Weekly Words from The Rock

Trivia . In the New Testament, there is a series of letters entitled “The Catholic Letters.” They are from James, Peter, John (including the Book of Revelation), and Jude. Last week, I posed four questions on these four writers and this week I provide the answers.

Question 1: Of The Catholic Letters, how many are attributed to Jude.

- A. One
- B. Two
- C. Three
- D. Four

Answer: A. One (The Letter of Jude).

Question 2: Of The Catholic Letters, how many are attributed to James.

- A. One
- B. Two
- C. Three
- D. Four

Answer: A. One (The Letter of James).

Question 3: Of The Catholic Letters, how many are attributed to Peter.

- A. One
- B. Two
- C. Three
- D. Four

Answer: B. Two (The First and Second Letter of Peter).

Question: Of The Catholic Letters, how many are attributed to John (include the Book of Revelation as one).

- A. One
- B. Two
- C. Three
- D. Four

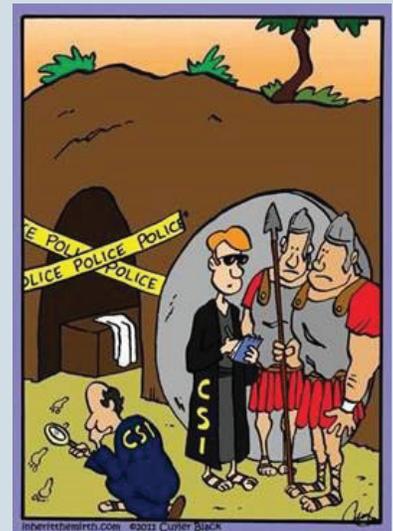

Answer: 4 (The First, Second and Third Letter of John and the Book of Revelation).

A Reflection- Someone asked a question that I would like to tackle today. The question was, why are there three readings on Sundays and only two readings during weekdays? Let us begin with Sundays. The Sunday Mass is the highpoint of all the Masses. There is even a commandment which says, “Keep Holy the Sabbath Day.” Due to that, we have the Gloria (except for Lent and Advent), the Creed and three readings. The readings come to us from the entirety of the Bible. We have the First Reading from the Old Testament (exception being during the Easter season), the Second Reading from the New Testament (outside the gospels) and a reading from one of the four gospel writers. Where possible, the full contingent of Mass parts and songs are sung.

If Sunday is the highpoint, we would expect the weekday liturgy to not be as extensive. Indeed, on most weekdays, we have two readings (one from either the Old or New Testament and one from the Gospel), no Gloria, and no Creed. However, there are exceptions. When a feast (like the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14) falls during the week, we have three readings and a Gloria. Should a solemnity (like the Annunciation on March 25) fall during the week, we have three readings, a Gloria and a Creed.

Thus, it is all about the solemnity of an occasion. Sunday is the highpoint of our week. Weekdays mark “less solemnity” with the occasional exception.

Holy Humor You have to ask, “Will some ever figure it out?”

God's blessing! Father Schuster, Pastor

Food for Friends News

October's food shelf items: a variety of Pastas and Sauces. No glass, please. In November, a collection of food items will also begin for filling Thanksgiving baskets that will be distributed about mid December. Watch for the bargains and shop anytime. Items to collect are canned vegetables and fruit, instant potatoes, and boxed stuffing to name a few. Stephanie Collura will once again coordinate this wonderful effort. Not only will our Food for Friends students have the opportunity to take part, we can add others if you know of a family from our parish in need. They will need to register for this project. More details to come.

This winter for the month of February we will collect bath towels for the students. We have heard a number of times that one towel is being shared by a number of family members. Watch for great pricing.

We are also looking for donations of fleece fabric – two 2 yard cuts of coordinating fabrics. The elementary students will tie the blankets and these blankets will be used for the different Ministries at Resurrection.

Wishing to make a quilt – we are keeping a supply of blankets on hand for those in need. Again, feel free to make a fleece blanket (2 yard cuts) or use your scraps of fabric. This request is not meant for you to go out and purchase new fabric for a quilt – any sewer has fabric pieces to use! 45" x 60-72" is perfect size.

We are in need of boys deodorants and bottles of shampoo. We will take new or gently used winter coats, snow pants, and winter boots. We cannot accept scarves (a safety hazard on the playground). Winter gloves to be used to play in the snow are also needed. At this time we do not need winter hats. We have a supply, and we have a great donation coming in soon!

All items suggested may be dropped off in the black tubs located to the south of the office.

Cindy Landherr is looking for someone to co-chair this ministry for the next couple of years. It would be so helpful to work with someone and share in the organizing of projects. Please consider as she would love to speak with you. Call her at 507-398-6985.

Music & Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

This week, I would like to share with you part one of two of a short article on the Divine Office titled, “What is the Liturgy of the Hours?”

“The Church tells time in two ways. The first is according to the liturgical year, which encompasses feasts and liturgical seasons such as Advent, Lent, and Ordinary Time. The other way in which the Church tells time is hourly. Thus, the Holy See has a four-volume ritual for praying the hours. It provides the official ritual for praying the hours: morning, daytime prayer, midmorning prayer, daytime hours (midmorning prayer, midafternoon prayer, and midday prayer from which one daytime hour is chosen to pray), Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer. The Liturgy of the Hours goes back to the early Church.

Paul’s first letter to the Thessalonians states, ‘pray without ceasing’ (5:17). Early Christian communities interpreted this phrase either strictly, that is, praying as closely as possible to non-stop, or more loosely in the sense of praying throughout the day. Communities would gather to pray from the book of Psalms, perhaps scripture and a canticle. Some monks would pray the 150 psalms within one week, while some city parishes would take up to four weeks to pray the 150 psalms. In whichever way these communities prayed at hours, they were trying to be faithful to the Thessalonian injunction to ‘pray without ceasing.’

Later on in history, while the participation of the lay faithful in the Liturgy of the Hours diminished, clerics were obligated to pray the hours. With the advent of the Second Vatican Council, a renewed sense of the hours was opened up to lay participation...In praying the hours, then, the Church is participating in Christ’s priestly ministry of restoring the world...back to God the Father. This is what it means when the Constitution states, ‘the purpose of the office [that is, the Liturgy of the Hours] is to sanctify the day’ (CSL, 88).”¹

Calvary Cemetery Fall Clean-up. Please help with fall clean-up at Calvary Cemetery. The fall season brings cooler weather, falling leaves and occasional frost. There is an increase in fresh flowers past their prime, faded artificial flowers blown from the pots or tilted in their stands. Please help by removing flowers and decorations at the cemetery from Oct 15th until Nov 15th. so a complete clean-up can be performed. Remove all decorations and plants that are not secured in a stand to avoid being covered by ice and snow. After clean-up is completed on Nov 15, the cemetery will be ready for your holiday plantings and decorations to honor your loved ones. Please remember that every thing should be off the ground and well secured during the winter season. Thank you for your support.

St Mary’s University is inviting all to view the Vatican Display of Eucharistic Miracles from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mon., Oct. 14, through Thurs., Oct. 17, at its Alverna Center, 1175 W. Wabasha St. The exhibit consists of detailed descriptions of each miracle that has occurred around the world, dating as far back as the Last Supper. An assortment of photographs and historical descriptions of the principle Eucharistic Miracles that took place throughout the ages in the world and which have been recognized by the Church. By means of the panels, one can “virtually visit” the places where the 126 miracles took place.

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x108

Grades 1-5: We will have faith formation classes for grades 1-5 on Monday, October 14th at 4:30 and 6:00pm.

First Reconciliation: On Monday, November 4th, all the children preparing to receive the sacrament of reconciliation will be participating in the Reconciliation Learning Centers with parents. The centers will be set up in Fr. Zenk Hall and take about an hour to complete.

Families are welcome to come anytime between 4:00-7:00pm. Please remember to bring your completed Reconciliation Booklet so you can hand it in.

Virtues in Practice: For October, our virtue is friendship and our saints are St. Benedict and St. Scholastica, who were twin brother and sister and best friends. Did you know that two Catholic colleges in Minnesota are named after these friends? College of St. Scholastica is in Duluth and College of St. Benedict is in St. Joseph. Both of these colleges would be great places to meet new friends! What does it take to be a friend to someone? Make a list of things you want your friends to do, then make a list of the things you can do for your friends. Practice being a good friend.

St. Benedict and St. Scholastica, help us to find good friends and to be good friends, especially with the members of our family. Help us to lead those we love toward God. St. Scholastica and St. Benedict, pray for us. Amen.

News for Sheila, Birth-KG; Grades 6-12, Children and Youth Ministry, dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528, x 101

A prayer for your family: Lord Jesus, the lepers asked for your help and you gave them new life and new hope. Thank you for all the love and kindness you give to me.

Sts. Benedict and Scholastica pray for us! St. Padre Pio Pray for us.

Grades 6-10: On Wednesday, October 2nd, our faith formation students and parents experienced an amazing opportunity to venerate the relics of St. Padre Pio at the Co-Cathedral of St John's. It was an amazing and reverent experience for all who were able to participate. St. Padre Pio Pray for us!
