Weekly Words from The Rock

Scramble and Unscramble

I gave you a week to think about the Ten Commandments. We may know them however do we know which commandment is which? Thus, I scrambled the Ten Commandments and asked you to place them in their proper order. Let us see how you did.

- ___7___ You shall not steal.
- ___3___ Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day.
- ___10___ You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.
- ___1___ I, the Lord, am your God; you shall not have strange Gods before me.
- ___5___ You shall not kill.
- ___8___ You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
- ___2___ You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
- ___9___ You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
- ___4___ Honor your father and mother.
- ___6___ You shall not commit adultery.

Poor Father Schuster

When I was a child, it was common for us to cultivate our corn and beans. It was of such a time that we had a four-row cultivator hooked to the front of the tractor. The tractor had no cab, thus no heat, radio or air conditioning. I would ride on one of the fenders and watch for various weeds. If such a weed presented itself, I would tell dad and he would pull a handle to engage the brake. With that, I would jump off (notice not dad but me) the back of the tractor, pull the weed and get back on the fender.

On one occasion, dad was going to stop for something. He engaged the brake and I wasn't ready. I fell forward and down into the cultivator. As I fell, I banged my head and body on various parts of the cultivator. It really scared my father as I didn't move for a period of time. Finally, I came to with a few bumps and bruises. Now, you might ask, what happened next?

Did I get back on the fender and keep vigilant watch for weeds or did dad take me home? Answer: I don't remember as I was so young but I have a feeling I had quite the headache.

Children and Church

Here is another joke surrounding children and church.

A wife invited some people to dinner. At the table, she turned to their six-year-old daughter and said, "Would you like to say the blessing?"

"I wouldn't know what to say," the girl replied.

"Just say what you hear mommy say," the wife answered.

The daughter bowed her head and said, "Lord, why on earth did I invite all these people to dinner?"

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

I have been reading a book entitled The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen. The book shares a thread of Bishop Sheen's wisdom for each day of the year. In the weeks ahead, I would like to share some of his wisdom.

June 19 – "There are many who excuse themselves, saying if they were in other circumstances they would be more patient. This is a grave mistake, for it assumes that virtue is a matter of geography, and not of moral effort."

Till next week! Father Peter Schuster

JOURNALING

Read slowly one of the following quotes and write in your prayer journal about what strikes you about the quote and how it relates to you personally. Pray for understanding and the grace to respond to God's call.

"Living our Baptism to the full... also means not accustoming ourselves to the situations of degradation and misery that we encounter as we walk along the streets of our cities and towns... We become accustomed to brothers and sisters sleeping on the streets, who have no roof to shelter them. We become accustomed to refugees seeking freedom and dignity, who are not received as they ought to be. Lent comes to us as a providential time to change course, to recover the ability to react to the reality of evil which always challenges us.

"Love of God and love of neighbor have become one: in the least of our brethren we find Jesus himself, and in Jesus we find God." Benedict XVI, Deus caritas est, no. 15

Lent is to be lived as a time of conversion, as a time of renewal for individuals and communities, by drawing close to God and by trustfully adhering to the Gospel. In this way, it also allows us to look with new eyes at our brothers and sisters and their needs."

- Pope Francis, General Audience, 3/5/14

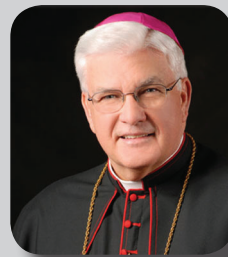

"For me this word is very important. Encounter with others. Why? Because faith is an encounter with Jesus, and we must do what Jesus does: encounter others... with our faith we must create a 'culture of encounter', a culture of friendship, a culture in which we find brothers and sisters, in which we can also speak with those who think differently, as well as those who hold other beliefs, who do not have the same faith. They all have something in common with us: they are images of God, they are children of God." - Pope Francis, Q&A Session with members of movements, communities and ecclesial associations, 5/18/13

Summer Series: The Sacraments

The Sacrament of the Eucharist

News from Stacey, Grades 1-5, Family Ministry, dre1to5fm@rescathroch.org

Our summer series on the Sacraments continues this week with a look at the Eucharist. The Mass is often referred to as the Eucharist, which means "thanksgiving."

"The celebration of Mass is the center of the whole Christian life. All other liturgical Rites and all the works of the Christian life are linked to the Eucharistic celebration, flow from it, and have it as their end."

General Instructions on the Roman Missal

When we come together to celebrate the Eucharist, it is an invitation to love Christ and one another. We remember that the Eucharist is a symbol of our oneness with Jesus, a celebration for all people, all over the world. It is a sign of Jesus within us and one another. At Mass, the priest says the same words that Jesus spoke to his Apostles at the Last Supper. This is when the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ.

"And as they were eating, he took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many." Mark 14:22-24

"Your great intention in receiving Communion should be to advance, strengthen, and comfort yourself in the love of God. If worldly people ask you why you receive Communion so often, tell them that it is to learn to love God, be purified from your imperfections, delivered from misery, comforted in affliction, and supported in weakness."
St. Francis de Sales
