Weekly Words from The Rock

Got to Thinking...

I got to think as I was writing the column how perspectives change over time. So let us look at some changes from when Father Schuster was growing up to his life today.

1. Growing up, this time of the year was considered Christmas vacation. Now, I look at it through the lens of the Christmas season.
2. Growing up, this time of the year was rather care-free (playing in the snow, pulling out the sled). Now, I have homilies to write, Masses to celebrate, confessions to hear.
3. Growing up, this time of the year was determined by one fact – when school resumed. Now, it is determined by when the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord falls to conclude the Christmas season.
4. Growing up, this time of the year found one hoping for snow. Now, while I enjoy snow, I have to think about those who have to remove snow and having to drive in snow.
5. Growing up, this time of the year meant going to church. Now, it means making sure I show up for church.
6. Growing up, this time of the year meant the opportunity to sleep in. Now, it is about setting alarms to show up on time.
7. Growing up, this time of the year meant getting chocolate covered cherries from our bus driver as we got off the bus for Christmas vacation. Now, as a priest, it means me giving - the gift of Jesus.
8. Growing up, this time of the year meant family was always there. Now, with marriages and work, such is no longer a given/possible.

9. Growing up, this time of the year meant I enjoyed mom's home cooking. Now, the cooking is on me.

10. Growing up, this time of the year meant having to go to town for groceries and supplies. Now, I, literally, live in town.

Oh yes, how times do change!

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

I have been reading a book entitled The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen. The book shares a thread of Bishop Sheen's wisdom for each day of the year. In the weeks ahead, I would like to share some of his wisdom.

September 11 – "It is not easy to explain why God permits evil; but it is impossible for an atheist to explain the existence of goodness."

September 13 – "The soul cannot be seen in a biological laboratory, any more than pain can be seen on an operating table."

September 22 – "If it be true that the world has lost its respect for authority, it is only because it lost it first in the home."

Christmas Season Holy Humor

Anyone up for a game of cards?

Till next week! Father Peter Schuster

31 Days of Prayer For Our Children: Over the last year, it has become apparent that our young people desperately need our prayers. As adults, we recognize the stress and struggle of daily life. Our children do not understand on a cognitive level, but they are aware of it on a spiritual level. We want to help them and often don't know what to say or the right way to say it. There is something we can all do to help our children at Resurrection. We can join together in prayer. If you would be willing to pray every day during the month of January, you can pick up a prayer calendar in the Gathering Space. The calendar will also be available on our website. For the month of January, we can pray each day with a short scripture verse and a virtue intention for our children. On January 31st, the children in Faith Formation classes will gather and acknowledge all those who prayed for them with their own special prayer. Thank you for your prayers!

Isaiah Olsem, our seminarian who comes to our parish monthly will be at Resurrection during St. Paul Seminary's winter break from January 3rd through January 15th. Please consider a time for him to visit your family. He is also open for lunch or dinner.

Franklin/Montessori at Franklin Elementary

November 30, 2021

Dear Church of the Resurrection,

Thank you so much for your ongoing generous donations of food, clothing, winter gear, school supplies, hygiene items and special requests! The Community Room at Franklin is used every single day. Here are some updates from a typical week in the Community Room in November:

- 4th grade Sudanese boy stops in for lotion because his skin gets very dry;
- Several students come in to borrow tennis shoes for PE;
- A para with a special needs student comes in for a soft snack;
- A student with lots of family issues arrives late and stops in for a snack;
- 3-4 students ask for personal hygiene items – toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, shampoo;
- A Resurrection volunteer delivers groceries from our Community Room pantry to 2 families;
- We give out the bananas from Resurrection each week with the food bags;
- A new student arrives and is given a new backpack with school supplies;
- A teacher asks for winter gear for a student;
- Students stop in daily to borrow or keep gloves, hats, boots, coats, etc.

We also had conferences at Franklin in November and gave out winter clothing (coats, snow pants, boots, hats, gloves) to over 40 kids on the two conference nights. The families appreciated it so much. Thank you all for contributing to the well-being of our Franklin Elementary students!

Sincerely, Jennine Staven

In the bleak midwinter frosty wind made moan.
Earth stood hard as iron and water like a stone.
Snow had fallen,
Snow on snow on snow on snow,
In the bleak midwinter long ago.

Angels and archangels may have gathered there.
Cherubim and Seraphim filled the air.
But only his Mother, in her maiden bliss,
Worshiped the beloved with a kiss.

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd I'd bring to him a lamb.
If I were a wise man, I would do my part.
But what I can I give him?
I'd give to him my heart.

Each time I read the last sentence of this poem by Christina Rossetti, I remember once again the calling we receive at Holy Communion. The Eucharist, as we know, is Christ's loving sacrifice for us. But as we are the new temple, the Body of Christ, it's also our invitation to offer ourselves in union with Christ's priesthood.

So as we spend this Christmastime in joy, knowing that Jesus has come for the salvation of the world, ask yourself what you can give him as you receive the true Body, the true Blood of Christ.

I wish you all a very blessed and merry Christmas season. You are all in my thoughts and prayers!

God Bless,
Michelle Perrier

Feast of The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph: We honor and celebrate the Holy Family as our role model of family life. Take time today to talk as a family about the love, respect, obedience, and hope that the Holy Family teaches us. How do we imitate the virtues of the Holy Family in our own families?

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Grs 6-12, Children & Youth Ministry, dresscm@rescathroch.org
Merry Christmas! This weekend we celebrate the Nativity of our Lord and the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. I am thankful for the beacon of hope that is the Holy Family. It isn't easy to always be on target with responding to life challenges that {insert ANY FAMILY dynamic/struggle} occur. We all have our own story yet one family we can truly call upon for intercession. Let us remember to ask for the aid of the Holy Family, through the power of Jesus, to make straight the path we journey on.

The Holy Family Prayer

JESUS, Son of God and Son of Mary, bless our family. Graciously inspire in us the unity, peace, and mutual love that you found in your own family in the little town of Nazareth.

MARY, Mother of Jesus and Our Mother, nourish our family with your faith and your love. Keep us close to your Son, Jesus, in all our sorrows and joys.

JOSEPH, Foster-father to Jesus, guardian and spouse of Mary, keep our family safe from harm. Help us in all times of discouragement or anxiety.

HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH, make our family one with you. Help us to be instruments of peace. Grant that love, strengthened by grace, may prove mightier than all the weaknesses and trials through which our families sometimes pass. May we always have God at the center of our hearts and homes until we are all one family, happy and at peace in our true home with you. Amen.
