Weekly Words from The Rock

Scramble and Unscramble

There are many pieces to our faith which were taught to us when we were young. I still marvel at parents teaching their children the Sign of the Cross. Parents sit with children at Mass and guide them through what is being said at Mass and the words of a song. Still, myself included, we can get a little rusty when it comes to some of the basics of our faith. For example, someone may ask us to name one of the Ten Commandments. We state, "They shall not steal." The next question being, which commandment of the ten is "Thou shall not steal" and we are left scratching our heads. Let us do something about it today. I am going to scramble the Ten Commandments and I want you to put them in their proper order.

- _____ You shall not steal.
- _____ Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day.
- _____ You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.
- _____ I, the Lord, am your God; you shall not have strange Gods before me.
- _____ You shall not kill.
- _____ You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
- _____ You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
- _____ You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
- _____ Honor your father and mother.
- _____ You shall not commit adultery.

Correct answers will come next week.

Poor Father Schuster

Before you read this story please read Fulton Sheen's wisdom below on patience because patience is at the heart of this story. One day I was duck hunting. It was a terrible day of hunting – no ducks were flying. Then I saw it, the one duck on the opposite side of the pond.

On this particular day, the wind was howling. I noticed the duck getting closer and closer to shore. It was struggling with all the wind. I got myself in position where I believed the wind might take the duck and I waited, and waited and waited. It took patience. Still, the duck was coming my way.

I waited until I could take it no longer. I jumped up and yelled at the duck to fly. The duck only floated along with the waves. I thought it might be wounded and I hate to see anything suffer so I shot but the duck did nothing. It sat upright and kept floating. I fired again and same thing. By this time, I was saying words I should not have been saying and fired again. It finally tipped over. With that, something looked suspicious.

I waited for the duck to come to shore and stared in disbelief. It wasn't a duck at all but a decoy. It was a beautiful decoy, with beautiful detail. The string which held the weight in place had broken and with nothing to anchor the decoy, it was at the mercy of the waves. The kicker of the story is that not only did Father Schuster not have duck soup but he had shot the decoy to such a degree that it no longer floated.

That is what you call a bad day!!!

Children and Church

Here is another joke surrounding children and church.

A father was at the beach with his children when the four-year-old son ran up to him, grabbed his hand, and led him to the shore where a seagull lay dead in the sand.

"Daddy, what happened to him?" the son asked.

"He died and went to heaven," the dad replied.

The boy thought for a moment and then said, "Did God throw him back down?"

More jokes to come.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

I have been reading a book entitled The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen. The book shares a thread of Bishop Sheen's wisdom for each day of the year. In the weeks ahead, I would like to share some of his wisdom.

June 21 – "Patience is the great remedy against becoming panicky. To be able to use reason and good judgment when everyone else goes to pieces not only saves self, but also neighbor."

Till next week! Father Peter Schuster

More ways to pray!

JUST LISTENING

For many of the holiest people in history, listening was a major part of their prayer. To practice Just Listening, find a quiet place where you will not be disturbed for 10-15 minutes. Sit or kneel in a comfortable, upright position. Take several deep breaths and be aware of the air coming in and out of your lungs and notice the quiet around you. Ask God what he would like to tell you and the world about the social issues you are concerned about. Try to sense God's love and other feelings for you, your community and the world. You may wish to sit in stillness, or you might try writing down what you think God might be saying to you and to your community/world.

THE OLD TESTAMENT PROPHETS AND YOU

In a quiet place where you will not be disturbed, read slowly one of the following readings from the Old Testament: Jer. 1:4-10 and 22:1-3; or Is. 58. In silence, prayerfully consider the following questions: What stands out to you about the reading? What was God saying to his people through the prophet? What might the reading mean for the world today? Are you open to being a modern day prophet? What message might God be calling you to proclaim? Ask God to be with you and to guide you as you reflect on these questions. Pray for the strength to respond to whatever God might be asking of you.

THE PRAYER BOX

Using a shoe box or another similarly-sized box, create your own personal prayer box. You may choose to cover your box with paper or decorate it in some way, or you can simply leave it plain. On small slips of paper, write issues about which you are concerned. Put the papers inside the box. During your prayer time each day, pick one or two slips of paper out of the box and pray for those impacted by injustices related to the issues, for policymakers, and for the ability to listen to how God might be calling you to respond.

Teaching Kids to Care by Practicing Virtues: With the assistance of a catechist book by Sr. Janet Schaeffler, OP, let's look at the virtue of responsibility, which is responding to a duty or task that is required or expected. Responsibility is much more than completing a task. It's also about an attitude because of the dignity of each human person, each is called to participate and respond for the sake of the common good. We can encourage children to be responsible by giving them opportunities to make their own lunch, organize their bedroom, and assist in other household chores. We can encourage youth to do volunteer work by providing them with experiences where they need to be on time and to be pleasant, despite how they might be feeling. Prayer for responsibility: Lord, take me where you want me to go; let me meet who you want me to meet; tell me what you want me to say, and keep me out of your way. Amen.

Totus Tuus 2022 Photos:

Special thanks to all of our youth volunteers, who helped the Totus Tuus Team throughout the week!

News from Sheila, Birth-KG, Grs 6-12, RCIA, dresscm@rescathroch.org

Thank you to all who assisted with making Touts Tuus a truly community building and Christ centered opportunity for our Rochester area youth. Teens were well fed with nightly dinners and late night snacks, and by Jesus, through fellowship, praise and worship, Adoration, Confession, and nightly prayer.

Group photos are hard to come by! But I managed to get this one! Thank you volunteers, teen participants and our Totus Tuus team! God Bless and see you next year!
