Weekly Words from The Rock

Trivia - With the completion of our "Saintly Summer Trivia" quiz from Our Sunday Visitor, I posed two extra credit questions in my column of last week. Here are the answers.

Extra Credit Question 1: Of the last four popes, whose papacy has lasted the longest?

- A. Pope John Paul I
- B. Pope John Paul II
- C. Pope Benedict XVI
- D. Pope Francis

Answer: B. Pope John Paul II. Pope John Paul I took office on August 26, 1978 with his death being 33 days later. Pope John Paul II took office on October 16, 1978 till his death on April 2, 2005. Paul Benedict XVI took office on April 19, 2005 with his papacy ending on February 28, 2013 (although as we know he is still alive). Pope Francis took office on March 13, 2013 and has continued in office till the present day.

Extra Credit Question 2: I will list four sacraments. Which one of the four, if I tried to bestow as a priest, would Bishop Quinn call me on the phone and state, "Father Schuster, I need to see you in Winona right now!!!" (Meaning: I would be in big trouble).

- A. Anointing of the Sick
- B. Reconciliation
- C. Holy Orders
- D. Baptism

Answer: C. Holy Orders. Only a bishop can ordain a man to the diaconate, presbyterate or episcopate.

Question and Answer

Question: Jesus says, "The Father is greater than I" (John 14:28), but we say in the creed at Mass that Jesus and the Father are consubstantial. Which is it?

Answer: Jesus refers to his humanity in the passage you cite, not his divinity. In the Athanasian Creed, this is clarified. Jesus is "equal to the Father according to his divinity, and inferior to the Father according to his humanity." The question reminds us that it is important when listening to Jesus to understand the mode in which he speaks. There is a similar need when interpreting the passage where Jesus says no one knows the Day of Judgment, not even the Son, only the Father (Mark 13:32). As God the Son he surely knows, but as man he can say he does not know.

Note: The Athanasian Creed was not written by St. Athanasius (died in 373) but was probably composed in southern France during the 5th century.

(The Question and Answer is taken from Msgr. Charles Pope's column in Our Sunday Visitor, dated July 8-14, 2018, page 15).

An Experience of Ritual and Catechesis

Experience Their Power, Reflect on Their Meaning

Catholic liturgy is a rich language composed of music, words, silence, objects, natural elements, movements, postures, gestures, and ritual actions. Each of these elements serves to open our hearts, minds, and bodies to the presence of God, allowing us to participate deeply in the mystery we celebrate. We will explore the signs and symbols of the liturgy in prayerful, participative reflection, recognizing the role of the human senses in our liturgical prayer.

Through poetry, music, movement, and interaction with the symbols of the liturgy, we will discover the connections between Mass and our daily lives.

Please RSVP online by October 1st

Altar Server Training (3rd grade and up)

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x108

Grades 1-5: We have Faith Formation classes on Monday, September 30th at 4:30 and 6:00pm. If you haven't signed up your children for faith formation classes, spaces are still available for children at all grade levels and at both the 4:30 and 6:00 times. If you want to have your child or children attend faith formation classes, please fill out a registration form and bring it to class tomorrow. Next week: In place of class times, first graders and parents will be participating in First Grade Learning Centers on Monday, October 7th in Fr. Zenk Hall any time between 4:00-7:00pm. The centers take about an hour to complete and you are welcome to come when it is convenient for your family.

First Reconciliation: Families need to complete and hand in a purple sac prep form, your child's baptismal certificate, and the sacrament fee that covers both First Reconciliation and First Communion. If you did not attend the parent meeting on September 9th, please contact me. I have a purple folder for your family that contains information about preparing to receive the sacrament of reconciliation.

Virtues in Practice: Our virtue this month is charity, which is loving God with all your heart, mind and strength and your neighbor as yourself. The first and second graders have been learning about charity from St. Gertrude. She was a very talented student. She gave her life to God as a nun, and is the patron saint of cats, travellers and the recently deceased. When she was 25 years old, Jesus appeared to her and taught her about His Sacred Heart. She had many talks with Jesus about how to love Him and her neighbor. Saint Gertrude, you loved God above all things and gave His love to others. Help us to love like Jesus and to grow closer to Him. Amen. Saint Gertrude, pray for us!

Grade 6-10: OFFSITE Class at the Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. Check-in with me anytime between 6:00—8:00pm. Parents, if you can make it, there is a Mass with The Most Reverend John M. Quinn, Bishop of Winona-Rochester at 12:10pm. The relics of St. Pio will be on display from 1:00 to 9:00pm. Email me if there is a better time that fits your families schedule. I would highly recommend logging into Formed.org (free account when you log in through our website) and listening to the audio recording "The Life of Padre Pio" or watch one of the many films on his life.
