Weekly Words from The Rock

During Lent, I am offering a series of quiz questions on the season of Lent. As I've noted, I don't know from where these questions came; however, I would like to give credit where credit is due. Here are the answers to last week's two questions.

Question 1: Which is the last Sunday of Lent?

- A. Easter Sunday
- B. Laetare Sunday
- C. Palm Sunday
- D. Pentecost Sunday

Answer: C. Palm Sunday

Question 2: Lent is known to be 40 days long even though from Ash Wednesday to last the Saturday of the season (Holy Saturday) the total number of days is 46. If Lent is 46 days in length, why do we stay with the number 40?

- A. Sundays are not included
- B. Mondays are not included
- C. Counting error
- D. Saturdays are not included

Answer: A. Sundays are not included

Here are your next two questions:

Question 1: When thinking about the liturgy what is different about Good Friday?

- A. Day of fast
- B. Day of abstinence
- C. Day of penance
- D. Day when Mass is not celebrated

Question 2: Which devotion has a special place during Lent?

- A. Novena
- B. Triduum
- C. Stations of the Cross
- D. Retreat

I'll provide the answers next week. Good luck!

Lenten Penitential Observance of Fasting and Abstaining

-Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting and abstaining.

-All Fridays in Lent are days of abstaining.

-Abstaining is defined as not eating meat. It is followed by those who are 14 years of age and older.

-Fasting is defined as only one full meal each day, nothing between meals. It pertains to those who are 18-59 years of age.

Stations of the Cross Just a little history on my thoughts of the current Stations of the Cross in the church proper (not the Adoration chapel). The first time I saw the stations I could not determine which was the first station. With time, I guessed it to be by the Adoration chapel. Even so, I wasn't certain. A cross with two scales? Is this to depict Jesus being condemned to death? For me, as in the case of the first station, many of the stations are difficult to comprehend. Take the twelfth and thirteenth station. The twelfth station is the crucifixion. The current set of stations is represented by a simple cross. It shows no body of Jesus. The thirteenth station is the body of Jesus being taken down from the cross. We currently have the thirteenth station depicted by a piece of the cross removed and laid at the base of the cross. The body of Jesus is not present.

In light of this, I have had visitors to our parish wonder about the stations. As well as I explain, they seem confused. What I would like to do is purchase a new set of Stations of the Cross with images of each scene leaving no confusion as to what each station depicts. This would leave the location of the first station evidently clear. They could remain where they are presently found or, depending upon size, placed in another location (such as the back wall of the church).

Issues, such as this, are sensitive and I want to respect people's thoughts and feelings. I also want to respect anyone who may have donated the current set of Stations of the Cross which adorn our walls. What I would like to do is provide people the opportunity for feedback through April 1. You can email your thoughts to me at frschuster@rescathroch.org.

Finally, the current set of stations, if they are replaced, would be respected in a way consistent with their dignity. Thanks for any input.

God's blessings! Father Peter Schuster, Pastor

DID YOU KNOW??? Several years ago, our Adoration Chapel received a special Apostolic Blessing from St John Paul II for "all the faithful, who during Adoration of Our Most Merciful Savior in the Most Blessed Sacrament will be praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the sick and for those throughout the world who will be dying in that hour." Jesus told St. Faustina repeatedly to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet continuously as "the grace of eternal salvation for certain souls in their final moments depends on your prayer." Please consider praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet at the beginning of your Holy Hour. Divine Mercy prayer cards are available near the sign-in and in the chapel.

Musical Musings from Joy

Music & Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

You may have noticed our Gathering (Prelude) Song this Lenten season has been in Latin. This piece, the "Hymn for the Holy Year of Mercy," was written by English composer Paul Inwood with a text by Eugenio Costa, SJ. It is not in your hymnals or supplements. The song premiered for the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy called by Pope Francis that began on December 8th, 2015. Inwood and Costa signed over all rights to the hymn, allowing it to be in the Public Domain for free, worldwide use. The verses have been translated into English and all major European languages.

Here is the text of the refrain:
Misericordes sicut Pater!
Misericordes sicut Pater!
(Merciful like the Father!
Merciful like the Father!). This line is drawn from Luke 6:36 –
"Be merciful, just as [also] your Father is merciful."

The verses implore the Trinity in various ways, with each phrase being marked by the following text:
...in æternum misericordia eius. (...His mercy is forever.)

Take a closer listen over these weeks in Lent and pray for the strength and courage to be "Merciful like the Father," as "His mercy is forever."

All are welcome to join the faith formation grades 1-5 as they come together to pray. We will be using an interactive version of the Stations of the Cross which includes special movements for each station.

First Communion: Families are working on chapter 4 in their Eucharist workbook this week. If you have not given me a small photo of your child for the display, please try to get one to me soon. If you have any questions regarding First Communion, feel free to contact me by email or phone.

Virtues in Practice: Respect is our virtue for March and the younger children are learning about St. Jeanne Jugan. She was born into a poor family. Jeanne took a job in the kitchen of a wealthy woman, and helped her take care of the poor. In 1837, Jeanne and two other women decided to live together and dedicate their lives to God. One day, she found a homeless widow who was elderly and blind. Jeanne brought this widow home and let her sleep in her own bed. This act of charity grew into the work of the Little Sisters of the Poor, who now care for poor elderly people all around the world. St. Jeanne Jugan, help us to see all people as children of God. Help us to always respect each person's dignity, especially the elderly, the poor and the sick. Amen. St. Jeanne Jugan, pray for us.

Olivia Maasch and Matt Salerno are preparing for baptism and attended the Rite of Election with Bishop Quinn on Sunday March 1st. Olivia and Matt will be welcomed into the Catholic church on the Easter Vigil. Olivia is pictured with her parents Tim and Anissa and brother Luke.

Luke will also be baptized at the Easter Vigil.

Fusion families hosted the first Stations of the Cross. Preschool, Elementary, Middle, and High School students all played a role. The children assisted with Stations by greeting parishioners, reading the prayers, ringing bells, carrying the cross and candle, and singing with the choir as all walked with Jesus toward Calvary.
