The Crucifixion of Jesus Christ

With our being in the season of Lent which prepares us for the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ, I would like to pose questions on Jesus' crucifixion. The questions come from a website entitled Fun Trivia. The following are the answers to the questions I posed last week.

Question 1: Not counting the Resurrection (considered by some to be an extra station), how many Stations of the Cross are there in the Roman Catholic tradition?

- A. 12
- B. 13
- C. 14
- D. 15

Answer: C. 14

Question 2: Judas gave the thirty pieces of silver he had received for betraying Jesus back to the chief priests. Which piece of land did they purchase with that money?

- A. Potter's Field
- B. Corinth Port
- C. Jordan Valley
- D. Mount of Olives

Answer: A. Potter's Field. It was purchased as a place of burial for strangers, criminals and the poor. It was called "potters" because potters collected the deep red clay from the soil for the production of ceramics prior to its use as a burial ground.

Question 3: According to the Gospels, every Passover, the Roman Governor offered to release a prisoner. Name the criminal who the crowd called to be freed in preference to Jesus.

- A. Barnabas
- B. Barabbas
- C. Barsabbas
- D. Matthias

Answer: B. Barabbas. Barabbas was an insurrectionist and murderer.

Here are the next questions:

Question 1: On the cross, Jesus cried out, 'Lama sabachthani'. What is this translated to mean?

- a. I commend my spirit.
- b. They do not know what they do.
- c. Why have you forsaken me?
- d. You will be with me in Paradise.

Question 2: Name the servant whose ear Peter cut off during Jesus' arrest?

- a. Malchus
- b. Herod
- c. Caiaphas
- d. Pilate

Question 3: According to Luke's Gospel, which two rivals of authority became friends during Jesus' trial?

- a. Agrippa and Herod
- b. Pilate and Caiaphas
- c. Caiaphas and Herod
- d. Pilate and Herod

I will provide the answers next week along with the next set of questions. Good luck!

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

I have been reading a book entitled The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen. The book shares a thread of Bishop Sheen's wisdom for each day of the year. In the weeks ahead, I would like to share some of his wisdom.

October 15 – "It meant nothing to teach men to be good unless He (God) also gave them the power to be good."

Till next week! Father Peter Schuster

Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday at Church of the Resurrection

Sunday, April 24th

12:45 pm Zenk Hall

Video about St. Faustina

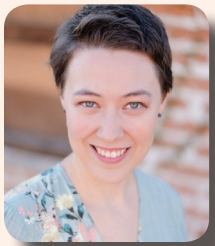

2:00 - 4:00 pm Church

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction, Rosary, Chaplet of Divine Mercy, Quiet Prayer time and Sacrament of Reconciliation.

A novena is intense and persevering prayer for nine days. Jesus instructed Sr. Faustina on the Divine Mercy Novena. It begins on Good Friday (Apr 15th) and ends on the eve (Apr 23rd) of the Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday. Each day of the novena - bring to Jesus a different group of souls and immerse them in His ocean of Mercy that they may draw whatever grace the souls need, especially at their hour of death. (St. Faustina's Diary 1209-1229). Divine Mercy pamphlets are available in the Gathering Space. Jesus, I trust in You.

Our community study of the Eucharist has come to a close. But your work is far from done. After all, even the pope takes time to grow closer to Christ so that he might serve him more fully. During this Holy Week, I challenge each and every one of us to recommit ourselves to Christ once again.

Choose another topic to learn more about, or continue studying the Eucharist. Work harder to be more active in your faith, especially during the Mass itself. Spend more time with God through prayer.

And while you continue to grow in God's love, recommit to serve Christ more fully. Teach others about Christ's true presence in the Holy Eucharist and everything else we learned in our Eucharist study. Exercise your baptismal priesthood and give your entire self to Christ through the things you say and the deeds you do.

Finally, recommit to love. Love the Lord your God with all your mind, with all your soul, with all your being, and with all your strength. Love your neighbors as yourself. Through our faith, words, and deeds, may Christ's love shine more fully upon the world so that others might come to see and believe.

Hosanna filio David: benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Rex Israel: Hosanna in excelsis.

Hosanna to the Son of David, blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel: Hosanna in the highest.

God Bless,
Michelle Perrier

Teaching Kids to Care by Practicing Virtues: During the spring and summer months, we'll be practicing virtues with the assistance of a catechist book by Sr. Janet Schaeffler, OP. On this Palm Sunday, we look at God's greatest gift to us, His Passion. We can practice our generosity in many ways. It is the willingness to freely and unselfishly share who we are and what we have with others, often providing more than is needed or normal. Being generous is not giving money only, and it is not about getting recognition or rewards. Teach children about anonymous giving. Look in the book of Proverbs for scripture about the challenges of living generously. Then research local charities and pick a few to support in ways that are both monetary and non-monetary. Remember the people that live closest to you, your neighbors, by helping with yard work or dropping off a plate of cookies with a happy note. Teaching children to value gifts other than money will help them to value generosity in others. Prayer for generosity: Lord, teach me to be generous. Teach me to give and not to count the cost. (words from St. Ignatius)

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Grs 6-12, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord—

"A great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, 'Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!' And Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it; as it is written, 'Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!' His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him... The Pharisees then said to one another, 'You see that you can do nothing; look, the world has gone after him.'"

—John 12:12-16,19

We enter holy week with great joy. A joy that shifts to unimaginable mocking and suffering of our Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus' beloved followers are unprepared for the great sorrow they are to encounter. The Way of the Cross seems unbearable...and yet Jesus perseveres. He takes up his cross, weak, battered, and beaten, and shows us the way to eternal life. With that, let us be like those who remained with Jesus at the foot of the cross. Let us keep vigil, persevering in prayer as we offer our suffering to Jesus on the cross. Pressing onward to the tomb and to our resurrected Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
