Weekly Words from The Rock

TriviOver the course of the last weeks, we have been looking at Bible Trivia. Continuing with the theme of the Bible, I would like to focus on the gospels. Here are some trivia questions from the gospels.

Question 1: The night before he died, Jesus celebrated the Last Supper with his disciples. During the course of the Last Supper, he changed bread and wine into his body and blood. In which gospel do we not find the story of the changing of the bread and wine into the body and blood of Jesus Christ?

- a. Luke
- b. Mark
- c. John
- d. Matthew

Question 2: Which of the apostles was in charge of the money purse?

- a. James the Lesser
- b. James the Greater
- c. Matthew (the tax collector)
- d. Judas Iscariot

Question 3: Which gospel is the longest (in terms of chapters)?

- a. Matthew
- b. Mark
- c. Luke
- d. John

Question 4: Which gospels contain the infancy narratives (the birth story of Jesus Christ)?

- a. John and Luke
- b. Mark and Matthew
- c. Luke and Matthew
- d. Mark and Luke

Question 5: Which gospel is the shortest (in terms of chapters)?

- a. Matthew
- b. Mark
- c. Luke
- d. John

I will provide the answers next week.

Thoughts from The Rock

I would like to share with you what I enjoy about the priesthood. Call this my "top ten list."

1. A priest plays a fundamental role in preparing people for the next life – eternal life. Without a priest, how would we prepare?
2. Providing the sacraments.
3. The people. A priest encounters people from all walks of life.
4. The humble reality that I am in many ways carved from the same niche as the people I serve. I am a sinner.
5. I enjoy hearing a young child, after they look up, stare, say, "There is God." Of course, I am not God; however, it does remind me of who I am to model and represent.
6. The realization that a priest doesn't need to continue searching for the right/perfect mission statement. A priest is called to serve in the name of Jesus Christ. Period.
7. It doesn't take long for a priest to learn that God doesn't choose the best in choosing his priests. In fact, in many cases, the opposite is true.
8. I don't have to worry about being elected to office. The call doesn't come from a popularity contest; the call comes from God.
9. I don't concern myself with the latest fashions. Black is always the color of the day.
10. People's expectations of a priest are really fairly simple. Be there, give us the sacraments, and pray.

Holy Humor Ever had one of these days?

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x108

Grades 1-5: We will have faith formation classes for grades 1, 3, 4, and 5 on Monday, November 4th at 4:30 and 6:00pm. Fourth graders will have the opportunity to receive the sacrament of reconciliation during class time. The children preparing to receive their first reconciliation will be participating in learning centers with one of their parents instead of attending classes.

First Reconciliation: On Monday, November 4th, all the children preparing to receive the sacrament of reconciliation will be participating in the Reconciliation Learning Centers with parents. The centers will be set up in Fr. Zenk Hall and take about an hour to complete. Families are welcome to come anytime between 4:00-7:00pm. Please remember to bring your completed Reconciliation Booklet so you can hand it in.

Virtues in Practice: For November, our virtue is courtesy and the first and second graders will be learning about St. Martin de Porres. St. Martin's father almost never came to see him. When Martin was old enough, his father had him trained to be a doctor. Martin became a doctor and a Dominican friar who was very thoughtful of people who were sick. He insisted on doing all the lowliest jobs for them. Sometimes, he brought poor, sick people home and put them to sleep in his own bed! November 3rd is the feast day for St. Martin de Porres. St. Martin, thank you for helping us to be thoughtful of others, which is called being courteous. St. Martin, pray for us!

News for Sheila, Birth-KG, Grades 6-12, Children and Youth Ministry, RCIA dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528, x 101

Sunday School and Nursery Families: Did you get your Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families Sunday gospel resource book? If not, extra copies are available. See Sheila at the Sunday School attendance table.

A prayer for families— Help us Father, to admit our mistakes and to turn to your love and forgiveness. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

Grades 6-10 SPARK SOCIAL NIGHTS

For all students grades 6-10. Catholic, Homeschool, and Public school students are invited for a night of prayer, popcorn and snacks, and a movie that we will watch over a period of three weeks.

Feature Film: The War of the Vendée
showing on Wednesday November 6, 13, and 20!

The War of the Vendée from Navis Pictures tells the forgotten story of a valiant, six year struggle to restore the Catholic Holy Religion and French King. The sacrifices of the Vendean people resulted in countless martyrdoms, but ultimately won the restoration of religious freedom for all of France. This film is suitable for all ages and features a non-traditional cast made up entirely of children.
