Musical Musings from Joy

Music & Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

This week we conclude Kristopher W. Seaman's reflection on the idea of November Remembrance:

"...On November 1, we remember all those who have gone before us who imitated and participated in Christ's holiness. They now remind us, pray for us, show us that holiness is obtainable and that we are called to imitate and participate in Christ's holiness. On All Souls' Day, we pray for all the faithful who have passed before us...

A good lens to the day is either of the options of the Second Reading (Romans 5:5–11 or Romans 6:3–9). Sin prevents us from flourishing, prevents unity with God and with one another... We live in hope that we might, like the saints, live in true unity with God and one another.

From the day when the Commemoration for the All the Faithful Departed was first celebrated in the tenth century, there has been a focus on prayers for all who have died. Unlike a funeral liturgy, during which prayers are for a particular person as he/she transitions to renewed life in Christ, All Souls' Day is about everyone who has gone before us. This feast, then, is both a reminder of our need to pray for and be healed by God's merciful love and a day to be reminded of those of us who have died, asking for the healing of all who await the fullness of unity with God's merciful love.

While we may not always think of leprechauns on All Souls' Day, we may be reminded of the importance of keeping the memory alive of the significant stories and people who have gone before us—whether saints or other souls. As Christian disciples, our important heritage is always rooted in the call toward God's holiness, shown to us by Christ Jesus, his holiness imitated by the saints, and which, it is hoped, we are empowered to imitate and participate in."

Catechesis and Enrollment in the Brown Scapular & Saint Joseph Lay Carmelite Community Open House

The Brown Scapular is a sign of consecration to Our Lady and her way of life – that is, a life lived in allegiance to Jesus Christ. In wearing the brown scapular, we enter into a covenant of love and trust with Mary as our Mother, our Sister, and our Patroness. It stands for a commitment to follow Jesus like Mary, the perfect model of discipleship. It is a sign of Mary's protection and of belonging to the family of Carmel.

The Saint Joseph Lay Carmelite Community is hosting a city-wide catechesis and enrollment in the Brown Scapular on December 4th, from 6:30-7:30 pm at Saint James Coffee. All are invited! Light refreshments will be provided.

Members of the Lay Carmelite Community will also be present afterwards to meet with those interested in joining the Community. Those interested are encouraged to attend our Open House at 9am on December 7th at the Church of the Saint Francis of Assisi.

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x108

Happy Thanksgiving to all of our families and friends! "Give thanks to the LORD who is good, whose mercy endures forever." Psalms 106:1

Grades 1-5: All families with children in grades 1-5 will be participating in Exploring God's Great Love learning centers on Monday, November 25th. This is a wonderful way for families to learn about the liturgical seasons of Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany. The learning centers will be in Fr. Zenk Hall and all classrooms from 4:00-7:00pm. All families are welcome to attend any time and the centers will take about an hour to complete.

First Reconciliation: A reminder for parents that First Reconciliation is on Tuesday, December 10th at 6:30pm during the Parish Communal Penance Service. Please arrive at 6:15-6:20pm to check in, find a place to sit, and to prepare our hearts to receive the sacrament of reconciliation.

Virtues in Practice: For November, our virtue is courtesy and our saints are St. Martin de Porres and St. Solanus Casey. The name of the virtue courtesy comes from the royal court of kings and queens where people showed great honor and thoughtfulness in word and deed. Back then, the words "ladies" or "gentlemen" meant men or women with land. Today we use the same words to describe someone who has the good manners they exhibited. Sometimes we don't pay attention to the people around us because we are tired, busy, or in a hurry. Sometimes we leave messes instead of leaving things in order for the next person. Yet as Christians, we know we should be courteous to everyone, because whatever we do to them, we do to Christ, our King. St. Martin de Porres and St. Solanus Casey, pray for us. Amen.

News for Sheila, Birth-KG; Grades 6-12, Children and Youth Ministry, RCIA dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528, x 101
