Michelle's

Music & Choral Director &
Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

Throughout the year you hear us asking you to consider becoming ministers at Resurrection. It's easy to think, therefore, that our invitation is an expectation that all parishioners here serve this parish. But that's not why our music ministry sang today, why our liturgical ministers assisted during the Mass, or why any of our other ministries choose to serve outside of Mass. In fact, this raises an important question: Why do we minister? We could easily go back to pre-Vatican II and have the priest do it all, certainly.

But Jesus instructs us to, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations." That is the sole point of ministry. Ministry is not about what you have to do for us, but what it can do for you, bestowing you an opportunity to foster a deeper, more intimate encounter with Christ. Through that engagement, we can use the talents we were blessed with to become blessings for others.

Liturgical Ministry is how I first witnessed this. As an altar server, I was able to understand for the first time my relationship with Christ. As a Eucharistic Minister, I realized our desire to be one with Christ. As a greeter, I learned all about belonging to a loving, supportive community of faith.

And as a singer, I realized how sincerely I wanted to spread Christ's love as my way to help this world. I also learned the importance of making time to be with Christ. Our music ministry, for instance, could meet right before Mass to rehearse, but instead we take an extra hour every week to dedicate ourselves to Christ and encounter him through community and music.

That is the power of ministry. That is why we advocate it as much as we do and encourage you to explore it, too.

The weekend of September 18/19, we will have a Ministry Fair after all the Masses in Fr. Zenk Hall. We invite you to come and visit with representatives from the many ministries at our parish, including Liturgical Ministry, St. Vincent de Paul, Elder Care Ministry, Knights of Columbus, and Adoration.

Ask questions, learn more about how these ministries can help you foster a relationship with Christ, and if you feel inspired, you can sign up that day. I encourage you all to join us as we learn more about how can become the disciples Christ calls us to be.

God Bless,
Michelle Perrier

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org.

A Prayer for Labor Day: Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve you as you deserve, To give and not to count the cost, To fight and not to heed the wounds, To toil and not to seek rest, To labor and not to seek reward, Except that of knowing that I do your will. Amen.

A Day to honor Mary this week: On September 8th, we celebrate the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. How do you celebrate birthdays in your family? For Mary's birthday, it might include a feast, a cake with candles, and a special prayer called the Rosary.

What kids are saying about Faith Formation: What part of faith formation classes did you like best? "I enjoyed watching movies, doing projects, praying and reading Alive in Christ book and being with others (Everything!)," said a 4th grader in Faith Formation classes on Mondays. We want to share the love of God with your children, too.

FF Registration: Faith Formation classes start on Monday, September 13th at 6:00-7:00pm. Families are able to register children for faith formation on our website. On the first class, we will all gather in the Fr. Zenk Hall. After introductions, the catechists will walk the children to their classrooms while the parents stay in the hall for a meeting with the director. Please wear your masks to the first day of faith formation classes.

First Reconciliation: We are starting to prepare children in grade 2 or older to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Communion. If you missed the parent meeting, please contact me to set up a time to come in and get your child registered. If you have any questions or concerns about the sacraments, call or e-mail me.

COME, HOLY SPIRIT

Fill the hearts of your faithful. And kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you will renew the face of the earth. Lord, by the light of the Holy Spirit you have taught the hearts of your faithful. In the same Spirit help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
