Eucharistic Miracles

Our Sunday Visitor provided an "In Focus" on Eucharistic miracles in its September 12-18, 2021 edition (pages 9-12). In the weeks ahead, I would like to share some of the Eucharistic miracles which have occurred throughout the history of the Church.

Betania, Venezuela (1991): Not all Eucharistic miracles are from hundreds of years ago. Some, such as the miracle in Venezuela, happened more recently. Near the Finca Marian Shrine in Betania, Venezuela, site of the Church-approved Marian apparitions to Servant of God Maria Esperanza de Bianchini, a Eucharistic miracle occurred on December 8, 1991. During the consecration at Mass, the priest broke the host into four parts, consuming one part himself. It was later discovered that one of those pieces began to show a red spot that eventually began exuding a red substance. A resulting series of studies was initiated by the bishop of Los Teques, later leading to 500 independent tests. The results confirmed that the blood group was AB, and the sample was determined to be taken from a living heart. Since some people had wondered if the priest had bled onto the host, it was also verified that the blood of the priest did not match the blood found in the Eucharist. The miraculous host has been put on display in the Augustinian Recollects convent of the nuns of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Los Teques.

Tixtla, Mexico (2006): During an October 2006 retreat Mass at the Parish of St. Martin of Tours in Tixtla, Mexico, a consecrated host was found to be effusing a reddish substance. The diocese initiated a study to discern its cause and origin and to eliminate the possibility of fraud. The examination under the microscope showed the source of the blood to be emanating from within, thereby eliminating the possibility for the blood to have been placed on the host from the outside.

The blood group was determined to be AB. It was reported that "the reddish substance analyzed corresponds to blood in which there are hemoglobin and DNA of human origin. ... Two studies conducted by eminent forensic experts with different methodologies have shown that the substance originates from the interior, excluding the hypothesis that someone could have placed it from the exterior.

The blood type is AB, similar to the one found in the host of Lanciano and in the Holy Shroud of Turin. A microscopic analysis of magnification and penetration reveals that the superior part of the blood has been coagulated since October 2006. Moreover, the underlying internal layers reveal, in February 2010, the presence of fresh blood. The event does not have a natural explanation.

Next week, I will share with you more stories of Eucharistic miracles.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

I have been reading a book entitled The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen. The book shares a thread of Bishop Sheen's wisdom for each day of the year. In the weeks ahead, I would like to share some of his wisdom.

July 1 - "The reason most of us are what we are – mediocre Christians, "up" one day, "down" the next – is simply because we refuse to let God work on us."

July 3 – "God will love you, of course, even though you do not love Him, but remember, if you give Him only half your heart, He can make you only 50% happy."

July 4 – "You have freedom only to give [your heart] away. To whom do you give yours? You give it either to the moods, to the hour, to your egotism, to creatures, or to God."

July 5 – "The real test of a Christian is not how much he loves his friends, but how much he loves his enemies."

Till next week! Father Peter Schuster

Bethlehem Star Group.

For centuries, Bethlehem's Christians have supported their families by carving Olive Wood Religious Art for visiting pilgrims. However, the conflict in the Holy Land and the decrease in tourism have dropped the percentage of Christians living in the Holy Land from 63% to less than 2%. Our main objective is to help all Christian families stay in their homeland in dignity and keep the Christian identity in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. This weekend Holy Land Christians will be promoting their Olive Wood Carvings to support their families in the Holy Land.

Stop by their display of items to purchase in the Gathering Space following the Mass times.

Resurrection Priest Prayer Team. "One saint after another has declared that the devil's principal target on earth is the Catholic priest. Priests need, Lord, how they need, special graces from God." Fr. John Hardon, S.J.

For the past 7 years, Resurrection has been fortunate to have a team of parishioners covering our priests in prayer 7 days of the week. Each member of our Priest Prayer Team spends one hour one day of the week praying for Father Schuster and Father Shawn in the adoration chapel or another suitable spot. As we begin our 8th year this fall, we would happily welcome new members to the team! Pick your own day and complete the hour anytime during that day. For more information, or to join us, please call or email Cathy (289-3743, cathytiegs@gmail.com) or sign up on the sheet in the gathering space.

"Through intercessory prayer, we grow in charity because we move beyond our own needs to those of others."

Throughout the 33 Day Consecration to St. Joseph, I felt more alive than I ever had been before thanks to all that extra time of prayer. But just a week after its conclusion, I was back to stress eating and watching copious amounts of TV.

Have you noticed that it's just as easy to end good habits as it is to start bad habits up again? We might have run out of daily prayers in that 34-page packet, but the Consecration is only the beginning to living a life ever closer to Christ. Today, then, I encourage all of us to regularly set aside more time to pray. If you need help getting started, try these ideas:
If you haven't checked out formed.org yet, DO!
There is so much incredible information there to pray and reflect on.

If something gives you anxiety or pain, pray the Our Father every time you think about it. I find it gives me clarity and puts me in the mindset as a disciple of Christ.

There are always opportunities to pray here at Resurrection outside of weekend Mass. Consider signing up for an hour once a week in the Adoration Chapel. It's a wonderful way to quiet yourself and offer everything in your life up to the Lord. Come to Daily Mass once a week. I find that the more I hear the Word of God and witness the presence of Christ through his Body and Blood, the more I feel connected to him throughout the day. In a few weeks, we'll be starting up an Advent Rosary for the parish, where we'll pray for the various people in our parish community.

With Advent only a few weeks away, I encourage us more than ever to offer more time for God in prayer.

God Bless,
Michelle Perrier

Faith Formation

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org.

Grades 1-5: We have Faith Formation class for grades 1-5 at 6:00-7:00pm on Monday, November 15th.

The Year of St. Joseph: There is so much we do not know about the years when Jesus was growing up. We don't even know when Joseph died. We can guess that Joseph was Jesus' earthly dad in every way, teaching him his craft, instructing him in faith, and raising him as someone who would have the same trust and desire to obey the Father's will that Joseph did. Pope Francis suggests that Joseph taught primarily by example. What example do we find today of those who do God's will? Who models God to us? What can Joseph teach us? Have I every really paid attention to those around me who seem to be very close to God? Let's pray: God of wonder and surprise, help me to seek you in others, and to share your light with everyone I meet. Remind me always that you are with me every minute, helping me to make good decisions and offer good example. Amen.

(adapted from Walking with Saint Joseph, 30 Days of Reflections and Prayers with Pope Francis)

Remembering and praying for the dead: November is set aside as the month to pray for the dead. Tuesday, November 16th is the feast of St. Gertrude, patron saints of travelers, cats, and the recently departed. St. Gertrude was told by our Lord that each time the following prayer was said, 1000 souls would be released from purgatory.

"Eternal Father, I offer you the most Precious Blood of your Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the Universal Church, those in my own home and within my family! Amen!"

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Grs 6-12, Children & Youth Ministry, dresscm@rescathroch.org
Operation Warm Up Our Community is in full swing! If you still have blankets at home, bring them in this week. We will continue to tie blankets for the next couple of weeks.

Faith Formation was blessed with a special guest on Wednesday, November 3rd, Resurrection Parishioner and Coordinator for Food for Friends, Cindy Landherr. Cindy took the time to go out into the community and touch base with various organizations to determine community needs for blankets. With that, the following organizations are receiving blankets: Food for Friends, Family Promise, Ronald McDonald House, Cronin House, The Women's Shelter and Home Again. A special note that The Landing ended up with plenty of blankets. They are accepting and appreciate monetary donations for sustainability.

Catechist Bob Techentin led the students in a call and response prayer of blessing for those in need who will receives a blanket. Lord, we don't know who will get the blankets we made, but we trust in Jesus's mercy and grace. We trust that our action, the work of our hands and feet, and our prayers make a difference. Amen.
