Weekly Words from The Rock

Chapter 11 Bankruptcy - Diocese of Winona-Rochester

I had this section in my bulletin column of last week and would like to keep it for this week. Here are some questions and answers regarding the filing for Chapter 11 Bankruptcy of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester.

Question: Will any parishes or schools close due to bankruptcy?

Answer: No. The parishes and parish schools within the diocese are separate legal corporations and are not filing for bankruptcy.

Question: Will our parish face future legal action for past abuse?

Answer: A channeling injunction will be included in the bankruptcy filing which protects all parishes against future claims related to past child sexual abuse by clergy. Any claim or lawsuit filed against a parish as part of the bankruptcy will be resolved in the agreement.

Question: How will survivors be compensated?

Answer: Survivors will be compensated through a combination of insurance, diocesan savings, the sale of diocesan assets and other sources. The amount of compensation for survivors is unknown at this time.

Question: What will the diocese look like after the bankruptcy process?

Answer: There is no way to predict what the reorganization resulting from the bankruptcy process will look like, and it would be inappropriate and non-productive to speculate. However, it is important to remember that our diocese operates within our budget and that may lessen the final impact. Because of the diocesan fiscal management policies, we should not compare ourselves to the paths followed by other dioceses who have filed for bankruptcy.

Question: When will this bankruptcy process be completed?

Answer: We do not know when this process will be completed.

Question: What if a parishioner has a question about their donation to the Catholic Foundation of Southern Minnesota?

Answer: Please contact Monica Herman, Executive Director of the Catholic Foundation of Southern Minnesota, at mherman@catholicismn.org or call her at 507-858-1276.

Pop Quiz

On February 20, 1997, The Catholic Spirit came up with a religious competency test. This test encompasses all articles of the Catholic faith. Here are the questions I posed for you last week and I now provide the answers.

Question 1: Who created all that exists?

Answer: God

Question 2: Jesus came into the world to save us from our _____.

Answer: Sins

Question 3: On the third day after his death, Christ _____.

Answer: Rose from the dead

Here are the questions for the coming week.

Question 1: Mary at the end of her life on earth was granted the great privilege of being taken into heaven both _____ and _____.

Question 2: What group of men today have inherited the power of the apostles for the church today?

Question 3: Who instituted/began all of the sacraments that we have today?

Good luck with the questions. I'll provide the answers next week along with the next series of questions.

Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast Proceeds to benefit RCS Tuition Assistance following Sunday Masses. All are invited to attend the Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast to raise funds for The Graham and Meredith Rooke Memorial Scholarship. The Graham and Meredith Rooke Scholarship supports Rochester Catholic Schools families in grades K-8 who demonstrate a financial need because of an unexpected change in a family's life circumstances. The scholarship was established in 1998 following the tragic car accident that claimed the lives of two students. Despite their short lives, their impact on those who knew them was remarkable.

ADULT ONLINE OPPORTUNITY – Registration Free

Bishop Robert Barron and the Word on Fire Institute presents an online opportunity entitled Evangelizing the Unaffiliated, February 19 -21st. Hear from thirteen of the leading experts in scripture, theology, philosophy, spirituality, history, science and literature. Among the topics to be presented are: Strategies and struggles when evangelizing; Why community has such a vital role; How to understand and explain many common misconceptions of Scripture among the unaffiliated; How to dispel myths of the Catholic Church; How to discuss meaning in life with a nonbeliever; How to discuss the relationship between science and faith. Each day four new, exclusive, online video interviews will be released. You can watch them on your own schedule from Feb. 19th to 21st.

There is no charge but you must register online to get your free pass at <https://wordonfire.institute/summit2019/#Video>. And you must watch the videos before Feb. 21st

As the Bishop has shared at the onset of the Chapter 11 Bankruptcy process, the Diocese is collaborating with the bankruptcy court and attorneys for the survivors of sexual abuse to bring compensation, healing and justice to these survivors.

It is vital throughout the process to continue to share with you important deadlines and details. The claim filing dateline in the bankruptcy case is April 8th, 2019.

We encourage anyone who thinks they may have a claim to file a Proof of Claim with the bankruptcy court before the deadline passes. Proof of claim forms for survivors of sexual abuse are available on the Diocese's website at www.dowr.org.

We understand the difficult nature of this issue and remind everyone claims may be filed confidentially. Please share this information with family members to ensure everyone has ample notice of the process.

The day to day operations of our Diocese, including administration, Catholic schools, parishes, Catholic cemeteries, Catholic Charities and the seminary will continue as usual during the bankruptcy process.

We want to reassure everyone that for more than 15 years, important measures to protect our children have been in place in our Diocese. We continue to take steps to keep children safe, including running background checks on all clergy, employees and volunteers; training facilitators of the VIRTUS® "Protecting God's Children for Adults Program and hosting VIRTUS® program sessions that have trained over 12,000 adults across our Diocese.

Thank you to the businesses that support our parish through advertising on the back of our bulletin.

This week we feature Arborwise Tree Care located in Rochester. A tree service specializing in rope access and technical rigging.

Trimming/Removal /Contract climbing.

Food for Friends Update: Quilts/blankets – they were distributed on February 14, Valentines Day which is also I Love to Read month. A message was pinned to each blanket letting the children know that they were made by Church of the Resurrection parishioners. All of the blankets were displayed for the February 14th, 8:30 am Mass, and they received a blessing. We will continue to accept blankets for this ministry for future needs. 1 ½ yards of the tie fleece blankets make great service projects. Still want to use up your stash of fabric – make a quilt!

Thank you for the food shelf donations for Franklin this past month. With last week's cold weather and the children being home for four days, we were able to supplement their food bags with pasta, pasta sauce, peanut butter/jelly, or macaroni and cheese. The children were very grateful. This month's food shelf collection will be soup and crackers.

marking your calendars for our annual Lenten Stations of the Cross and Soup Suppers held on Friday evenings throughout Lent.

These evenings begin at 6pm in the Church with Stations of the Cross led by a parish ministry/organization. Afterward, you will be treated to a Soup Supper in Fr. Consider joining us on any of the following evenings:

March 8 (Fusion)

March 15 (No Stations of the Cross due to CEO event)

March 22

March 29 (Music Ministry)

April 5

April 12

As you can see, there are still open dates. If your ministry/organization would like to host any of the open nights, please contact me as soon as possible!

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Children's Ministry, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101
 Today, Jesus explains to the crowds that true happiness comes from trusting God and allowing his love to fill our lives. A couple weeks ago, I had 6 days in a row of doctor appointments. While in the midst of the appointments I found myself asking Jesus... Do I really trust you? Do I trust you enough that I can experience peace during all this uncertainty? In my heart, I heard the response "lean into my heart." How? In that moment I wasn't sure except for a gentle voice calling me to prayer. So, I did. I prayed the Rosary, I prayed for the names I heard over the loud speakers, I prayed the rosary again, I prayed the Divine Mercy Chaplet. By the end of the week, I was aware of a sense of peace, calmness, and yes indeed happiness. Never cease praying! St. John Bosco, pray for us. Amen.

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108
Grades 1-5: Faith formation classes do not meet on President's Day. On Monday, February 25th, we will have Praying in Color Learning Centers for all children in grades 1-5 and their parents. The centers will be set up in Fr. Zenk Hall from 4:00-7:00pm. All children from the parish are invited to come learn a new way to pray. This will be an interactive style of learning for everyone.
Totus Tuus at Resurrection: For children entering 1st-6th grades this summer, Totus Tuus will be the week of July 8-12, 9:00am-2:30pm M-F. Registration forms are in the Gathering Space and on our website.
First Communion: Families should be working in their workbooks every week. These workbooks will be completed and handed in at the First Communion Learning Centers on Monday, March 4th.

Virtues in Practice: Our February virtue is cheerfulness and St. Philip Neri, who was known as "Pippo buono" or "good little Phil" was a cheerful, thoughtful boy. Philip was well-liked because his cheerfulness helped others remain hopeful and faithful. When he was a young man and was about to move away from home, it was his cheerfulness and his faith that gave his sisters hope that everything would be all right, even with him leaving. As an adult, he used his sense of humor and his friendliness to gain the attention of passersby and helped them give up their careless ways of life to follow Christ. Philip inspired his friends to serve the sick in the hospitals and to pray. His heart burned and expanded with love for God and others. He often asked, "Well, brother, when shall we begin to do good?" This is a great question for all of us to ask ourselves, our family members and our friend. St. Philip Neri, pray for us. Amen.

News from Ryan, Grades 6-12, Youth Ministry, youth@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 104

Stacey Shares: On February 16th, the Mid-Atlantic Conference gathered in Baltimore and celebrated Asian and Pacific Island Day. The focus was Encountering Christ in Harmony: Disciples in Mission. It is a wonderful reminder to all Catholics that our same Mass is celebrated around the world. On a recent trip, my family was able to participate in Mass at two different parishes in Hawaii. The first one was on January 1st at 7:30am at St. Michael in Waiialua. We were welcomed with liturgical dance, music and song fitting of the islands. It was during the Christmas season so we loved seeing the Hawaiian art and environment. As visitors, we were humbled to bring forward the gifts. After Mass, the priest asked us to stand and introduce ourselves. Then they clapped for us! On the next Sunday, we attended St. Roch in Kahuku. We were each given a braided, yarn lei and warmly welcomed into their community. Again, we were asked to introduce ourselves so they could joyfully embrace us. The people of Hawaii were inviting, full of faith and truly living examples of Christ in our world. Remember our brothers and sisters around the world who are celebrating with us at every single Mass.
