Parish News

Want to end abortion? Prayer and fasting is an effective method of penance that unites us with Christ. "Prayer and fasting are an essential part of a Catholic life. This age-old practice unites our sufferings with Christ, but when done with an intention for a specific person or situation, this form of penance heightens our awareness and unites us with that intention." Article written by Jennifer Brinker 6/28/2019

Please join Fr. Peter Schuster in fasting and praying every Friday to end abortions in our state of Minnesota, our country and throughout the world.

Perpetual Eucharist Adoration Chapel

By choosing an open hour, you commit to that one hour a week. To sign up or for more information, call the church office at 507-288-5528.

This weekend is a second collection for our St. Vincent de Paul Society conference. Thank you for your generosity and prayers for us to continue to serve those in need in the Rochester area.

Resurrection's conference is in need of locked storage space for donated furniture (couches, tables, dressers, etc), kitchen items and bedding. Our current storage availability will end in April. For us to be able to continue to offer these items, we are in need of a storage space that we can have access to from time to time that is easy to get in and out of, especially to move furniture. If anyone has some space they are willing to let the conference use, it will allow us to store the items that have been donated to us and reduce the need to buy from resale shops. Please call the church office 507-288-5528 if you have questions or need more information.

Prayer Groups at Resurrection

Men's Bible Prayer Group - meets the second and fourth Wednesday at 7:00 am in Room C in Zenk Hall. Men of all ages are welcome to come for an hour of reading, reflecting and prayer.

Michelle's

Music & Choral Director & Coordinator of Liturgy
choirdirector@rescathroch.org

Do you ever find it difficult to profess and live God's word? I certainly do. In fact, one of the reasons I am often writing these bulletin articles at two in the morning is because I analyze every single word I write, worried I will hurt or offend someone.

As a Catholic performer, I grew up terrified to talk to others because, unfortunately, there is still a lot of pain between the performing arts and the Catholic Church. Mainly, it stems from both sides feeling unsupported and unaccepted by the other. For years, I never spoke a word about my faith so that performers would feel comfortable enough to sing with me. Similarly, you'll find that I will rarely offer up any of my stories as a performer because sharing them has caused Catholics to judge and shun me. My solution, then, was to never offer any of God's teachings with anyone.

You might not be a performer, but I have a feeling you've had similar experiences. And, if you're anything like me, it might even cause you to waver in your desire to follow God's law constantly by considering or supporting ideas that go against that law. Take, for instance, the dignity of every human life. We know from God himself that all life is precious and cherished by him, and that it is our responsibility to protect it, from conception to natural death. It might be easier to avoid talking about abortion issues. It might be even easier to support abortion laws. If we do that, though, we are denying our complete hope and trust in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. How can we grow as Christ's disciples when we walk away whenever things get difficult or when we find options that better serve our earthly self-interests? And if we refuse to be the voice for unborn children, how will they be heard?

Today, I write to you unafraid to profess my trust in God and in the laws of his kingdom, and I encourage you to do the same. Compassionately teach God's commandments to all people. Do your part to love and care for all life. (see next column)
