her life's calling - to belong fully to Him who alone fulfills, and to make Him known to others. Allyson is currently part of Campus Missionary at University of North Dakota and FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students). Light refreshments will follow Allyson's story. Childcare will be provided. No cost, no registration, and all are welcome.
