Weekly Words from The Rock

Creeds and the Eucharist

In the June 13-19, 2021 edition of Our Sunday Visitor, page 19, Msgr. Charles Pope deals with a question on the creeds and the Eucharist.

Question: I have heard a few times that an alarming percentage of Catholics don't know that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. This is arguably the most important belief that Catholics should hold. Why is it not part of any of the creeds at Sunday Mass?

Answer: Simply put, the creed is not a complete catechism. Hence, we find many things missing in the Sunday creeds. There is no mention of the Ten Commandments, the sacraments, an exact listing of the books of the Bible, the parts of the liturgy and their meaning, etc. The Nicene and Apostles Creeds were written at a time of great debate about the divinity of Christ and the proper understanding of the Holy Trinity. As such, they focus on those matters. The True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist was not widely debated at the time. Since the creeds are ancient documents and ancient parts of the liturgy, they cannot be simply amended without harm to liturgical principles.

More recently, Pope St. Paul VI published a document that, in English, is known as the "Credo of the People of God." This is a more lengthy creed, and it does contain a section on the holy Eucharist and transubstantiation. Here are some highlights: "Christ cannot be thus present in this sacrament except by the change into his body of the reality itself of the bread and the change into his blood of the reality of the wine, leaving unchanged only the properties of the bread and wine which our senses perceive.

This mysterious change is very appropriately called by the Church transubstantiation...the bread and wine have ceased to exist after the consecration, so that it is the adorable body and blood of the Lord Jesus that from then on are really before us" (No. 25).

This Credo composed by Pope St. Paul VI was not intended to be recited at the liturgy; it is simply too long. Rather, it was written to address directly disputed or poorly understood matters of our day. In more recent times, the Catechism of the Catholic Church was written to address your concerns as well.

And another question...Our Risen Bodies

Question: I have often wondered what actually happens when we die, especially in view of what happened to Jesus and Mary and one of the prophets. These three took their earthly bodies with them into heaven. But if we have to wait until the end of the earth, or the end of humanity, to be reunited with our bones that have been in the grave for perhaps thousands of years, what will we be doing until then?

Msgr. Pope's Response: Prior to the Last Judgment, our souls go to God for our individual judgment and are in heaven, purgatory or hell. You note some exceptions to this in Jesus, Mary, Elijah and likely Moses. All the souls in heaven are with God in joys unspeakable and glories untold. When our body rises, it will be truly our body, but we ought not simplify this rising purely after the manner of our own understanding as if God would be searching for our right tibia or left ulna. Further the body that rises will be a glorified human body that has qualities we do not possess.

God will supply what is needed to cause our body to rise. The Scriptures say this will occur in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye at the last trumpet (cf. 1 Corinthians 15:52). And while the Scriptures do speak of our tombs being opened, this may be allegorical or literal. But in all cases, God will mysteriously accomplish what he has promised.

Till next week! Father Peter Schuster

Pope Francis has instituted the Church-wide celebration of World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Starting this year, it will be held on the fourth Sunday of July, close to the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus. This year, the celebration will be held on Sunday, July 25th.

We will pray as a faith community for Grandparents and the Elderly through our Prayers for the Faithful at Mass that weekend. Elder Care Ministry of Resurrection also encourages you to attend Mass with a grandparent or grandparents or to invite a grandchild or grandchildren to attend Mass with you. If poor health prohibits an elder person from attending Mass, please pray in a special way for them on this special day, make a phone call, video call or even write an old-fashioned letter!

Elder Care Ministry of Resurrection will offer a prayer card from Pope Francis made especially for this occasion by the Vatican as well as additional information from the Vatican and Catholic Grandparents Association in the Gathering Space after all Masses on July 24 and July 25. For further information on the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly you may visit the following websites: www.catholicgrandparentsassociation.org or <http://www.laityfamilylife.va/> Please join us for Mass on this special weekend!

MISSION CO-OP Weekend at Resurrection, Rochester on July 24/25

As part of the mission cooperative program, the Diocese of Winona-Rochester has invited the Diocese of Kadapa, India, to make mission appeal in our parish. Rev. Swamy Pothireddy, a priest from this diocese will be speaking to us during the weekend masses on July 24th and 25th. The Diocese of Kadapa is situated in the state of Andhra Pradesh in the South- Eastern part of India and was established in 1977 by Millhill Missionaries. At present there are 59 parishes with 130 priests serving the people.

The Diocese needs your support to carry out the following:

- * Education of the poor
- * Pastoral care of the faithful and evangelization.
- * The diocese abounds in vocations to the priesthood and religious life but the diocese is not able to educate all of them. The diocese needs help in training the seminarians.

Your generous monetary help this weekend, prayers and support will enable the diocese of Kadapa to carry out the mission effectively. God bless you.

Sincerely yours, Fr. Swamy

Michelle's

Music & Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

As I mentioned last month, composer and theologian Steve Angrisano will be leading a Mercy Mission at our parish from February 19-21. This will include incredible talks with our youth, nights of singing and thoughts on how we can serve as disciples of Christ for all peoples, and times to worship, both at Mass and through various prayers like the Divine Mercy Chaplet. I hope all of you consider attending this Mission and spread the word to others you think would love to participate.

I therefore wanted to get the ball rolling by sharing Steve's bio with you. If you have questions, are excited by this, or would like to help us put it all together, please feel free to reach out to me. This should be such an incredible experience for our entire community to worship, reflect, pray, and recommit ourselves to Christ!

God Bless,
Michelle Perrier

Steve Angrisano is one of the most effective and versatile ministry leaders in the Church today. People of all ages embrace the passionate message of faith woven throughout his music and storytelling. A veteran musician, composer and youth minister, he's performed at seven World Youth Days (Panama 2019, being his latest WYD), the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC), and many other national and international events.

Steve burst onto the contemporary Catholic music scene in 1998 with Make a Difference, his first album. Co-written with Tom Tomaszek, the collection features the iconic "Go, Make a Difference" and the popular Mass of a Joyful Heart. More than seven collections later, including Welcome Home and A New Day, Steve shows no signs of slowing down. In 2007 he released Live: Songs from the Road, a spine-tingling live-performance CD, and a companion songbook/guide titled Essential Songs:

A Road-Tested Resource for Youth Ministry. Many of his songs have entered the mainstream worship repertoire, including "Psalm 63: My Soul Is Thirsting," "Emmanuel," and "Sweet Redeemer."

His most recent collection is High Above Our Way, offering nine songs for liturgy, prayer and inspiration, including a handful of songs co-written with fellow Catholic composer Curtis Stephan.

Always rooted in a spirit of humility and faithfulness, Steve's ministry has grown out of who he is: a committed witness to the life and love of Jesus Christ. This makes him a popular choice for youth rallies, retreats, concerts, parish missions and faith formation workshops.

A long-time resident of the Denver, Colorado area, Steve and his family now call Coppell, Texas home.
