Weekly Words from The Rock

Scripture in the Mass

We continue with our study of the Mass. Our recent work has focused on where the words from our Mass stem from various verses in Sacred Scripture. Over three weeks, our study has centered on the Introductory Rite, Penitential Rite, Gloria, Profession of Faith, Preparation of the Altar and Gifts, Preface and Eucharistic Prayer. We conclude our study this week with the Doxology, Lord's Prayer, Lamb of God and Preparation for Holy Communion, and Dismissal. So pull out your Bibles and let us get underway!

Doxology:

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, almighty Father, forever and ever. Amen. See Romans 11:36

Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. See Matthew 6:9-13

Deliver us, Lord, from every evil and grant us peace in our day. In your mercy, keep us free from sin and protect us from all anxiety as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ. See John 17:15

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever. See Didache – "The Teaching of the Apostles" – First century writer.

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles: I leave you peace, my peace I give you. Look not on our sins but on the faith of your Church, and grant us the peace and unity of your kingdom where you live forever and ever. See John 14:27

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
See John 20:19

Lamb of God and Preparation for Holy Communion:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace. See John 1:29

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Happy are those who are called to his supper. See Revelation 19:9

Lord I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I (my soul) shall be healed.
See Matthew 8:8

Dismissal:

Blessed be the name of the Lord; now and forever.
See Daniel 2:20

Our help is in the name of the Lord; who made heaven and earth. See Psalm 24:8

May Almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit. See Luke 24:51; Matthew 28:19

Go in the peace of Christ. See Luke 7:50

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Thanks be to God. See 2 Chronicles 35:3

(The study we have undertaken over the past four weeks comes from The Evangelization Station, Pamphlet 280).

Parish News

Divine Word Missionaries, Fr. Paul thanks the parishioners of Resurrection for your prayerful and financial support of their missionary. Please see their display in the Gathering Space for more information.

There will be a special blessing for grandparents during Mass the weekend of July 27-28, in remembrance of Saint Joachim and Saint Anne, the grandparents of Jesus, whose feast day is Friday, July 26th. This might also be a nice time to invite a grandparent(s) to attend Mass with you this weekend! Or, if you are a grandparent, invite a grandchild or grandchildren to attend Mass with you! Grandparents have an important role in passing on the faith, especially through prayer and the example of their lives. Please stop by the table in the Gathering Space after Mass for information about grandparents and passing on the faith as well a prayer card and tips from the Catholic Grandparents Association. This information is provided to you through Resurrection Elder Care Ministry.

What is CEO Rochester?

It is a Catholic Evangelization Outreach, ministry at Resurrection. This ministry is Christ- centered, Spirit Led and Lay driven. Throughout this past year, we have had several speakers who shared where they were before they let Christ into their lives, their conversion experience and what was holding them back from getting closer to Jesus every single day.

If you missed hearing their stories or would like to hear them again or share them with your friends, we have audio recordings on our website, www.rescathroch.org. They are posted on the front page "Past CEO Event Speakers." Speakers were:

Susan Windley Daoust, "God is not a book."
Scott Schwalbe, "God does not abandon us."
Sheila Pelowski, "The battle is real."

Speakers are being scheduled starting this Fall so stay tuned to see who are they are and their witness story.

Musical Musings from Joy

Music & Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

This week, we will look at the fourth principle from our NPM article, "How Firm a Foundation":

"4. The Church Is One Body with Many Ministries.

The primary liturgical role, of course, is that of the whole Body—the liturgical assembly of believers brought together by the Holy Spirit. But, like a human body, the Body of Christ needs specialized 'members' who perform various ministries so that the whole Body may function properly.

These special ministers include ordained members (bishops, priests, deacons) and baptized members who are appointed to a ministry. The goal of each ministry is the action of the whole Body in sharing in Christ's worship of the Father, and each ministry has both responsibilities and limits. Each individual should perform the whole of what is required by the role, but only that which is required (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 28), acting 'with the sincere devotion and decorum demanded by so exalted a ministry and rightly expected...by God's people' (SC, 29)."¹

What thoughts strike you in reading this? Are you involved in a liturgical ministry? Why or why not?

Do you see this is a right or a responsibility of your baptism?

If you are not involved in a "specialized" way, what holds you back? Is it the time required? The talent needed? What if you were told that none of this mattered?

If you are involved in a liturgical ministry, why did you first say "yes"? What call did you answer to? Are you happy serving the Body of Christ in this way? Would you ever consider doing something more or even different?

Thank you Resurrection Parishioners for your financial support to the Scholarship Fund so our young adults could attend this conference. A big thank you to all the volunteers who spent time assisting in so many functions during the conference. As we can see, the smiles show the gratitude from our young adults. Keep praying for them as they continue to grow in their faith with the memories of what they experienced at Steubenville. God bless you.
