Musical Musings from Joy

Music & Choral Director & Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

In the month of November, we take the time to remember our dearly departed souls. Why do we do this? Where does it come from? Over the next couple of weeks, I would like to share with you a reflection by theologian, Kristopher W. Seaman that nicely puts this month in perspective:

“When I first arrived in Dublin, Ireland to study, it was suggested that I visit the National Leprechaun Museum. Sure that I would not enjoy it, I didn’t give it much thought. In a few months, I was given a research desk with other doctoral students, including one whom I later discovered worked in the Leprechaun Museum. When I asked about the museum, he told me it was created to preserve and catalog the old Irish folktales before they were lost or forgotten.

A couple of months later, a storyteller from the museum made a presentation to the university’s Theological Society on how the Irish celebrated and understood Halloween. He told us it was the day when it was considered that the souls were the closest to the physical realm, and households would perform certain rituals so the souls would be at peace. The rituals also acknowledged the closeness of death. When the nights are growing longer, and light seems momentary, a culture turns to nature as a way of reminding themselves of death. Halloween, the Solemnity of All Saints, and the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls’ Day), it seems to me, are popularly held closely together. We remember those who have gone before us: the good, the holy (the saints), and the seemingly ordinary person (all souls). This memory is alive in the Church, perhaps in household customs (such as those in parts of Ireland), and in nature itself.”

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x108

Grades 1-5: We will have faith formation classes for grades 1-5 on Monday, November 18th at 4:30 and 6:00pm. Next Monday is our first All Grades Learning Centers on Exploring God's Great Love! All the children from the parish are invited to explore the liturgical season of Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany. The centers will be in Fr. Zenk Hall and all the classrooms 4:00-7:00pm. Families can plan on taking about an hour to complete the centers.

First Reconciliation: Families can be preparing their children to receive the sacrament of reconciliation by going over the steps, practicing the act of contrition, and talking about what it means to ask for forgiveness and to accept an apology from each other. First Reconciliation will be on Tuesday, December 10th during the Communal Penance Service at 6:30pm.

Virtues in Practice: For November, our virtue is courtesy and our saint is St. Solanus Casey. Born in Wisconsin, St. Solanus began to study for the priesthood when he was 21 years old. He became a Capuchin friar, and was known as "The Doorkeeper" because of the 20 years he served as porter at Saint Bonaventure Monastery in Detroit, Michigan. He was always ready to meet people and listen to their needs at any hour of the day or night. He treated each visitor, whether rich or poor, as he would have treated Christ. St. Solanus Casey, help us to be thoughtful of others, to be gracious, gentle, and kind. Help us to honor Christ in each person, as you did. St. Solanus Casey, pray for us. Amen.

News for Sheila, Birth-KG; Grades 6-12, Children and Youth Ministry, RCIA dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528, x 101

Sunday School & Nursery: We welcomed new children in both Nursery and Sunday School this past Sunday. We are always welcoming new additions! Contact Sheila for more information.

Open Door Grades 6-10: The first Unite event was on Saturday, November 9th. We gathered at St. Pius X for an evening of pizza, ice-breaker activities, engaging talk by Brian Kusek titled "Does God Exist", and candid small group discussion. We ended the night with beautiful praise and worship music and benediction. We had a faithful group of Resurrection youth attend the event— Jamie Nation, Cam Vareberg, Felix Pelowski, Eric Smith, McKaid Schotzko, Ava Robertson, and Stella Pelowski. We look forward to growing participation in these nights! Save the dates— Encountering Christ is our faith. Dec 14th @ Pax Christi, Feb 8th @ Holy Spirit, and Mar 14th here at Resurrection. Watch the bulletin and website for more details.
