Fridays March 18-April 8th, Stations of the Cross 5:30-6:00pm, Eucharist Talks: 6:00-6:30pm Zenk Hall

As this year begins a 3-year Eucharistic Revival in the United States, we invite you to join us in a study of the Eucharist. At home during the week, we'll individually watch a video by Bishop Cozzens, the auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis, and then on Fridays following the Stations of the Cross we'll meet in Fr. Zenk Hall (Or you can join us over Zoom!) and discuss what we learned over the week with our priests, staff, and fellow parishioners. This information along with the Zoom link will be kept on our website for you to look at any time. Together as a community, let's use this season of Lent to truly understand this gift, this saving and real presence of Jesus Christ in the Most Holy Eucharist.

To Watch the videos: 1. Go to www.reviveparishes.com and create an account. (It's free!) In the search box, enter The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church with Bishop Cozzens. Simply click on the section you want to watch. Weekly Video Discussion Schedule (Watch the video before the date listed):

If there was a saint whose words make me want to jump up and scream "Hallelujah!," it's St. John Chrysostom. Take part of this homily, for instance, about the Eucharist:

"Since Jesus Christ, the Divine Word, says: 'This is My body', let us believe His words and give our assent to them; let us behold His body with the eyes of our mind, for Christ does not show Himself to us in a sensible way, but under sensible things He gives us all that is intelligible (in other words, that we can perceive with our mind only).

"He has acted in like manner in baptism, for there He bestows a gift through a sensible thing, that is, water; by means of the water there is effected something intelligible, the spiritual regeneration and renovation. For, if you were incorporeal (that is, had no body), He would have given you purely incorporeal gifts; but, since in you your soul dwells in your body, He gives you intelligible things in a sensible (or material) envelope.

"Many people nowadays say, 'I wish I could see his shape, his appearance, his clothes, his sandals.' Only look! You see him! You touch him! You eat him! And you desire indeed to see His garments, and He grants you not only to see Him, but also to eat Him, to touch Him, to receive Him within you. Therefore, let no one approach with disgust or with indifference, but let all do so inflamed with love, fervor and eagerness."

So let us come together and see Christ, touch Christ, and receive Christ so that our hearts be set on fire to love and serve our Savior and Lord.

Teaching Kids to Care by Practicing Virtues: Wonder is the virtue we are going to focus on this week. Wonder is astonishment at something awe-inspiring, astounding or marvelous. Spoiler alert!! Kids are much better at practicing wonder because everything is new to them. "As a gift of the Holy Spirit, wonder and awe helps us remember that God is creator and we are creatures. We appreciate the extraordinary and the unique; we notice the little and great amazements of life. Wonder is the foundation of prayer and spills over into how we live." How do we increase our wonder? Do not keep your wonder to yourself, point out a beautiful sunset or the fragrance of flowers or the power of the rainstorm. Spending time in nature as a family, bonds you together with shared discoveries. We can ask each other questions from our readings at Mass: how do you think the disciples felt when everything turned white and bright? What do you think Moses and Elijah said to Jesus? What material do you think Peter wanted to make the tents out of? What do you think God's voice sounded like? Exploring new ways to ask, show, and tell stories to each other is another way to practice the virtue of wonder.

Prayer for Wonder: God of wonder, you have gifted us with wonder; we are in awe of everything around us. As wonder brings us closer to you, help us to cherish all your gifts. Amen.

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Grs 6-12, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org

Bishop Quinn celebrated the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion on the First Sunday of Lent at Queen of Angels Church in Austin, MN with catechumens and candidates throughout the diocese. Candidate Rachel James was in attendance. Debbie Mulvihill, Ashley Wainis, and Robert Wainis, were called by name and prayed for as they were unable to attend this Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion. Marylou Nemgar, RCIA team member and sponsor to Debbie, attended the rite and shared that this experience reminded her to "never take my faith for granted...just as a desert blooms, so does hope and trust in the Lord."

Please pray for our candidates as they enter into this time of final preparation for their reception into the Church at Easter. Pray and ask for the intercession of their chosen saints: St. Mary— Our Lady of the Rosary (Debbie), St. Terese of Lisieux (Rachel), St Gianna Molla (Ashely) and St. Padre Pio (Robert).
