Weekly Words from The Rock

During Lent, I am offering a series of quiz questions on the season of Lent. As I've noted, I don't know from where these questions came; however, I would like to give credit where credit is due. Here are the answers to last week's two questions.

Question 1: When thinking about the liturgy what is different about Good Friday?

- A. Day of fast
- B. Day of abstinence
- C. Day of penance
- D. Day when Mass is not celebrated

Answer: D. Day when Mass is not celebrated

Question 2: Which devotion has a special place during Lent?

- A. Novena
- B. Triduum
- C. Stations of the Cross
- D. Retreat

Answer: C. Stations of the Cross

Here are your next two questions:

Question 1: Which of the following does not take place on Good Friday?

- A. Intercessory Prayers
- B. Reading from the Scriptures
- C. Consecration
- D. Veneration of the Cross

Question 2: Which two people appeared with Jesus on the Mount of Transfiguration?

- A. Abraham and Noah
- B. Abraham and Adam
- C. Elijah and Elisha
- D. Moses and Elijah

I'll provide the answers next week. Good luck!

Lenten Penitential Observance of Fasting and Abstaining.

- Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting and abstaining.
- All Fridays in Lent are days of abstaining.
- Abstaining is defined as not eating meat. It is followed by those who are 14 years of age and older.
- Fasting is defined as only one full meal each day, nothing between meals. It pertains to those who are 18-59 years of age.

Stations of the Cross. Just a little history on my thoughts of the current Stations of the Cross in the church proper (not the Adoration chapel). The first time I saw the stations I could not determine which was the first station. With time, I guessed it to be by the Adoration chapel. Even so, I wasn't certain. A cross with two scales? Is this to depict Jesus being condemned to death? For me, as in the case of the first station, many of the stations are difficult to comprehend. Take the twelfth and thirteenth station. The twelfth station is the crucifixion. The current set of stations is represented by a simple cross. It shows no body of Jesus. The thirteenth station is the body of Jesus being taken down from the cross. We currently have the thirteenth station depicted by a piece of the cross removed and laid at the base of the cross. The body of Jesus is not present.

In light of this, I have had visitors to our parish wonder about the stations. As well as I explain, they seem confused.

What I would like to do is purchase a new set of Stations of the Cross with images of each scene leaving no confusion as to what each station depicts. This would leave the location of the first station evidently clear. They could remain where they are presently found or, depending upon size, placed in another location (such as the back wall of the church).

Issues, such as this, are sensitive and I want to respect people's thoughts and feelings. I want to respect anyone who may have donated the current set of Stations of the Cross which adorn our walls. What I would like to do is provide people the opportunity for feedback through April 1. You can email your thoughts to me at frschuster@rescathroch.org.

Finally, the current set of stations, if they are replaced, would be respected in a way consistent with their dignity. Thanks for any input.

God's blessings! Father Peter Schuster

Sunday: 2pm
Sunday: 3pm
Monday: 2 am
Friday: 3 am

There are hours in need of second adorers if the times of Open Hours of Need available do not fit your schedule. Contact Tim Fague at 507-288-6578 to register for an hour of Adoration.

DID YOU KNOW??? Several years ago, our Adoration Chapel received a special Apostolic Blessing from St John Paul II for "all the faithful, who during Adoration of Our Most Merciful Savior in the Most Blessed Sacrament will be praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the sick and for those throughout the world who will be dying in that hour." Jesus told St. Faustina repeatedly to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet continuously as "the grace of eternal salvation for certain souls in their final moments depends on your prayer." Please consider praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet at the beginning of your Holy Hour. Divine Mercy prayer cards are available near the sign-in and in the chapel.

Parish Events and Lenten Suggestions

Join us this Lent as we explore the upcoming Sunday Scriptures every Wednesday morning from 9 am (following daily Mass) to 10:30 am in Fr. Zenk Hall. We utilize Dr. Brant Pitre's videos to support our conversations. Come when you can. No registration is necessary. Anyone is welcome.

Dr. Brant Pitre is Distinguished Research Professor of Scripture at the Augustine Institute, Graduate School of Theology.

He earned his Ph.D. in Theology from the University of Notre Dame, where he specialized in the study of the New Testament and ancient Judaism. See some of his videos on Youtube.

Musical Musings from Joy

Music & Choral Director & Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

Happy St. Patrick's Day! This Tuesday marks the Feast of the great Irish patron. Since coming to Resurrection, I have made it a tradition of singing Ag Críost an Síol after Communion the weekend nearest the holiday. This Irish-language song has a disputed origin in terms of the poem. However, we do know that the music was composed in 1968 by the great Irish liturgical composer, Seán Ó Riada. It is popular at both weddings and funerals in Ireland.

Here is the Irish text:

*Ag Críost an síol, ag Críost an fómhar;
i n-íothlainn Dé go dtugtar sinn.
Ag Críost an mhuir, ag Críost an t-iasc;
i líonta Dé go gcastar sinn.*

*Ó fhás go h-aois, is ó aois go bás,
do dhá láimh, a Chríost, anall tharainn.
Ó bhás go críoch, ní críoch ach athfhás,
i bParthas na ngrás go rabhaimid.*

Here is the English translation:

*Christ's is the seed, Christ's is the crop,
in the barn of God may we be brought.
Christ's is the sea, Christ's is the fish,
in the nets of God may we be caught.*

*From growth to age, from age to death,
Thy two arms, O Christ, about us.
From death to end, not end but rebirth,
in blessed Paradise may we be.*

Another fun fact: "Gaelic" is the GROUP of languages spoken by those in Ireland, Scotland, and the Isle of Man. "Irish" is the language spoken in Ireland. (Not widely, mind you, but it is a compulsory subject in the schools!) However, the Irish word for the language is Gaeilge, which does make it confusing!

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528 x108

Grades 1-5: This week we are replacing our regular classes with a prayer experience in the main church at 5:30pm.

Stations of the Cross for Children and Families: Our 5th graders in faith formation will lead us in praying the Stations of the Cross on Monday, March 16th at 5:30pm in the Church. All are welcome to join the faith formation grades 1-5 as they come together to pray. We will be using an interactive version of the Stations of the Cross which includes special movements for each station.

First Communion: Families are working on chapter 5 in their Eucharist workbook this week. If you have not given me a small photo of your child for the display, please try to get one to me soon. If you have any questions regarding First Communion, feel free to contact me by email or phone,.

Virtues in Practice: For the month of March, we are focusing on the virtue of respect and St. Damien of Molokai. He was born in Belgium in 1840 and named Jozef de Veuster. When he entered the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, he took the religious name Damien. He was sent as a missionary to Hawaii, where he spent 10 years befriending the people, enjoying their food, learning their language, travelling and building churches. Next week, we'll share more of St. Damien's story. St. Damien, be with us and remind us to respect every person, especially those who are sick. Help us to be brave like you and reach out to them to show them God's love. Amen. St. Damien of Molokai, pray for us!

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Grades 6-12, Children and Youth Ministry, RCIA dresscm@rescathroch.org or 288-5528, x 101

For all Families:

"What do we do when our children don't want to come to church, or for that matter, when we as parents struggle with coming to Mass?"

Working at the parish, I hear many stories of families struggling to commit to weekly Mass attendance. Sports and work schedules seem to be the main culprit. The good news is that our Rochester Catholic parishes offers many different Mass times. This past weekend my family and I attended 4:30pm at St. Francis on Saturday. Other Saturday Mass opportunities include: St. Pius at 4pm, Holy Spirit, Co-Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, and St. Mary's Hospital all at 4:30pm. St. Bernard's at 5pm, Pax Christ at 5:15pm, and here at Resurrection 8pm. When we put our mind to it, we can figure out a time that works. I have a print out of all Rochester (and Stewartville) Mass times if you are interested in a copy email me!

"That's great and all but what can we DO to change the temperament of our hearts desire to attend Mass?" Here is a quote and a suggested action that I read in a short book "Pep Talks for Catholic Parents Encouragement, Support, Guidance" by Connie Clark. "We can do nothing on our own, but Jesus will bring our children to him in his time and way. Trust him." To me, that means pray and ask Jesus for help. Here is a "to do and prayer" that I have found indeed make a difference:

TO DO: Get some holy water from church to keep in your home. Bless your car, your child's room, bed, and toys—anything with it!

PRAY: Angel of God, stir up the waters of baptism so that my child may respond to the Father's love.
