Weekly Words from The Rock

Pastoral Answer

Question: I saw an artwork of the Crucifixion showing Jesus completely naked on the cross. Having been offended, I talked with my pastor who said Jesus was crucified completely naked. Was Jesus naked on the cross?

Answer: There is no clear consensus among scholars regarding this matter. Early Christian tradition is also divided on the topic. My own conclusion is that Christ was not wholly naked on the cross.

It is significant that the Greek text mentions only the removal of the himatia, the outer garment. This is the case in the synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) as well as John. This would seem to imply that Jesus' inner tunic remained. Jews clothed themselves in an inner tunic, usually short-sleeved and knee-length. The fuller outer garment was long-sleeved and reached to the ankles.

Further, the linguistic ambiguity of the word "naked" is an underrated factor. Naked, in ancient times, did not necessarily mean "complete nudity" since a Jew might be considered "naked" if he was not wearing his outer tunic. So ancient references to the Romans crucifying people "naked" might not comport with our notions of absolute nudity of the body including private areas.

Though the Jews tolerated crucifixion as a punishment for the worst criminals, even from among fellow Jews, it seems unlikely they would have tolerated this being done in total nudity. Nudity was offensive. Whatever punishment was due the criminal, the nakedness would have offended the onlookers and humiliated them. It would thereby be seen as unjust and would likely have caused riots and other social unrest, which the Romans were keen to avoid.

So the evidence suggests Jesus, though stripped of his outer tunic, was not wholly naked.

Pop Quiz

On February 20, 1997, The Catholic Spirit came up with a religious competency test. This test encompasses all articles of the Catholic faith. Here are the questions I posed for you last week and I now provide the answers.

Question 1: What is the most important Sunday of the church year? In fact every Sunday is a mini-celebration of this highest of church feasts.

Answer: Easter Sunday

Question 2: The day the Holy Spirit comes down upon the apostles and becomes the special healer and strengthener of Christ's church is called ____.

Answer: Pentecost

Here is the question for the coming week.

Question: Names the church's five seasons and the corresponding color for each season.

Good luck with the question. I'll provide the answer next week along with the next series of questions.

God's blessings!

Please make checks payable to Church of the Resurrection and record "Scholarship" on the memo line.

Letter to Resurrection: "I wanted to write a note of thanks. My father, Bud Smith was living in the memory care unit at River Bend here in Rochester. He is not from Rochester but I moved him here so he could be closer to me. My father was a very active member in his Catholic parish in Mason City, Iowa. He taught me that being an active member in the parish was much more than attending church. He taught me that it is also about serving and about community. I felt bad taking him away from the community he served especially when he needed it the most. It gave me great comfort to know that my father was cared for by your church community even though he could not be an active member. Fr. Shawn was able to come and administer the sacrament of the anointing of the sick to my father. My father also became part of the Elder Care Ministry Program that you have at the church. There was an Eucharist minister that visited him and gave him communion. Thank you for your comfort. Thank you for the beautiful picture of Jesus and the prayer blanket. We appreciated all your kindness more than words can say. May God look upon you with favor for your faithful care of His people. Thank you so much!"

Celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation

24 HOURS FOR THE LORD – March 29th/30th. The Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist will offer 24 Hours of Prayer and Reconciliation/Confession on March 29/30. This 24-hour vigil, which is a concrete way, says Pope Francis, for people to experience the mercy that lays at the center of the Catholic faith – “to touch the grandeur of God’s mercy with their own hands.”

All are welcome for Prayer, Eucharistic Adoration and Confession from 4 pm on Friday, March 29 to 4 pm on Saturday, March 30. The entrance from the Center Street parking lot will remain open all night long. You are invited to sign up for an hour of Eucharistic Adoration at www.sj.org or by phone at (507) 288-7372.

Musings from Joy

Music and Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org.

Ian Callanan Visits Resurrection Thank you to all of those who joined us for Ian’s concert last weekend! We had a wonderful time and wish him all the best on the rest of his American tour.

Our music ministry got the distinct pleasure of attending a workshop hosted by Ian the morning of his visit. Every choir was represented in some capacity, and we also had a few guests from Holy Spirit, St. John’s, and Holy Family – Kasson. Instruments abounded, as well, with all who play participating.

Ian worked with us on some of his own music, which our groups expertly handled. He even told me later that day, “Your groups are quick learners!” I couldn’t have been more proud of our choirs that morning! Ian also talked quite a bit about his own journey in music ministry. For the children who attended, in particular, I hope it encourages them to keep at it. Music, whether you have a love and/or a talent for it or not, is something that is with you for a lifetime. Giving it up to God via a “Prayer”-formance (Ian’s term!) is the ultimate way to thank him for that gift. The afternoon’s concert was a treat in itself, too. Those who attended weren’t spectators – they were PART of the concert via a program book that had all of the music in it, as well as learning a new song with hand motions. To see so many generations of faith standing up and using their whole bodies to praise the Lord in song was the most beautiful sight to behold. Since our music ministers worked so hard in the morning, Ian had a special treat in store for them. He invited them to stand up front and join him in singing those songs! “Prayer”-forming with Ian was the highlight of the day for many. Ian’s day with us ended after the 8:00 pm Mass, where he joined our Family Folk Group in ministering. An immense THANK YOU goes out to all of those who helped in ANY capacity to make Ian’s visit a success. I hope to make a day like this an annual tradition in the future!

An Invitation to Serve

Resurrection’s Conference Needs Your Help

Do you consider yourself a naturally caring, compassionate and giving person?

If so, come and share your gifts with people in need by joining the Society of St Vincent de Paul.

We are a unique ministry because we meet our friends in need at their homes. We have helped families obtain beds when all they had to sleep on were air mattresses or blankets on the floor. We have supplied families with a list of Food Resources in Rochester and have given them food from our pantry and HyVee gift cards for groceries when their cupboards were bare.

At Masses, the weekend of March 30/31 we will share the spirituality and works of our St. Vincent de Paul Conference. Members of our Conference will be available in the Gathering Space to talk to you after all Masses.

In addition, an informational meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 2 at 7:00PM in Room C at church. We invite you to come and learn more about our rewarding ministry.

Presentations on Health Care Topics. Fr. Tom Knoblach, Diocese of St. Cloud will present on the following topics from 6:30—8:00 pm at the Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. Any questions call St. Johns at 288-7372. March 19; “The Possible and the Ethical: Catholic Thought on Emerging Bioethical Questions.” This session will provide some indications on how to think about emerging developments in bioethics including genetic engineering, cloning, opioids, organ transplantation and IVF. The format will allow time for questions and answers as well as a break for discussion and refreshments.

Faith Formation

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Children's Ministry, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 101

What did Peter, James, and John see on the mountaintop? The children learned today that Jesus was transfigured! His appearance changed as his face and clothes shone like the sun. Jesus allowed his closest friends to glimpse the power and brilliance of God's glory. To help the kids learn this lesson in a fun way, Mrs. Amanda and Mrs. Emily showed a short video clip called: "The Story of the Transfiguration-with LEGO!" You can find the video on YouTube. Let us pray: Jesus, fill me with the light of your love and faith. Make me shine in the darkness and touch the lives of others with the light of your goodness. St. Teresa of Avila, pray for us. Amen.

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 108

Grades 1-5: We will not have regular faith formation classes at 4:30 and 6:00pm on Monday, March 18th so that all the children may participate with their families in praying the Stations of the Cross in the Church at 5:30pm. Our 5th grade class will be leading us in prayers that were created for children and families. Everyone in the parish is invited to pray with us. The Stations take about 30 minutes.

Totus Tuus at Resurrection: For children entering 1st-6th grades this summer, Totus Tuus will be the week of July 8-12, 9:00am-2:30pm M-F. Registration forms are in the Gathering Space and on our website.

First Communion: Children who are preparing to receive their First Communion will be practicing the steps of receiving with their families. They can follow along during Mass with their Mass booklets. This is a good way for children to know where we are during the Mass and to anticipate what happens next.

Virtues in Practice: During March we are practicing temperance, enjoying things in a proper, balance way. St. Camillus de Lellis is an example of someone who learned to practice temperance. As a young boy, he developed bad habits of meanness, foul language and gambling. He was bright, but lazy. He quit going to school when he was 12 years old to spend more time fighting and gambling. At 17, he entered the army but continued his bad behavior. After being wounded in battle, he had to take a job working in a garden of a Franciscan monastery. Through the compassion of one of the friars, God's grace entered his heart, and Camillus gave his life to Christ. The story continues next weekend. St. Camillus, pray for us. Amen.

News from Ryan, Grades 6-12, Youth Ministry, youth@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x 104

Steubenville Youth Conference Registration for Steubenville has begun!

All youth of the parish entering or leaving High School are welcome to join with their peers to attend the conference which will feature music, prayer and speakers including Jason Evert! Registration is $190. Email Ryan Van Dyke for a registration form that can be returned in the church donation basket or put into the mail slot by the office door. Please see Ryan if your family is interested in a scholarship.

Upcoming events: Please mark your calendars for the upcoming events:

Knights of Columbus Breakfast this weekend following all Sunday Masses—Proceeds to benefit the Teen Scholarship Fund. Thank you to Catholic United Financial for their support through a Matching grant.

Confirmation Practice: Friday, April 5th at 7:00 pm; Confirmation: Saturday, April 6th at 11:00 am.

Unite Mass: At Resurrection on Saturday, April 13th starting at 5:30 pm and ending with Mass at 8:00 pm.

Sheila's Shout-Out:

Check out the new ROOM C Lenten Bulletin board. Thank you to Charlotte Bruining for sharing your time and talent this Lent!

Stacey Shares: Stations of the Cross for Children and Families

All are welcome to join the 4:30 and 6:00 faith formation classes for grades 1-5 as they come together to pray.

We will be using an interactive version of the Stations of the Cross which includes special movements for each station.
